ACCOUNT and pocket books, writing, wrapping, and bonnet paper, lampblack, wafers, sealing wax; and a variety of books and stationary too tedious to enumerate, or cash, may be had of the printer hereof, in exchange for clean linen and cotton rags, coarse or fine, old sail-cloth, and junk.—A large quantity of these articles are now much wanted, at the paper-mill, near Elk-Ridge Landing, where, as well as at the printing-office in Baltimore, the highest prices will be given.

If the mill above mentioned is supplied with such rags as have been usually thrown away, they will be immediately converted into good paper, and offered for sale at the printing-offices in Baltimore, and Annapolis, at a much cheaper rate than any imported paper can possibly be sold.

Clean linen and cotton rags are also taken in, and the highest prices given, by Frederick Green.
