

96P AN away from the subscriber, living in Prince-George's county, near Mr. Richard Snowden's iron-works, on the 10th day of May last, a convict servant named William Sheppard, by trade a shoemaker, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, has short brown hair, is of a swarthy complexion, and has an ugly down look. He has been hurt in his right leg, which causes him to limp and to walk on the side of his toes on that side. Had on and took with him an old felt hat, a white cotton jacket, an old blue ditto without sleeves, a pair of tacking trousers with a pair of old brown cloth breeches under them, and a pair of old shoes and stockings. Whoever takes up and secures the said servant, so that his master may get him again shall receive three pounds reward, and, if brought home, reasonable charges, paid by

JOSEPH DUVALL.

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD.

June 2, 1776.
RAN away from the subscribers, living near the Quakers meeting-house, Baltimore county, the three following servants, viz WILLIAM INKLEY, 21 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, is an ill looking clumsy fellow, has a lazy walk, a sore leg, a dim-sight in one of his eyes says he served 7 years with capt. Wearhall, of Miles river, on the Eastern-shore of Maryland, went home to England in 1774 and last summer came in a convict: had on and took with him a white country cloth kersey coat and breeches, white yarn stockings, old double soled shoes plated and nailed, and a coarse country linen shirt. ISAAC BATES, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, about 42 years of age, fresh complexion, grey headed, and speaks broad English: had on a coarse country linen shirt and trousers, old hat, and old shoes. JOHN HORNLY, an Englishman, about 40 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, a cotton weaver by trade, sandy complexion, sore legs, has lately had a cut on his left thumb: had on and took with him an old felt hat, old white cloth coat, futian jacket, ticken breeches, old shoes and stockings, and likely has stole other things. Also went off, about the 10th of February last, WILLIAM HALL, a convict, came into the country last June, a stout well made man, a shoemaker by trade, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, pale complexion, inoot face, short brown hair, came from the West of England, and speaks broad: had on a white cotton jacket and breeches, white yarn stockings, double soled nailed shoes, felt hat, and says he as a relation in Annapolis, by the name of Hounsworth; it is likely he may inlist in some company, as he has made his brags of his being inlisted in 19 different companies in England.
Whoever takes up and secures said servants, shall have, if 20 miles from home, four pounds; if 40 miles, seven pounds ten shillings; if 100 miles, twelve pounds; and if 200 miles, the above reward, and in proportion for either of them, including what the law allows.

JOHN COCKEY OWINGS,
STEPHEN PRICE,

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Annapolis, a negro fellow named FLANDERS; he has no toes, and has been used to go by water. Whoever will take him up and bring him home to his mistress shall have three pounds reward, including what the law allows.

ANNE GAITHER.

June 31, 1776.
COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro man by the name of Phil, who says he belongs to Robert Smith, living in Frederick county; the fellow is well known here, having some time ago lived with one Peter Green of this county, who (as I understand) sold him to said Smith. His master is desired to pay charges and take him from

WILLIAM HAYMOND, Sheriff.

June 7, 1776.
COMMITTED as a runaway, a negro man by the name of Anthony, who says he belongs to two children of the name of Jones, in Amelia county, Virginia; he says he has been run away ever since the year 1766, and says he has been in several jails in different provinces. This said Anthony appears to be a very cunning artful fellow, pretends to be very religious, and also pretends to be a doctor. The owner or owners are requested to pay charges and take said Anthony away.

ROBERTSON STEVENS,
Sheriff of Dorchester county.

June 11, 1776.
TAKEN up as a stray, by the subscriber, at his plantation on Elk-Ridge in Anne-Arundel county, a bay gelding, about 14 hands high, 6 years old, both hind feet white, a star on his forehead, branded on the near shoulder W, shod before, chased with collar and traces, a switch tail and hanging mane. The owner is desired to prove his property, pay costs, and take him away.

DENTON HAYMOND.

There is at the plantation of William Wallace, living near Captain John Bridge in Frederick county, taken up as a stray, a sorrel mare, about three years old, has a blaze in her face, branded on her left thigh with something like a hook, and is not dock'd. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

ANNAPOLIS: Printed by FREDERICK GREEN.

THREE PENCE per pound is given for fine white LINEN RAGS, and one penny per pound for coarse, by the Printer hereof.

June 5, 1776.

On Monday the 1st of July next, will be exposed to public sale, at the house of Mrs. Chilton, in Baltimore, at three o'clock in the afternoon,

THE SLOOP Resolution, about twelve months old, has never been out of the bay; square steeled, burthen about 45 tons, with all her tackle, apparel, and furniture; an inventory of which may be seen in the hands of the subscriber; lately the property of Mr. James Burtell, Worcester county, and taken by a writ of replevin for James Dick and Stewart. The money to be paid immediately on the sale.—For further particulars apply to

THOMAS BRERETON, broker.

Calvert county, May 20, 1776.

THE subscriber thinking that the making of linen, cotton, and woollen CLOTHES at all times, especially now, would be of great advantage to the inhabitants of this province in general, and this part thereof in particular, hath brought from the manufactory of Philadelphia some hands, and has engaged several others, if he finds them wanting, to carry it on in the greatest perfection, has fixed them near his dwelling-house, and in a few days will be ready to weave or spin, in any manner, either of the aforesaid yarns as required; or he will purchase either of the aforesaid materials at a reasonable price, and will pay cash for them.

JOHN WEEMS, jun.

May 18, 1776.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of ROBERT BROWN, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment to the subscriber; and all persons having just claims, against the said estate are desired to give in their accounts with sufficient marks of probity, and they shall be paid by JOHN BROWN, jun. administrator.

May 18, 1776.
STRAYED from Biadensburg, the 27th of April last, a bay horse about thirteen hands and an half high, a star on his forehead, some white on his fore fore-locks, with a bob tail; when rode, trots, paces and gallops, and is shod before. Whoever has taken up the said horse, and will bring him to the subscriber, shall have twenty shillings reward, and all reasonable charges paid by

JOSEPH CARLYLE.

There is at the plantation of Zachariah Barlow, in Anne-Arundel county, on Elk-Ridge, taken up as a stray, a bay gelding, about fourteen hands high, shod all round, a star in his forehead, trimmed with a ridge mane, branded on the near shoulder and buttock thus, N. The owner may have him again, on proving property and paying charges.

EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

May 21, 1776.
RAN away from the subscriber the 19th inst. a negro man named Raphael, a thick, short, well made fellow, has a scar over his right eye in form of a cross; his cloathing, when he went away, consisted of a Welch cotton jacket, striped country cloth breeches, and old felt hat: I suppose he will endeavour to change his habit. Whoever takes up said negro, and delivers him to the subscriber, living near Zachariah Swamp, Charles county, shall be intitled to the above reward, besides what the law allows.

GERARD BOARMAN.

Calvert county, June 3, 1776.
COMMITTED to my custody as runaways, the following convict servant men, viz.

Thomas Rudder, a maltster by trade, and William Pim, alias Bryan, a miller, who say they belong to a certain Mary Hewett, on Kent-island. Daniel Oliver, a sailor who says he belongs to a certain John Smith, on Kent-island. John Hughes, who says he belongs to a certain Daniel Wheeden, on Kent-island. Joseph Phipps, a weaver by trade, who says he belongs to a certain Benjamin Cedars, on Kent-island.

The above servants were taken at the mouth of Patuxent river, in a pettiuger, which they say belongs to Daniel Wheeden, attempting their escape down the bay.—Their mistresses and masters are requested to take them away, and pay charges to

HENRY HUNTT, Sheriff.

Frederick county, May 1776.

Wanted on hire for twelve months, TWENTY servants or slaves for the purpose of wood-cutting.

DANIEL & SAMUEL HUGHS,

at Antietam-furnace.

Elk-Ridge, May 13, 1776.
STRAYED about a week ago from the subscriber, a small sorrel mare, about 13 hands high, a large mane and very short tail, a large tear above her tail which is v-ry remarkable, her brand is unknown. Two dollars shall be paid to the person who will bring her to Joseph Wilkins near Annapolis, or

RICHARD WHITTLE on Elk-Ridge.

Annapolis, May 3, 1776.

GOLIAH,
A remarkable strong black cart-horse; well known in and about this city, eight years old, upwards of sixteen hands high,

WILL, at the request of many respectable gentlemen, planters, and farmers, be let to mares this spring, at the moderate rate of two dollars the leap, and twenty pence to the negro that has the care of him, to be paid at the stable door. The finest and most promising colts are of Goliah's get, and may be seen.

All persons intending to send their mares, are desired to apply previous to the subscriber, and to look at the horse; and, for the convenience of those whom it may not suit to pay cash, I will take good lambs, fit for killing, if brought with the mares in payment.

JOHN ROBINSON.

I have no objection to sending the horse out of town, not exceeding five miles, when there are three or four mares, for a few days, on assurance that care will be taken of him and his attendant.

Patuxent Iron-Works, February 6, 1776.
BEING desirous of settling the estate of our father, RICHARD SNOWDEN, late of Patuxent Iron-Works, deceased, we request all such as are indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, as no longer indulgence will be given them. Also all persons that are indebted to the Patuxent Iron-Works Company, of more than twelve months standing, are requested to come immediately and make payment; and those who have it not in their power to make immediate payment, it is expected they will come and settle their accounts by note or bond. If the above requests are not complied with, we shall take such methods as will compel a settlement, without respect to persons, although it will be disagreeable to

SAMUEL and JOHN SNOWDEN.

SIX DOLLARS REWARD.

STRAYED away from the widow M'Donall's, between Baltimore and Annapolis, on Thursday night the 13th of March, out of the fodder-house, a bay horse, about 14 hands and an half high, paces, trots, and gallops, marked C S on his left shoulder. Whoever takes up said horse, and brings him to capt. Samuel Maynard's at Herring-Creek, or to William Hayes, Fell's Point, Baltimore, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges paid if brought home.

J. CLAPHAM.

Annapolis, March 26, 1776.
RAN away from the subscriber, an indentured servant lad, named Edward Burford, born in Hampshire, about five feet two inches high, fair complexion and brown hair: had with him two cloth coats, one a London brown, the other of coarse light coloured cloth with waistcoat of the same, much worn, good buckskin breeches, ribb'd worned stockings and English made shoes. He is very fond of liquor, and can give no better reason for his employment, than that he often merited chastisement and never received it. He was seen at Mr. Jacob Sampson's in Prince-George's county, pretending leave to visit a ship mate. Should he be taken ten miles from home I will give 40 shillings reward on his return.

J. CLAPHAM.

ABRAHAM CLAUDE,

WATCHMAKER, JEWELLER, and SILVERSMITH,
Opposite Mrs. Johnson's tavern, ANNAPOLIS.

BEGS leave to acquaint the public in general, and his friends in particular, that he still continues to carry on the aforesaid trades in all their various branches, and at the most reasonable rates; also that he cleans and repairs all sorts of fire-arms, small sword, hanger, and cutlasses: He also makes hooks for swords in the neatest and most approved manner. N. B. He has several grots of hooks and eyes to dispose of cheap.

SPRIGHTLY
To be let to mares the ensuing season, at Schoolfield, Prince-George's county.

THE high bred English horse, SPRIGHTLY, full fifteen hands high, rising seven years old, is of a beautiful dark chestnut colour, was got by Wildman's Babram, his dam by Rogers's Babram; his grandam by Sedbury out of lord Portmore's Ebony; is well suited to breed for either the saddle or turf, being remarkably light, and quick in his movements, free from any blemish or incumbrance of gum, and is imagined equal to any horse on the continent, four mile he is at nine stone. He will be let at six dollars, for the season, and half a crown to the groom, and as at so low a rate the cash will be expected before the horse is led out. Good pasture for mares to be had at half a crown a week, or at half a dollar, with proper feeding; and mares above 25 miles distance two weeks gratis.
