FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

Prince-George's county, Nov. 24, 1777.
ON the 9th instant I purchased a mare, for the sum of fifty pounds, of a person who called himself THOMAS DUNNING, which mare it appears he had stolen from WILLIAM CUMMING, of Frederick county: DUNNING appears to be about 40 years of age, and is a slim made fellow, about 5 feet 6 inches high, wears his own dark hair, has a crooked nose, long teeth before, and chews tobacco. He had on a light coloured cloth coat and waistcoat, a pair of leather breeches and boots, and was on a small bay horse; but as I am well informed he is a noted villain, it is highly probable he has changed his horse and cloaths, if not his name.

Whoever will give me certain information where the said Dunning may be found, or secure him in any gaol, so that he may be brought to condign punishment, shall receive thirty dollars; or if brought to my house, near Mr. Baldwin's tavern, and delivered to me, so that I can have the pleasure of handling the gentleman, the above reward of thirty dollars shall be instantly paid by

WILLIAM GYLER.
