

MARYLAND GAZETTE

THURSDAY, AUGUST 14, 1777.

Annopolis, May 13, 1777.
TERMS OF THE COPARTNERSHIP between WALLACE, DAVIDSON, AND JOHNSON...

From such conduct lenity ought not to be shown, yet such as have it not in their power...

WALLACE, DAVIDSON, AND JOHNSON.
Piscataway, July 1, 1777.
FOR SALE,

Lot in Piscataway: The improvements thereon are, a dwelling-house two stories high...

TICKETS

IN THE AMERICAN STATES LOTTERY WILL BE SOLD BY WALLACE AND DAVIDSON IN ANNAPOLIS, the 11th day of August next, and no longer.

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

Deserted from capt. Jacob Brice's company, of the 3d regiment of Maryland troops, commanded by col. M. Gift...

WANTED,

MILLER, capable of managing a merchant mill, such a person may meet with encouragement by going to the printer.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Elk-Ridge, Anne-Arundel county, near Green's mill, Patuxent river, July 7, 1777. A man away from the subscriber, a convict servant...

WILLIAM RAY, jun.

GREEN.

WESBON, April 15.
WE have set at liberty the foreigners that had been imprisoned during the late reign...

Though we do not at present talk much of war, nevertheless the queen has lately made a grand promotion in four regiments.

His Prussian majesty is perfectly recovered from his late fit of the gout, and attends the military exercises of the season as usual.

LONDON, May 9.

On Monday the 28th ult. the Aurora's cargo of tobacco (a prize brought into Liverpool) divided into about 80 lots...

The fact respecting Lord Percy is, in substance, as follows. After the affair at Trenton, general Howe wrote to Lord Percy for 1500 men...

Lord Percy wrote an account of the whole affair, and sent it (by the late vessels from Rhode-Island) to his father, the duke of Northumberland...

His lordship was surprised also, not having had the least information of such difference.

It is not known what has been done; but it is probable that gen. Robertson, or gen. Pattison, who will set out this day for New-York, will carry the decision.

This morning 40 per cent. insurance was offered on the Dutch mail that sailed on Saturday last from Harwich for Helvoetsluys...

Letters from Amsterdam mention, that a large American privateer had put in there to repair, and was almost ready to sail on a cruise...

Most gracious sovereign, The bill which is now my duty to present to your majesty, is intitled, 'An act for the better support of his majesty's household...'

By this bill, Sir, and the respectful circumstances which preceded and accompanied it, your commons have given the fullest and clearest proof...

But all this, Sir, they have done in a well grounded confidence, that you will apply wisely, what they have granted liberally, and feelingly...

His majesty, relying on the zeal of his faithful commons, thinks it necessary to desire that they will make provision for the extraordinary of the American rebellion...

The supplies granted in the course of the present year, including the intended vote of credit, and 2000,000 navy bills, to be paid off, will amount to fourteen millions and a half...

Yesterday orders were sent to Cork, to get ready provisions there for twenty sail of transports for New-York, which they are to expect by the 30th instant.

This morning advice was received from Dunkirk, that capt. Kelly, was very unhappy in his present situation; that the French had thrown many obstacles in his way, and he had so many punctures to go through before his ship could be delivered up...

All accounts from America agree, that there has been a greater mortality, through the flux and other disorders, among the foot-guards, than in any other corps.

A ship from Virginia, with 250 hogheads of tobacco, bound to France, is taken by the crew, and carried into Whitehaven.

They write from Hanover, that the troops of that electorate, which usually consist of 16,000 men, are reduced by the late draughts, and by sickness, to 11,000...

The 6th ult. there was the greatest tempest all over Western Prussia and Pomerania that ever was remembered, which has done infinite damage, and destroyed several houses, churches, &c.

Lord C. is confidently affirmed, has lately transmitted accounts of a very alarming nature to some of the principal persons in administration, respecting the intrigues of two northern courts with the leading members of a certain republic...

The last accounts from Paris mention an order having been sent to Olyon and Brest for immediately arming all the small ships of war, and for disarming eight sail of the line that were lately put in commission at the last-mentioned port.

We are assured from very good authority, the true reason of the Badger sloop of war coming ex-patriate from the West-Indies was, to inform government that admiral Gayton had intercepted two or three letters from the governor of St. Domingo to the American congress...

The secret treaty between the emperor, the king of Prussia, and the king of Sweden, is certainly concluded; The particulars are not all known as yet, but their plan is to oppose the empress of Russia in her progress.

The French officers who were confined on-board the guardship at the Nore, have been released through the intercession of the French ambassador, on condition of immediately returning to France, and never more setting foot in America during the present war.

The Mercet, late the Earl of Errol, a large American vessel from Virginia, with 568 hogheads of tobacco, salted, and staves on board, bound to France, was taken by eight of the ship's company...

Yesterday a schooner coming in from Cadix, with money on-board (about 15,000 dollars) wine, and other articles for the garrison, was boarded and taken by a sloop of the Alarm...

who was killed by the Spaniards, on their first boarding her. They write from Madeira, that a rebel privateer, called the Little John, is taken after a severe conflict, by an English sloop of war of inferior force...

ROSELTON, July 24.

By an express arrived here last night, from Manchester, in the state of Vermont, which he left on Tuesday the 14th instant, we learn, that the enemy were then in possession of and fortifying Castle Town, on the Hampshire grants, and cutting a road through towards South Bay, in order to get to Fort Anne...

PROVIDENCE July 19.

Saturday evening last a flag of truce came up the river from Newport with baggage, &c. for gen. Prescott. An officer, who came in the flag, strongly solicited for leave to come up, and to have an interview with the general, which was not granted.

By some deserters from Rhode-Island we learn, that the capture of gen. Prescott threw the enemy into great confusion. After discovering a little from their panic, parties were dispatched to every quarter of the island in search of their general...

Capt. Benjamin Pearce, in the privateer United States, belonging to Warren, in company with a New-London privateer, has taken a ship from the West-Indies bound to London, having on board 450 hogheads of sugar, 200 deerkins, 200 raw hides, 6000 white oak staves, &c.

FISH-KILL, July 21.

We have just had a brush with the enemy at Fort Edward, in which lieutenant Van Veghten was most, infamously butchered and scalped. Two sergeants and two privates were likewise killed and scalped...

Last Tuesday two men were taken up and interrupted in their errand to gen. Howe. They, being both Germans, were recommended to one Freleigh, their countryman, a Banach-tory, to direct them the road. They 'unluckily' made a mistake by calling on a whig of the same name...

Last Monday was hanged at Fort Montgomery, one of Lord Howe's recruiting officers. Last week another of the same gentlemen was hanged at Pecks-Kill.

KINGSTON (New-York) July 21.

We hear that upon the news of the evacuation of Ticonderoga, our troops and militia came in from all quarters in such numbers, that there were soon after at Fort-Edward and the posts near it, an army of above 20,000 men, who it is hoped, may in their turn drive gen. Burgoyne out of the country faster than he came...