

ture of St. Eustacia, and restoring it to its original proprietors. This successful enterprise affords a fresh proof in favour of the national character of our lines. The British in whole islands loudly complain of the behaviour of the commander of St. Lucia, and of the heavy and increasing burdens upon their industry and trade.

PHILADELPHIA, February 6.

Extract of a letter from Nantes, dated Nov. 20, 1781.

"I embrace this opportunity to acquaint you of the safe arrival, at the mouth of the ship St. James, capt. Truxton. The Franklin, capt. Angus is taken and carried into Portland. We have just received the glorious news of the surrender of Cornwallis by a French frigate, the Surveillante, sent by count de Grasse, and arrived at Brett the 15th of November, after a passage of twenty-two days."

Annapolis, February 14, 1782.

ALL persons indebted to the subscribers, by open accounts, are requested to settle the same, by paying their respective balances, or give bond with security; and likewise all those indebted as aforesaid, by bond, note, or otherwise, are requested to pay up the interest thereon, and renew the same, if not convenient to pay them off. Any sort of money will be taken in payment at its passing value. We hope no person will slight this notice, and reasonable request as it will be very disagreeable to be under the necessity of compelling by law, which certainly will be the case if not properly attended to, before the 10th day of March next.

JOSEPH and JAMES WILLIAMS.

February 12, 1782.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be preferred to the next general assembly of this state, for an act to make valid the will of Matthew Beard, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased.

February 11, 1782. STOLEN out of the subscriber's pasture, on the 24th day of November 1781, a likely dark bay mare about 13½ hands high, 9 years old this spring, neither dock'd nor branded, she has a small star in her forehead, and a small streak of white on the inside of her right fore foot at the setting on of the hoof, she is much marked with the saddle on the back, and with the breast plate of a chair harness on her breast, she drags her hind feet when used. Whoever takes up said mare, and brings her home, or gives information to the owner, so that he may get her again, shall receive a reward of six dollars in specie.

RICHARD RAWLINGS.

January 23, 1782.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Dr. Richard Tootell, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, by bond, note, or open account, are desired to come and discharge the same to the subscribers, and those who have claims against the said estate, are requested to bring them in regularly proved, to be settled.

Annapolis, February 7, 1782.

THE officers of the fifth Maryland regiment, and such of the other regiments of that line, who have had orders to remain in the state to prosecute the recruiting service, are required to repair to this station as soon as circumstances may possibly admit after receiving this notice.

And all the soldiery of the Maryland line, now in the state, are required to rendezvous here immediately on receipt of this notice, except those who may be disabled from serving by loss of a limb, or wounds, who have had permission to remain at home till further orders. All soldiers not included in the above exception, who do not comply with this order in proper time, will be advertised and treated as deserters, when apprehended.

W. SMALLWOOD, M. G.

Annapolis, January 28, 1782.

THE general assembly having by an act passed the last session, authorized the granting of warrants after the first of February next to secure escheat and vacant lands; those persons who are desirous of availing themselves of their applications made before the first of December 1781, will take notice, that they are to obtain their warrants on or before the first of July next. Any person having certificates on which there is money due, must pay it on or before the first of May next, or the land will be liable to be taken by any other person. Grants may be obtained on any certificate upon the parties complying with the directions in the act of assembly.

To be SOLD,

A LOT of ground of one whole acre in the city of Annapolis, with a tan-yard thereon, and several valuable improvements, lying on a good landing. This lot of ground I look on as the most valuable lot in the city to a man of real business, being so well adapted for the businesses of distilling, brewing, or sugar-baking, &c. &c. the springs are numerous and the water excellent.

Likewise an elegant brick house adjoining the church circle, in a dry and healthy part of the city, this house is 100 feet front, 3 story high, has 20 fire places, the rooms are mostly large and well finished, and is one of the first houses in the state for a house of entertainment, for which purpose it was originally intended, but may very well serve for two tenements. Any person inclining to purchase one or both the aforesaid premises may know the terms of sale by applying to

THOMAS HYDE.

N. B. All persons who have formerly had dealings with me, and their accounts are not yet settled, I hope will call at my house in Annapolis and discharge the same, or close their accounts by passing notes or bonds for their balances, and those who are indebted by any written obligation, are desired to discharge the same, or pay the interest and renew their obligations to their humble servant

T. H.

THERE are at the plantation of William Hill, near Port-Tobacco, Charles county, taken up as strays, three heifers and a young steer, they all appear to be rising three years old; the steer and two of the heifers are pied on the back and belly, the other heifer a brown red. The steer and two of the heifers are marked with a swallow-tail in the left ear, and an under-piece taken off the right, the other unmarked. Their owner or owners may have them again on proving property and paying charges.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Joshua Clarke, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment, and all those that have claims against said estate, are desired to bring in their accounts legally proved as they may be paid, by JOSHUA CLARKE, executor of Joshua Clarke, deceased.
