

252 to know what the above fleet were received for answer, that Iew France, and had a right to be pleased, without being accountable from Albany we learn, that received that a fire had happened at Canada, which destroyed five ships among other things, the tails and lillie fleet on the lake.

Extract of a letter from Mery
"I returned last evening from the morning, we had a brush, picquet into their lines, with the we must have killed several of the which continued some time."

By intelligence from sundry seafed, been taken prisoners and the enemy since the late expeditio army have suffered in that affair dred in killed wounded and mis

I hat of ours 18 were killed whom seven are dead, and the re

I hat of the alighted which destroyed, more than one third in that the medicin and hospital

I hat general Woolter died wounds in the action of the 27th veteran was supposed by some usefulness, yet his spirit and act last action of his life with undimi

WILLIAMS BU

By Capt. Dennis, just arrived, the 20th of April, we have the That four armed vessel sailed wi one of 16 guns bound for stores, and two of 14 guns for 200 tons of lead. These vessels and only touched at the cape passengers said, that a number fitting out in France for the among them two 36 gun frigate with dry goods, &c. &c. &c. meet with the greatest encourage treatment, at Cape Franca Beggar privateer, belonging to a Guineaman with 400 slaves, a safe port on the island of Hi captain of the sturdy Beggar I know but a little while before, w

Capt. Sinclair is also just arrived dry goods &c. from France; passing with him, who has re in London, but lately thought with dispatches from our amt France to the hon. the congregan States. (Capt. Sinclair, Schooner from the Grenades, 200 of miles, and 30 bar passed with off the coast of Nor no doubt she is arrived by this that state, as she had a fair wind

BALTIMORE

Extract of a letter from a genera ham-Town, date

"I have the pleasure to inf afternoon, part of my division landers and six companies of bold enterprize. They being of Bonham-Town, and about Brunswick. The action conti a half. The continental troop the picquets at Bonham, attack landers out of a wood they had to Pitcataway-Town. The ex again compelled to give way! second time; when, upon due ation with respect to the en Brunswick, Marion-Landing, was judged advisable to retire in excellent order, and our I congratulate you on the adv enemy's best troops. The brave, were too proud to surre them dear."

The enemy allow, by a flag had killed and wounded, one one captain, two lieutenants,

ANNAPOLIS

In COUNCIL, Annapo

SUCH of the collectors of bala acts as have not made returns agreeable to the late act of assembly, and there are many such, are deford forthwith to send such as they may have collected to the receivers, according to their commissions, as the public service may not be im peded.

By order,

R. RIDGELY, Cl. Co.

In COUNCIL, April 24, 1777.

THE general assembly having empowered the go vernor, with the advice of the council, to contract with any person or persons to furnish rations or provisions, either at a certain price for the rations, or by allowing an adequate reward for the trouble then contractor may be at in procuring and furnishing such provisions for the continental troops; while in this state, and the artillery companies and other troops in the pay and ser vice of this state, for the particular defense thereof; every person who is desirous of contracting to furnish the troops in either manner, is requested to send his proposals in writing, sealed up and directed to the clerk of the council, on or before the third day of June next; all which are intended to be opened and compared the morning following, and the reference given to the best offer.

R. RIDGELY, Cl. Co.

256 SIXTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Annapolis, May 27, 1777.
DESERTED, the 11th of January last, from Captain John Fulford's company of artillery, JAMES HARDSTY, a major in said company. He is about 23 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, light complexion, short brown hair, gray eyes, has several small scars on his hands, and full faced. He obtained a furlough the 11th of January last, he being then sick, to go to his mother, who lives in Calvert county, about three miles from Mr. Hillary Wilson's, has since recovered his health, and not returned.

Whoever takes up said deserter, brings him to Annapolis, and delivers him to the subscriber, shall receive the above reward.

JOHN FULFORD.

Annapolis, May 26, 1777.
DESERTED, from Capt. Anderson's company of Col. Thomas Price's regiment, the following man: NATHAN MADDEN, a spare made man; had on when he deserted, a brown coat faced with red, a brown cloth waistcoat, a pair of country linen trousers, a new easter hat, good shoes and stockings, dark brown hair very short, about five feet eight or nine inches high; he is count'y born, and about twenty-two years of age:

THOMAS BUCKLEY, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high; had on a white linen coat and waistcoat, white linen breeches, a country made shirt, thread stockings, and good shoes, a easter hat about half worn, light colored short hair, about nineteen years of age, a country born man. Whoever apprehends the said deserter, shall receive twenty dollars for each.

TAKEN up as a stray, at the plantation of the subscriber, in Frederick county, Tom's Creek hundred, an iron gray mare about three years old, with a flat feather fore-head, neither docked nor branded. The owner may have her on proving property and paying charges.

DANIEL MCCRACKEN.

WAKEN up some days past, opposite the seven Mts., above the mouth of Magothy, a carvel-work BOAT, about 12 feet keel, with some of her planks fastened. The owner, proving his property, may have her again, on paying the charges of this advertisement, with some allowance to the negro who took care of her.

JOHN TRIDGEL.

Alexandria, Patuxent River, May 22, 1777.
The subscriber has taken up a small flat-bottom BOAT, near Lyon's-Creek, that wanted much repair. The owner may have it again, on proving property and paying charges.

S. MUEL NORTHEY.

Advertisements omitted this week will be inserted in our newspaper.

ANNAPOLIS, May 3, 1777.
To be SOLD at public vendue, on Saturday the 31st of May, 1777 pursuant to the will of John Ducker, deceased; at Mr. Josiah Watts,

A PLATE OF LAND, containing one hundred and fifty-two acres well watered and timbered, with only about thirty acres fresh cleared and under a good fence; situated on the main road leading from Annapolis to Frederick-Town, within eight miles of Elk Ridge Landing, and nine of Indian Landing, two principal landings for market. Any person desirous of purchasing, may view the premises, by applying to Mr. John Ducker, who lives adjoining to the said land, and will show the same. The terms of purchase will be agreed on the day of sale.

CASSANDRA DUCKER, Executrix.

There will be several young negroes and horses sold on the same day.

w2

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

Annapolis, April 18, 1777.
DESERTED from the ship DEFENCE, some time ago, BENJAMIN HOBBS, and was seen in this city the 16th instant. He is a thick, well-made fellow, about 5 feet 5 inches high, of a swarthy complexion, black hair that curls behind, had on a black jacket and hunting-shirt under it, a pair of trousers, old stockings and shoes. Whoever takes up said Hobbs and delivers him to the ship, shall be intitled to the above reward; and should the ship not be in the place he gets on board some of the gallies.

GEO. COOK.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

Annapolis, April 18, 1777.

DESERTED from the ship DEFENCE, some time ago, BENJAMIN HOBBS, and was seen in this city the 16th instant. He is a thick, well-made fellow, about 5 feet 5 inches high, of a swarthy complexion, black hair that curls behind, had on a black jacket and hunting-shirt under it, a pair of trousers, old stockings and shoes. Whoever takes up said Hobbs and delivers him to the ship, shall be intitled to the above reward; and should the ship not be in the place he gets on board some of the gallies.

JOHN KENNEDY.

ANNAPOLEIS: Printed by FREDERICK GREEN.

To be SOLD, at public vendue, on Tuesday the 31 day of June next, at the dwelling house of the late Benjamin Harrison, at West-River, for Sterling cash, continental or convention currency,

A parcel of healthy NEGROES, consisting of men, women, and children, amongst whom are two young fellows that are very good sawyers.

SAM. HARRISON,
SAM. HARRISON, jun. } Executors.

w3

Annapolis, May 12, 1777.

NECESSITY COMPELS THE MEASURE.

THIS term of the COPARTNERSHIP between WALLACE, DAVIDSON, AND JOHNSON, having expired on the first day of January last, and the present cruel and unjust war prosecuting by Great-Britain against the freedom of America, rendering it impracticable to renew the same; notice is hereby given, that by mutual consent the said PARTNERSHIP was dissolved on that day accordingly: It is necessary, therefore, our affairs be settled; wherefore we earnestly request all persons indebted to the concern in any manner, to make full and immediate payment, which has been too long neglected by many, who, taking advantage of the times, from such conduct lenity ought not to be expected, yet such as have it not in their power immediately to settle their open accounts by payment, are, for the last time, desired to settle the same by bonds.

I hat branch of the business in the management of our Mr. JOHN ON, in London, will with fidelity be carefully attended to, until the completion thereof; and our friends experience of his past conduct will, we hope, sufficiently recommend him to their future favours, to make full and immediate payment, which has been too long neglected by many, who, taking advantage of the times, from such conduct lenity ought not to be expected, yet such as have it not in their power immediately to settle their open accounts by payment, are, for the last time, desired to settle the same by bonds.

I hat branch of the business in the management of our Mr. JOHN ON, in London, will with fidelity be carefully attended to, until the completion thereof; and our friends experience of his past conduct will, we hope, sufficiently recommend him to their future favours, to make full and immediate payment, which has been too long neglected by many, who, taking advantage of the times,

STOLEN or strayed from the subscriber, about the fourth day of April last, a black HORSE, with a star in his forehead, switch tail, paces, trots, and gallops, had all round, about fourteen hands high, and nine years old; brano, if any, not perceptible. Who ever brings and delivers the said horse to me, at the city of Annapolis, shall receive twenty shillings, paid by

w4

JAMES TAYLOR.

Alexandria, April 26, 1777.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

For apprehending the following prisoners, who made their escape last night, about 12 o'clock, viz.

BARTLETT GOODRICH, James Parker, George Blair, John Cunningham, John Rothery, Josiah Rogers, John T. and William Nicholls, and John Duncan.

It is expected they crossed the river Patowmack, as several horses are missing from Alexandria. The four first were inhabitants of or near Norfolk borough, Virginia.

Whoever apprehends the said prisoners, shall be paid the above reward, or in proportion for either of them.

if

ABRAHAM BURFORD.

April 10, 1777.

BUCEPHALUS.

A fine, strong, active, handsome, young horse, full blood, he is known to get remarkable fine colts, COVERS this season, at my ferry, on the Eastern Branch of Patowmack river, at thirty shillings per mare, and infuses at three pounds; and ten shillings a single leap. Any gentlemen who will favour me with their mares may depend good care shall be taken of them, and pasture at two shillings and sixpence per week, by their humble servant,

SAMUEL COLLARD.

N. B. The money to be paid down at the stable door, before the mares are covered.

MAHOMEET,

A beautiful horse, of the Arabian breed, full fifteen hands high, six years old this spring, a beautiful dapple gray, exceedingly well made, and answers extraordinary well either for the turf, saddle, or carriage, STANDS this season (which will be until the 20th of August next) at the following most reasonable price, viz. Twenty-five shillings if paid the first time the mare is covered, otherwise five dollars when the mare refuses, and if not then paid eight dollars, Continental currency.

The subscriber hath for sale some beautiful full blooded mares and colts. w6 BENJ. PHILPOTT.

ANNAPOLEIS: Printed by FREDERICK GREEN.

buckles, and an old felt hat. Whenever he keeps up said servants, shall be paid one delivering them, to the subscriber, at his dwelling, plantation, the above reward, or forty dollars for either, by SAM. HARRISON, and SAM. HARRISON, jun. Executors.

w3

Annapolis, May 12, 1777.

NECESSITY COMPELS THE MEASURE.

THIS term of the COPARTNERSHIP between WALLACE, DAVIDSON, AND JOHNSON, having expired on the first day of January last, and the present cruel and unjust war prosecuting by Great-Britain against the freedom of America, rendering it impracticable to renew the same; notice is hereby given, that by mutual consent the said PARTNERSHIP was dissolved on that day accordingly: It is necessary, therefore, our affairs be settled; wherefore we earnestly request all persons indebted to the concern in any manner, to make full and immediate payment, which has been too long neglected by many, who, taking advantage of the times, from such conduct lenity ought not to be expected, yet such as have it not in their power immediately to settle their open accounts by payment, are, for the last time, desired to settle the same by bonds.

I hat branch of the business in the management of our Mr. JOHN ON, in London, will with fidelity be carefully attended to, until the completion thereof; and our friends experience of his past conduct will, we hope, sufficiently recommend him to their future favours, to make full and immediate payment, which has been too long neglected by many, who, taking advantage of the times,

STOLEN or strayed from the subscriber, about the fourth day of April last, a black HORSE, with a star in his forehead, switch tail, paces, trots, and gallops, had all round, about fourteen hands high, and nine years old; brano, if any, not perceptible. Who ever brings and delivers the said horse to me, at the city of Annapolis, shall receive twenty shillings, paid by

w4

JAMES TAYLOR.

Alexandria, April 26, 1777.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

For apprehending the following prisoners, who made their escape last night, about 12 o'clock, viz.

BARTLETT GOODRICH, James Parker, George Blair, John Cunningham, John Rothery, Josiah Rogers, John T. and William Nicholls, and John Duncan.

It is expected they crossed the river Patowmack, as several horses are missing from Alexandria. The four first were inhabitants of or near Norfolk borough, Virginia.

Whoever apprehends the said prisoners, shall be paid the above reward, or in proportion for either of them.

if

ABRAHAM BURFORD.

April 10, 1777.

BUCEPHALUS.

A fine, strong, active, handsome, young horse, full blood, he is known to get remarkable fine colts, COVERS this season, at my ferry, on the Eastern Branch of Patowmack river, at thirty shillings per mare, and infuses at three pounds; and ten shillings a single leap. Any gentlemen who will favour me with their mares may depend good care shall be taken of them, and pasture at two shillings and sixpence per week, by their humble servant,

SAMUEL COLLARD.

N. B. The money to be paid down at the stable door, before the mares are covered.

if

ABRAHAM BURFORD.

April 10, 1777.

BUCEPHALUS.

A fine, strong, active, handsome, young horse, full blood, he is known to get remarkable fine colts, COVERS this season, at my ferry, on the Eastern Branch of Patowmack river, at thirty shillings per mare, and infuses at three pounds; and ten shillings a single leap. Any gentlemen who will favour me with their mares may depend good care shall be taken of them, and pasture at two shillings and sixpence per week, by their humble servant,

SAMUEL COLLARD.

N. B. The money to be paid down at the stable door, before the mares are covered.

if

ABRAHAM BURFORD.

April 10, 1777.