It would suit a person who understands the management of a garden, being but a small distance by water from Annapolis market; which in general is the highest in America. The situation, and the many advantages it has got, needs no description. There is likewise a negro woman that can sew, knit, and spin, and has been used to all sorts of house-work; she will either be hired with the plantation, or otherwise.—Any person whom this may suit, may know the terms, by applying to Mr. Robert Couder, or the subscriber, near Oxford.

He took with him, besides his common country-made linen and woollen clothing, a pair of black or brown breeches, of British manufacture, a blue-cloth coat of ditto, a white linen shirt, calico waistcoat, a pair of old shoes, stockings, and hat; and may possibly be provided with other apparel than is here described, or shrewd enough to exchange for it.—His declared intention was to get on board the fleet, as it went down the bay, in which he probably failed, by being too late; and it is suspected he is at present harboured and entertained by his kin-folks and acquaintances; on the north side of Severn, either at Mr. Keri's plantation (the seat of the late Col. Hammond) where he was born and bred;—or at those of the Mr. Boons—where he is said to have children;—or somewhere in the neck, not far from these.—He is a notorious offender, and audacious villain, and it is hoped will be dealt with accordingly, wherever he is found skulking. The above reward will be paid immediately, on the delivery of him to my overseer, Thomas Woodward, at my said plantation;—or to William Haycraft, at the head of Severn; or at Annapolis, to
