 and to be entered on immediately,
 March 1, 1777.
THAT noted and well frequented public house, formerly kept by Mrs. Sarah Ramfay, on the Mead of Severn, about mid-way between Baltimore-Town and Annapolis; and it is the only convenient stage on the roads leading from Baltimore to Lower and Upper Marlborough, and from thence to Virginia. The house will not be let to any person but one of a good character, therefore it is hoped none else will apply. The rent to be agreed on by applying to the subscriber on the premises.
 VACHEL STEVENS.

N. B. I intend to continue keeping the public house myself until some person takes it off my hands, and it will be my constant endeavour to give satisfaction to those who think proper to call on me. I will dispose of a small quantity of good spirits, Madeira wine, whiskey, and sundry household goods, to the person who rents the aforesaid house. w3 V. S.

Anne-Arundel county, March 8, 1777.
I DO hereby forewarn all persons whatsoever from passing and repassing through my plantation to Beard's-Creek; as I find it extremely difficult to keep up my fences. Those who should hereafter be known to pass that way may depend on being dealt with agreeable to the rigour of the law.
 JAMES DISNEY.

March 3, 1777.
RAN away from the subscriber, in Charles county, a well set squat mulatto fellow, named HARRY, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, and 34 or 35 years of age, a very white mulatto, with a very remarkably broad flat nose, particularly betwixt the eyes, where his nose is raised but little above the level of his face, with a bushy head of hair. He has variety of cloaths which I am not acquainted with, as he does not keep them or often make his appearance in them at home. He is a tolerable good shoemaker, clapboard carpenter, cooper, and indeed handy at any thing he is set about, particularly waiting in the house, gardening, mowing, driving a carriage, and the management of horses. Whoever takes up and brings to me the said fellow, shall receive, if taken at my own dwelling or not more than ten miles from it, four dollars reward; if a greater distance, the addition of one dollar for every ten miles as far as eight dollars, including what the law allows; but if secured in gaol only one dollar more than the law allows, paid by RICHARD BROWN.

 convenient garret, and is situated in a pleasant healthy part the country, on the main road leading from George-Town place in this state, and the great complaint of travellers want of a proper stage, is the reason of its being now offered for a tavern. For terms apply to
