

Annapolis, May 23, 1777. To be sold, for twenty years, of a lot of ground...

ROBERT KNOX. D at public vendue, on Tuesday the 2d next, at the dwelling-house of the late Harrison, at West-River, for sterling cash...

JENIFER and HOOE. D at public sale, at Alexandria, Virginia, on Friday the 23d of this month, under Sullivan and George, a prime fair...

THOMAS LLOYD. Those gentlemen who have promised to furnish their children are requested to send them possible.

THO. B. HODGKIN, J. JOHNSON. D at public vendue, on Thursday the 29th by the subscriber, at his dwelling-house...

JOHN KENNEDY. The sale to begin at one o'clock.

BUCHANAN and CUMMINS. Persons who have any demands against the contractors for victualling the Maryland...

THE AMERICAN CRISIS. NUMBER III. By the author of COMMON SENSE.

ALL we want to know in America is simply this, who is for it will support it, and the remainder will undoubtedly see the reasonableness of their...

THE HONOURABLE THE COUNCIL OF SAFETY of the State of PENNSYLVANIA. A meeting of a respectable number of the inhabitants of the city Philadelphia...

We persecute no man, neither will we abet in the persecution of any man for religion sake; our common relation to others...

of the whigs is the more exposed thereby; and whatever injury their estates may sustain by the movements of the enemy...

GREEN. The Tories have endeavoured to insure their property with the enemy, by forsaking their reputation with us...

elled to bear arms, or do any thing which might strain their conscience; wherefore their advice "to withstand and refuse to submit to the arbitrary instructions and ordinances of men," appear to us a false alarm...

"Every state in America has, by the repeated voice of its inhabitants, directed and authorized the continental congress to publish a formal declaration of independence of, and separation from, the oppressive king and parliament of Great-Britain...

"To us it is a matter of surprise and astonishment, that men with the word "peace, peace," continually on their lips, should be so fond of living under and supporting a government, and at the same time calling it "happy," which is never better pleased than when at war...

"We conclude, with requesting the council of safety to take into their consideration the paper signed "JOHN PEMBERTON," and if it shall appear to them to be of a dangerous tendency, or of a treasonable nature...

THE most cavilling sectarian cannot accuse the foregoing with containing the least ingredient of persecution. The free spirit on which the American cause is founded, disdains to mix with such an impurity...

now done with that doctrine, that those who yet hold their dissent of avaricious miscreants, who content to save themselves, or a nation, who were hanging for a...

COMMON SENSE. Year of the UNION, which GAZETTE Extraordinary, January 23, 1777.

from lieutenant-general Clinton me was this morning received, who arrived in his majesty's ship...

Lieutenant Logie, of his majesty's ship the Mercury, arrived in town this morning from Rhode-Island, with the following letter from commodore Sir Peter Park...

THE commanders in chief in America having thought proper, while the season would admit of it, to employ a considerable number of his majesty's ships and troops for the purpose of making settlements on the colony of Rhode-Island...