FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near the Woodyard, Prince George's county, on Sunday the 30th of March, an indentured servant man named ANTHONY PARMER, born in England: had on when he went away, a country hempen linen shirt almost new, a Bath coating jacket, old London brown superfine cloth-coat lately turned, lightish coloured corded du-roy breeches much worn with silk knee garters, white yarn stockings, old shoes, silver plated shoe and knee buckles, and good hat cut in the fantail fashion; he has a remarkable scar on the top of his head, said he got it by a blow on board a privateer; he is a likely fellow, black eyes, short brown hair inclined to curl; said he will enlist in the service of the American States, get the bounty, and then desert. He went off with one Crumton, a servant of Mr. Naylor, who intended to enlist likewise. Any captain in the service of the United States having enlisted him, shall be welcome to keep the fellow, on acquainting me of him, and paying me for the time he has to serve, which is ten months. He is remarkably fond of drink, and will desert if ever he should get an opportunity. Whoever apprehends him so as I may get him again shall be entitled to the above reward. 3w JOHN BROWN, jun.

STRAYED from the subscriber, living near Piscataway in Prince-George's county, some time in July or August last, two yearling cows supposed to be with calf; the one a dark red, marked on the right ear with a nick above and below, on the left a swallow fork; the other a yellow red, with a white face, belly, and legs, marked in the right ear with a crop, under bit, and two flits, and in the left ear a crop, under bit, over bit, and flit. Also a small light brindle steer, four years old, marked on each ear with a swallow fork and over bit. Whoever will bring the aforesaid strays home shall receive fifteen shillings for either or each of them. 3w FR. CLEM. DYER.

STRAYED or STOLEN, from col. Chew's, in Anne-Arundel county, a dark mare, about 13 and a half hands high, paces, trots, and gallops well; she has no brand, the hind part of one of her hind heels is white just above the hoof; she is rubbed on the sides by drawing; she left a sucking colt, and it is very probable she may make to Patuxent river, in order to cross. Whoever takes up and secures the said mare, so as the owner may get her again, shall receive a reward of six dollars, paid by the subscriber, living near Leonard-Town, St. Mary's county. She left the above plantation on the 18th instant.
March 31. BENNETT HOPEWELL.

THERE is at the plantation of Henry Lyon, jun. in Charles county, near Benedict-Town, taken up as a stray, a gray horse, about 13 hands high, a natural pacer, branded on the near buttock B. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

THERE is at the plantation of Samuel Pool, in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a bright bay mare, with a black mane and tail, about 13 hands high, 4 years old, a natural trotter, no perceivable brand. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges. 3w

B O L D R O B I N,

The property of Samuel Harrison and Stephen Steward, jun.
STANDS at Samuel Harrison's plantation, in the Swamp, Anne-Arundel county, where he will cover at thirty-five shillings the season. He is a beautiful black, 7 years old, full 16 hands high, and is allowed by the best judges to be the compleatest country horse in this state. Mares will be received at the above plantation by William Atwill, or by the subscriber, 3w STEPHEN STEWARD, jun.

THE high bred horie CARELESS will cover this season at Strawberry-hill, at three pounds a mare and five shillings the groom, if the mare is pastured; six dollars and five shillings the groom, if not pastured; or twenty shillings the single leap.

CARELESS is a fine bay, rising six years old, full fourteen hands three inches high, was got by col. Baylor's Fearnought, his dam by Dove, his grand-dam (the dam of King Herod) by Othello, his great-grand-dam by Old Spark, out of Queen Mab, a high bred imported mare, who was the dam of Old Mille, and col. Hopper's Paiolet.

N. B. The mares will be received by Thomas Williamson, who will take proper care of them, but not be answerable for any that may get away. 3w

DESERTED from col. Thomas Price's regiment of Maryland forces, MICHAEL KELLY, an Irishman, about years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, fair complexion, pitted with the small-pox, has short black hair, and is a thick well set fellow. He broke gaol at Alexandria, where he had been committed for desertion about a month ago, and as I have been informed, has enlisted in the 8th Virginia regiment, and is now at or near Winchester. Whoever apprehends said deserter, and brings him to the subscriber shall receive the said reward, he sides one shilling for every mile he shall be brought, from 3w EDWARD DUVAL.

ANNAPOLIS, March 16, 1777.
THE subscriber finding it utterly impossible at this time to carry on his business either with satisfaction to his employers, or benefit to himself, has declined carrying it on any longer. Those gentlemen who have his promise for wigs, or expect them as soon as he possibly can get them done; and as there are several gentlemen in the out counties who have waited for a considerable length of time to send the money for wigs sent them, he begs the favour of them to take the first convenient opportunity of sending it.

I shall have to dispose of sundry articles, and tools for the wig making and dressing business, viz. A considerable quantity of prepared human hair of most colours, raw disto, long hair, several dozen of silk cauls, raw silk, wig buckles, wig wire, hair powder, pomatum, &c. &c. a double assortment of wig blocks, mixing cards and brushes, drawing brushes, razors, &c. &c. I have likewise for sale sundry ready made wigs, false hair, &c. which I will warrant to be good. THOMAS HEWITT.

ANNAPOLIS, March 17, 1777.
THERE is at the subscriber's plantation, in Prince-George county, near Mr. Harrison's chapel, taken up as a stray, a small roan mare colt; her face and legs partly white, he is neither docked nor branded; paces naturally. The owner desires to fetch her away, on proving property and paying charges. 3w BENJ. DUVAL, the sub.
