This horse was got by Peabody, his dam by old Traveller, his grand-dam by Badger, his great-grand-dam by Fox, add his great-grand-dam by the old Godolphin Arabian. He stood the last season at Belmont in Virginia, the property of Benjamin Dulany, Esq. I have very good pasturage for mares at 2/6 per week, and will take great care taken of them, but will not be answerable in case of loss. The money to be paid before the mares are taken away. He begins covering the 1st of April and continues to the 1st of August.

EDWARD EDELEN, jun.

Chester-Town, March 29, 1777. To be RENTED, agreeable to the last will and testament of Thomas Ringgold, Esq; deceased, A TRACT of land, containing 1200 acres, lying in Queen-Anne's county, within 12 miles of Chester-Town, and commonly known by the name of the BEAVER DAMS. About 300 acres of the land are cleared, 27 of it meadow, and at present let in two tenements, one at 50 l. per annum, and the lease expires January 1780; the other at 30 l. per annum, and 300 acres of excellent meadow ground that may be cleared at a small expence. This plantation is capable of great improvement, and will be rented for a term of years on an improving lease in one of two tenements, as may be in it convenient.

Also to be rented, several small tracts of land lying in Kent county. Also the stores, counting House, lumber room, and the wharfs with the two warehouses thereon in Chester town, lately occupied by the deceased.

All persons indebted to the estate, either by mortgage, bond, or any other security, are earnestly directed to pay up the back interest due thereon, to enable the executor to comply with the directions of the will; and those that are indebted on open accounts are desired to pay them, or give bond and security, for the same, and all demands on the estate will be discharged by

JOHN GALLOWAY, executor.

THE high bred horse CARELESS will cover this season at Strawberry-hill, at three pounds a mare and five shillings the groom, if the mare is pastured; six dollars and five shillings the groom, if not pastured; or twenty shillings the single leap.

CARELESS is a fine bay, rising six years old, full fourteen hands three inches high, was got by col. Baylor's Fearnought, his dam by Dove, his grand-dam (the dam of King Herod) by Othello, his great-grand-dam by Old Sparks, out of Queen Mab, a high bred imported mare, who was the dam of Old Mlle, the col. Hopper's Paiolet.

N. B. The mares will be received by Thomas Williamson, who will take proper care of them, but will be answerable for any that may get away.

RAN away from the subscriber, an indentured servant man named JAMES THOMPSON, a joiner and house carpenter by trade; he is about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, much pitted with the small-pox, fond of strong liquor, when drunk very impudent, and has two years to serve from the 30th day of July next. Whoever takes up the said servant, and delivers him at Strawberry-hill, or secures him in any goal, so that the subscriber gets him again, shall receive three pounds currency reward if taken within twenty miles of Annapolis, and five pounds currency if more than twenty miles from Annapolis.

April 8, 1777. RICHARD SPRIGG.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD. Prince-George's county, Piscataway, March 22, 1777. DESERTED the 13th instant, from capt. John Dean's company of foot, belonging to col. John C. Hall's regiment, WILLIAM GILPIN, a well set fellow, about 21 years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high; wears his own hair, which is short and brown, gray eyes, and his face freckled; he is a talkative fellow; and has a long drone to the word yet, which he often makes use of in his discourse. He had on, when he went away, a country cotton coat, almost white and much worn, with white cap metal buttons, doth waistcoat, osnabrig shirt, buckskin breeches, almost new, yarn stockings, and country made shoes: He was out last summer with capt. John H. Lowe, of colonel Thomas Ewing's regiment of Maryland flying camp. Whoever secures the said deserter in any goal, so that the subscriber may get him again, shall have the above reward, and one shilling common currency for every mile, if brought to the above-mentioned place, paid by WILLIAM DUVALL, 1st Lieutenant.

N. B. The said Gilpin received a bounty of 15 dollars from capt. Joseph Marberry, a few days after his enlistment with me. I think this precaution necessary to prevent his imposing on others in the like manner.

SWEETBERR. WILL cover MARES this season at col. Sharp's plantation on the North side of Severn river, (seven miles from Annapolis) at three pounds currency a mare, and a dollar to the groom. He is 15 hands 5 inches and a half high.
