

Prince-George's county, December 3, 1777. STRAYED or stolen from the subscriber, on the 15th of November, an iron-gray horse, about 14 hands high, branded on the near buttock T. C. has one white foot, is remarkably sore on his back, and is a natural pacer. Whoever will secure the said horse shall receive 6 dollars on bringing him to me. JOHN BRASHEAR.

THERE is at the plantation of George Grant, near the mouth of Seneca, in Montgomery county, taken up as a stray, a chestnut sorrel mare, about 13 hands and a half high, a natural pacer, has but one eye, her brand not perceivable. Whoever will have her again on proving property and paying charges.

THERE is at the plantation of Basil Spaulding, near Port Tobacco, in Charles county, a dark red cow, marked with a crop hole, under bit and slit in the right ear, a crop, under bit and over bit in the left; she has some white on her belly. A yearling came with her nearly of the same colour, unmarked. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

ALL persons indebted, on open account, to the countesship of JAMES DICK and STEWART, or to either of them, are requested to discharge the same by payment, or to settle and give bonds for their debts, with security, where required, which will save all further trouble, as, if this request is not soon complied with, suits will be commenced without farther notice. A sentence will be given every Thursday and Friday at the subscriber's house at Annapolis, and on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, at his house in London-Town. JAMES DICK.

Upper Marlborough, November 20, 1777. RAN away from the subscriber, on the 2d day of the month, a stout thick NEGRO man named PETER, formerly the property of Mr. James M'Curran, and on and took with him, an old fawn-gas pea jacket, a blue cloth sailor's pea jacket lined with white flannel, an old off-brig shirt, one pair of other breeches, white yarn stockings, country made shoes, black Barcelona handkerchief, and a handkerchief. It is likely he is harboured in the neighbourhood of Annapolis, as he hath many acquaintances in the city. Whoever takes up the said negro man and brings him home, shall receive 3 pounds reward, besides what the law allows. THOMAS CRACKELLS.

To be SOLD, UPWARDS of five hundred acres of LAND, lying in Frederick county, on Bennett's-Creek, about 12 miles from Frederick-Town, a stream of water running through it capable of supporting a mill, a considerable quantity of good meadow ground, and a very extensive range. For terms apply to THOMAS HARWOOD, jun.

To be SOLD, SEVEN hundred and three acres and a half of LAND, near to Colton's Cross Roads, in Queen-Anne's county. Also two hundred eighty-one acres, near the Rev. Mr. Keene's, in Caroline county. Apply to ROBERT BROWNE.

To be SOLD, A very good PHAETON, and genteel harness for a pair of horses; to be seen at Mr. Brown's, near Seven-Town. To prevent trouble, the price is one hundred and fifty pounds. For a pair of exceeding good grey horses, upwards of thirteen hands high; they go remarkably well in chariot or harness.

TAKEN up as a stray, near Mr. Abraham Boyd's plantation, in Prince-George's county, a small black mare, with a star in her forehead, about twelve hands high, no visible brand; appears to be six or seven years old, trots and gallops. The owner may have her again, on proving property and paying charges to ELIZABETH FREE.

THERE is at the plantation of James Dickus, Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a bay horse, branded on the near buttock, but not legible; his hind feet white, about thirteen hands high, and appears to be 13 or 14 years old; he paces, trots and gallops. The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

Schoolfield, Prince-George's county, Oct. 21, 1777. HORSES, mares and foals, and mares with foals, to be sold for five pounds to three hundred pounds. Time for payment will be given, on bond with security. THOMAS HAMILTON.

Monkton-Mills, Nov. 10, 1777. ALL persons who have any demands against the estate of Mr. Robert Cummins, late of Baltimore county, deceased, or those who are indebted to said estate, are desired to bring their accounts to the subscriber at Monkton-Mills, in order that they may be adjusted. Likewise those who stand indebted to, or have accounts against said R. Cummins, as contractor for victualling the Maryland or Continental troops are earnestly requested to bring them to Mr. J. Ashmead, of Annapolis, who is empowered to settle said contract. MARGARET CUMMINS, executrix.

November 12, 1777. ALL persons indebted to the estate of Mr. John Hamilton, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment; and those who stand indebted to said estate are desired to bring them in legally proved. THOMAS TALARD.

N. B. I want a single man, as an overseer; such a one, well recommended, may meet with employment. T. T.

For SALE, THE following TRACTS of LAND, viz. The New Littlewood Forest, Stevens's Hope, and part of the tan-yard, containing 642 acres, lying in Charles county, between Jordan Swamp and Mattawoman Swamp; one tract, called the Curtail Rebecca and Surgeon's Tail, containing 226 acres, lying part in Charles county, and part in Prince-George's county, on a branch, called the Wolf's Den; one other tract, called Poplar Thicket, containing 133 acres, lying in Prince-George's county. Any person inclinable to purchase, may know the title and terms, by applying to CL. WHEELER.

BROKE GAOL last night, the following prisoners, viz. THOMAS BYRNE, committed on suspicion of forgery, about five feet eight inches high, of a dark complexion, long visaged, black short hair: Had on, when he made his escape, a felt hat, red silk handkerchief spotted with white, an old blue coat with short skirts, a light coloured cloth jacket, regimental made, with buttons marked M country made shoes, with a remarkable small pair of brass buckles in them. NEGRO JEM, under sentence of death, about five feet nine inches high, between fifty and sixty years of age, and has a lump on his forehead to something like a wen: Had on, when he made his escape, a light coloured coat, turned up with white. Any person who apprehends any of the above persons, and secures them, so that they may be had again, shall receive five pounds reward for any or each of them.

Also committed to my custody, as a runaway, a negro man, named ISAAC, formerly the property of the above Joseph Williams, and says he belongs to Benjamin Darby, of Montgomery county. His matter is hereby requested to take him away and pay charges. THOMAS DEALE, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

THE subscriber, having the management of the TAN-YARD belonging to this state, will give encouraging prices for any quantity of sound green or dried hides, delivered in the city. WILLIAM GOLDSMITH.

EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD. Prince-George's county, Sept. 1, 1777. RAN away from the subscriber, living near George-Town, on Monday the 1st instant, a NEGRO man named Charles, 20 years of age, near six feet high, rather clumsy about the ankles, and knec-kneed; had on, when he went away, a country linen shirt, a pair of brown corded breeches, a blue gray jacket, trimmed with black, without sleeves, a pair of half-worn country shoes. I bought him of Mr. George Nailor of Nottingham; it is supposed he will seek about in that neighbourhood. Whoever takes up said negro and secures him in any goal, so that his matter may get him again, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home. JOHN THOMAS BOUCHER.

TICKETS IN THE FIRST CLASS OF THE UNITED STATES LOTTERY TO BE SOLD BY WALLACE AND DAVIDSON IN ANNAPOLIS. York-Town, Nov. 10, 1777. THAT the prices at foot will be given for the articles there mentioned, delivered at the magazines at George-Town, Baltimore, York-Town, Carlisle, Lancaster, Reading, Trenton or Morris-Town. As these prices are sufficiently liberal and fixed (so far as the same respects the state of Pennsylvania) by the advice and authority of the council of safety thereof, the public may be assured they will not be exceeded. Nor will that for flour and whisky be continued at the magazines distant from camp, if those more contiguous shall be able to supply the demands thereof, unless by contract speedily entered into. Any person inclining to supply ship or middling buiter, or hard soap and candles, delivered as above, are desired to call on me, or send their terms in writing as to quantity and lowest price. Tallow and fat will be supplied to tallow-handlers engaging. Foresters and engrossers are warned to take care how they meddle with articles necessary for the support of the army; a trade so destructive will no longer pass with impunity. Good pork, 52s. 6d. per cwt.—Beans and pease, 3s. 6d. per bushel.—Shell'd barley, 25s. per bushel.—Good flour, 22s. 6d. per 112 lb.—Flour barrels, 3s. 9d. each.—Whisky, full proof, 8s. 6d. per gallon.—For the cask, at the rate of 15s. per hoghead, Pennsylvania currency. WILLIAM BUCHANAN, Commissary-general of purchases for the armies of the United States.

Annopolis, Nov. 26, 1777. BACON'S LAWS of MARYLAND, to be sold by JOSEPH DOWSON.

TO BE LET, MY PLANTATION and NEGROES, near Annapolis, ELISABETH BORDLEY.

Herring Bay, October 28, 1777. To be SOLD by the subscriber, A LARGE imported English BULL, near fourteen hands high, remarkable for getting five calves, and his breed noted for milk. Any person willing to purchase is desired to apply to RICHARD CHEW.

To be SOLD by public vendue, on Saturday the 15th instant, at the late dwelling-house of Mr. J. Campbell, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, ONE NEGRO girl, about 17 years of age, and a milch COW, and sundry household furniture. All persons having demands against the said estate are requested to bring them in, prior to the said day, that they may be paid; and those that are indebted are desired to make immediate payment to Mr. Daniel Campbell, who is authorized to settle the said estate, by FRANCES CAMPBELL, Executrix, ALLEN QUINN, Executor.

To be SOLD at public vendue, on Tuesday the 30th of December, at the subscriber's dwelling plantation, in Charles county, Cornwallis's Neck, FIFTEEN likely country born NEGROES, consisting of men, women, boys and girls, from the age of twenty-four years to one. Likewise a parcel of blooded mares and colts. Also thirty or forty head of cattle, among which are some very good milked heaves. WALTER PYLE.

The sale to begin at ten o'clock, and continue till all is sold. Queen's-Town, Anne-Anne's county, Nov. 10, 1777. ALL persons indebted to the estate of SARAH A. FLYNN, deceased, are requested to make immediate payments; and those who have any claims against the said estate are requested to bring their accounts, legally proved, to the subscriber, that they may be adjusted. THOMAS FITZSIMONS, Executor.

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD. Prince-George's county, Nov. 24, 1777. ON the 9th instant I purchased a mare, for the sum of fifty pounds, of a person who called himself THOMAS DUNNING, which mare it appears he had stolen from WILLIAM CUMMING, of Frederick county: DUNNING appears to be about 40 years of age, and is a slim made fellow, about 5 feet 6 inches high, wears his own dark hair, has a crooked nose, long teeth before, and chews tobacco. He had on a light coloured cloth coat and waistcoat, a pair of leather breeches and boots, and was on a small bay horse; but as I am well informed he is a noted villain, it is highly probable he has changed his horse and cloath, if not his name. Whoever will give me certain information where the said Dunning may be found, or secure him in any goal, so that he may be brought to condign punishment, shall receive thirty dollars; or if brought to my house, near Mr. Baldwin's tavern, and delivered to me, so that I can have the pleasure of handling the gentleman, the above reward of forty dollars shall be instantly paid by WILLIAM TYLER.

THERE is at the plantation of Edward Medcalf, at Seneca-Falls, taken up as a stray, a bay horse, about thirteen hands high, has a star on his forehead, three white feet, branded on his near shoulder and buttock with B, paces, trots and gallops. The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

THERE is at the plantation of John Rawlings, in Cecil county, taken up as a stray, a bright bay horse, with some saddle spots, a large mane and tail, about fourteen hands and one inch high, supposed to be twelve years old. The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

CAME to the plantation of Priscilla Pinkney, near Annapolis, some time in July or August last, a large brindled STEER, marked with a crop in each ear. The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

THERE is at the plantation of James Powel, near Pig-Point, on Patuxent river, Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a bay HORSE, about 14 hands 3 inches high, near hind foot white, some saddle spots, no brand, paces pretty well. The owner may have him again, on proving property and paying charges.

THERE are at the plantation of Joseph Howard, jun. living on the head of South river, four stray cattle, viz. three steers, a red one about five years old, a black and white one about five years old, a brindled one about two years old, with some white about him, and a black heifer with a white face, &c. about two years old: The above cattle are all marked with a crop and a hole in the right ear, and a crop in the left. The owner or owners thereof are desired to prove property, pay charges, and take them away.

Maryland, Nov. 1, 1777. COMMITTED to Queen-Anne's county goal, as a runaway, about the first of October, a fully likely NEGRO fellow, between twenty and thirty years of age, has no cloaths, says his name is Charles Woods; that he has been run away a great while; that his master's name is Charles Todd, upon Piankittank river, and that he crossed the bay, he does not know from what county. I judge Middlesex, in Virginia. His matter is desired to take him away and pay charges, otherwise he will be sold for the same according to law, by W. WRIGHT, Sheriff Q. A. C.

STOLEN out of the pasture of Charles Carroll d. Carrollton, Esq. 2 miles from Annapolis, about the 4th of September last, a dark brown or bay horse, 13 hands high or thereabouts, branded on the near shoulder C.C. has a hanging mane, a short switch tail, 4 white feet, a small star on his forehead, a white snip down his nose, and appears plain to be a draught horse. Whoever delivers said horse to the subscriber, at Equire Carroll's quarters, shall receive five pounds currency reward, paid to me, JOHN SEARS.
