September 16, 1781.

RAN away from colonel Edward Lloyd's plantation, on Wye river, on the 12th instant, a man slave called DICK UNGLE; he is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, stout and well made, has thick lips, and is very black; he is a sensible artful fellow, very compliant, and can give a plausible account of himself; his apparel is not certainly known; he has followed the water, and will probably endeavour to escape that way. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro; so that his master may get him again, or will deliver him to the subscriber at Wye river, shall receive 30 dollars of the last emission as a reward.

sw 4 RICHARD GRASON.

TO all whom it may concern, the inhabitants of Washington county, do hereby give notice, that they intend petitioning the next general assembly for a division of the said county into two.

THERE is at the plantation of Samuel Amery, living in Charles county, taken up as a stray, a light gray (or white) gelding, 13 hands high, trots and gallops, branded on the near shoulder S. A. The owner is desir'd to prove his property, pay charges, and take him away.

THERE is at the plantation of John Ashton, living on Patuxent, Prince-George's county, taken up as a stray, a dark bay horse, having a white star on his face, branded E, about 10 years old. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

THE following are a list of the certificates forcibly taken from me by a number of armed men, on the night of the 13th of March 1781, viz. 10 state of Maryland certificates, dated November 6 1778, numbered 628 to 637 inclusive, for 1333 1/2 dollars each, and 4 other state of Maryland certificates, dated November 6, 1778, numbered 638 to 641 inclusive, for 666 2/3 dollars each, also 2 state of Maryland tender certificates in the name of John Bolton, No. 34 and 35, for £. 100 currency each. The public are cautioned against the receiving or taking an assignment, as payment will not be made on them.

6x EDWARD LLOYD.

Charles county, September 12, 1781.

AGREEABLE to law will be sold at public vendue, at Fort-Iobacco, on Tuesday the 13th day of November next, for ready cash, a very likely young negro man named George, if not sooner applied for by his master. The said negro was committed to my custody as a runaway on the 21st day of July, 1780, by the name of George, the property of John Nelson, I suppose it ought to have been Arthur Nelson, as a certain Mr. Arthur, of Frederick county, says the said negro was once his property, and that he sold him to one Alexander, of Augusta county in Virginia, and from thence he was sold to one Mitchell, near Charles-town, South-Carolina.

ts 5 BENJAMIN CAWOOD, sheriff.

THE inhabitants of Queen-Anne's county intend to prefer a petition to the general assembly of the state of Maryland, for an act of assembly to dispose of the old court-house and other public property in Queen's town, and to purchase a quantity of land at the head of Corsica creek, whereon the public buildings for the use of the county may be erected, at such time and particular place as by the judgment of the general assembly shall be appointed and ascertained; and in the mean time for holding the courts of election, and the county and orphans courts, at the dwelling house now occupied by Elijah Minor, near Chester-mill, and directing the clerk and other public officers, to attend there until public buildings can be erected for the accommodation of the public, at the place directed and ascertained by the general assembly.

WHOEVER is disposed to employ a turd for a genteel private family, or for a compact neighbourhood, under liberal patronage, may hear of one at the printing-office in Annapolis.

Anne-Arundel county, September 24, 1781.

RAN away from the subscriber the 1st instant, a negro lad named JACOB, of a yellow complexion, about 18 years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high; had on a country cotton shirt, and a wollen jacket and breeches much worn. Whoever will bring the said negro to the subscriber, living near the head of South river in the aforesaid county, or secure him in any manner so that he can be had again, shall receive six dollars (specie) reward.

3x WILLIAM HALL, sd.

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, August 27, 1781.

PURSUANT to an act of the general assembly of Maryland, pass'd at their last session, will commence the sale of all the property, both real, personal, and mixed, late belonging to James Kuffell and company, commonly known by the name of the Nottingham Company, consisting of about 12,000 acres of valuable land, situate in Baltimore county, and about 12 miles from Baltimore-town; 160 slaves of different ages and sexes, amongst whom are several valuable tradesmen, such as forgers, colliers, blacksmiths, carpenters, &c. stock of every kind, household furniture, and farming utensils. On the premises are two excellent forges, one turnace, and two grist mills, all in good repair. That part of the premises called the Long-Cain, where the forges stand, is in point of situation perhaps equal to any on the continent for water works, the Brandywine not excepted. Besides two mills which are already built, eight or ten more may be erected, and from the same dam and same race be supplied with a great abundance of water in the driest seasons. The iron-works, together with a quantity of lands, negroes, and stock of every kind sufficient for carrying them on, will be sold in undivided shares, not exceeding tenth; or the lands and property of every kind will be divided into small and convenient parcels, and sold separately, as may appear at the time of sale best to suit the wishes of the purchasers, and the intention of the state. The sum bid to be paid in specie, or in the bills of credit emitted in this state, by the act to enable the treasurer of the western shore to draw and sell bills of exchange, and for an emission of bills of credit if necessary. Credit will be given to the purchasers to the first day of January 1786, upon their giving bonds with two good securities, each having real property in this state to the value of the purchase money. The sale will begin on the 10th day of November next, at Capt. Phillips's, that noted tavern, about 12 miles from Baltimore-town, which being part of the premises will also be sold.

By order of the commissioners,

JOSEPH BAXTER, clk.

WHEREAS sundry persons make a daily practice of sending carts to take wood from the subscribers lands (under pretence of having leave from one or other of them) to the damage and trespass thereof; this is therefore to forewarn all persons whatsoever from taking off said lands any wood whatsoever under that pretence, as they are determined not to suffer it any longer.

MARY HESSELIUS, B. OGLE, W. THOMAS, JACOB LUSBY.

TAKEN up as a stray, by John Cross, living at the plantation of Daniel of St. Thomas Jennifer, Esq; in Charles county, a dark bay MARE, about 13 hands and a half high, she appears to be old and crest fallen, has a small star on her forehead, and branded on the off buttock S. she came to the plantation about the middle of February last. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber intends to petition the general assembly of Maryland, at their next session, to make over to him a tract of land called Hardesty, being near Hunting-town, now in the possession of Joseph Hall.
