SEVERAL INHABITANTS OF MARYLAND.
April 29, 1782.

April 1, 1782.
C U B,
Thorough bred from the best stock in England, a fine bay now in his prime, near sixteen hands high, and looked upon by judges to be one of the finest horses they ever saw.

STANDS at my house in Westmoreland county, Virginia, twenty miles below Hece's ferry, and nearly opposite to L. Ewen's warehouse, in St. Mary's county, in this state, where he will cover mares at six pounds from the sea on. Pasturage equal to any in the country gratis, and the greatest care will be taken of the mares, but I will not be answerable for any accidents that may happen.
DANIEL McCARTY.
N. B. Tobacco will be taken in discharge of the above debts, if the price can be agreed upon.

TO BE SOLD,
A LOT of ground of one whole acre in the city of Annapolis, with a tan yard thereon, and several valuable improvements, lying on a good landing. This lot of ground I look on as the most valuable lot in the city to a man of real business, being so well adapted for the businesses of distilling, brewing, or sugar-baking, tanning, &c. &c. the springs are numerous and the water excellent.

Like an elegant brick house adjoining the church circle, in a dry and healthy part of the city, this house is 100 feet front, 3 story high, has 20 fire places, the rooms are mostly large and well finished, and is one of the first houses in the state for a house of entertainment, for which purpose it was originally intended, but may very well serve for two tenements. Any person intending to purchase one or both the aforesaid premises may know the terms of sale by applying to
THOMAS HYDE.

N. B. All persons who have formerly had dealings with me, and their accounts are not yet settled, I hope will call at my house in Annapolis and discharge the same, or close their accounts by passing notes or bonds for their balances, and those who are indebted by any written obligation, are desired to discharge the same, or pay the interest and renew their obligations to their humble servant
T. H.

THE partnership of Wallace, Davidson, and Johnson, having terminated some time since, it is absolutely necessary that the transactions of that concern should be settled: the subscribers therefore earnestly call on all those who are indebted to the said company for dealings at Annapolis, Queen-Anne, and Nottingham, immediately to settle their balances by bond or note, being well acquainted with the scarcity of money, and other difficulties of the times, the subscribers do not press for payment, but a settlement; and to show the world that they wish to do as they would be done by, they inform their creditors, that they are willing to give their bonds for any just claims against them, and to renew those of an old date.

For the convenience of their debtors, they have empowered Mr. Edward Botelar to settle their Nottingham store balances, Mr. Samuel Tyler those of Queen-Anne store, and they will give constant attendance at Annapolis for the purpose of settling the accounts of that store; they hope no person concerned will neglect to comply with this very moderate request, should there be any such, they may be assured that suits will be commenced against them the moment the courts are opened without any further notice.
C. WALLACE,
J. DAVIDSON.

March 19, 1782.
ROEBUCK,
STANDS at the subscriber's dwelling plantation, where Dr. Bate formerly lived, in Charles county, about six miles from Benedict, and will cover this season at one thousand pounds of crop tobacco a mare, and half a crown to the groom. Roebuck is four years old next April, a beautiful bay, highly formed, and full fifteen hands and an half high. Roebuck was got by Benjamin Dulany, Esquire's Othello, who was bred by col. Fitzhugh of Chatham, and got by Old Fearnought upon a thorough bred Morton Traveller mare. Roebuck's dam was got by col. Tasker's Othello, who was got by Crab, his grand-dam by Morton's Traveller, his great-grand-dam was col. Tasker's famous Selima, who was got by the Godolphin Arabian. Good pasturage gratis, and particular care taken of mares, but I will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.
WILLIAM M. WILKINSON.

ARIEL,
WILL cover mares this season at Mr. Philip Thomas's, near West-river, for four silver dollars a mare, or red money at the exchange. Ariel was got by Old Tanner, his dam by Mr. Galloway's famous horse Selim, and his grand dam was a high bred imported mare. He is rising six years old, nearly fifteen hands high, a fine bay, and his figure equal to any horse in this state.
N. B. Good pasturage for mares at 2/6 a week.

FEW copies of the VOTES and PROCEEDINGS of the HOUSE of DELEGATES of the last session of assembly, may be had at the printing-office.

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, April 18, 1782.
CONTRARY winds having prevented the commissioners arriving at the premises, until it was too late to hold the sale of Lloyd Dulany's property on the day appointed, the same is adjourned until Monday the 13th day of May, when it will certainly commence on the terms formerly advertised. The lots on Kent Manor which remain unsold, will be offered for sale at the same time and place.
By order, JO. BAXTER, clk.

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, April 3, 1782.
PURSUANT to an act of the general assembly passed at the last session, the commissioners hereby call on all persons who entered into agreements with the late proprietary, or his commissioners, for the purchase of manor lands, and who have not paid the money by them agreed to be paid for such lands, to pay the money due upon such agreements without delay. As this money was intended by the legislature to be appropriated to the recruiting service, the necessity of a speedy payment need not be urged.
The commissioners upon payment being made to them will release and convey the right of the state in the said lands to the person or persons who contracted for the purchase of the same, or those who claim under them.
By order, JO. BAXTER, clk.

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, April 3, 1782.
PURSUANT to an act of the general assembly, Monocacy manor will be sold at Frederick town, on Monday the 10th of June next. This manor contains upwards of 9000 acres of valuable land, lies within a few miles of Frederick-town, and is not inferior to any tract of land, of equal extent, in the state, for fertility of soil, and healthfulness of situation. The whole is well improved, and will be laid off into convenient farms, as held by the present tenants, including contiguous vacancies. Many of the farms have excellent meadows and orchards. A few of the leases are unexpired.

Certificates granted to officers and soldiers agreeably to an act, entitled, an act to settle and adjust the accounts of the troops of this state in the service of the United States, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and other acts and resolves since passed, and which were in the hands of the persons to whom granted, (at the time of the passing the law directing this sale, which was at the last session of assembly begun in the month of November 1781) or in the hands of the legal representatives of such as have died; and certificates granted to officers and soldiers since the last mentioned act agreeable to law, will be received as specie in payment.
Purchasers to give bond with good security, within twelve hours after the sale, conditioned for the payment of one seventh part of the purchase money in specie or the certificates aforesaid within three months after purchase, and for payment of one seventh part of the purchase money, with interest, in specie or certificates aforesaid, annually, until the whole is discharged.

On Monday the 24th of June next, My lady's Manor in Baltimore, or Baltimore and Harford counties, containing several thousand acres of valuable land, will be parcelled out in the same manner, and sold upon the same terms, at Mr. Slade's tavern on the premises.
By order, JO. BAXTER, clk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers intend to offer a petition to the general assembly of this state, praying a division and partition of the lands willed by Justinian Cookley, sen. deceased, late of this county, to the subscribers, and Samuel Cookley, since also deceased, and whose heir is still a minor.
JOHN COCKEY,
THOMAS REED COCKSEY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply to the next general assembly, to pass an act to enable me to collect sufficient of the debts due in this state to Mr. Thomas Philpot of London, merchant, as will discharge the debts contracted and engagements made by me, for and on account of the said Thomas Philpot.
FRANK LEEKE.

To be sold to the highest bidder, on Wednesday the 8th day of May,
TRACT of land lying in Anne-Arundel county, on the great road that leads from London-town to Queen-Anne, containing 176 acres, about 6 acres of which is excellent meadow. The soil is rich, and well adapted either for planting or farming. Any person inclinable to purchase may view the land before the day of sale, by applying to the subscriber, living on the land. The terms to be made known on the day of sale,
THOMAS BEARD.

N. B. The purchaser will have the liberty of putting in a crop of small grain, and possession given on the first day of December next, by
T. B.

Annopolis, April 16, 1782.
LST by the subscriber four certificates, viz. No. 18, 19, and 20 of £.200 specie each, and No. 21 of £.328 15 6. They were issued to me by Mr. Wilkins, commissioner to settle and adjust the pay and depreciation due to the troops of this state. As they can be of no use to any other person, it is requested that whoever has found them, will return them to the subscriber at Annapolis, and for their trouble they shall receive a half joe.

NATHANIEL RAMSEY.

To be sold by the subscriber, on the seventh day of May next, where he now lives, in St. Mary's county, A VALUABLE tract of land, about four hundred acres, lying in Charles county, a few miles below Cedar-point, the land is level and rich, and plenty of wood, there is scarce such a place to be found for fish and wild fowl of all sorts, and plenty of the oysters, a good apple orchard, and plenty of fine cherries and most other kinds of fruit, and never hurt with frost; there is a commodious dwelling house, with two rooms on a floor, a kitchen, and several other houses, as pleasantly situated on Swan-point and banks of Patowmack, convenient for trade of any sort. I have a general warrantee from a good man, and will give another. Possession may be had immediately.

Likewise will be sold, at same place and time, ten valuable negroes, a young man a blacksmith and complete nailor, with a set of smith's tools; two young women well acquainted with work in doors or out; two young fellows, three boys about 12 or 13, and two girls; sixty head of sheep, a few fat cattle, and some cows and calves. The whole will be sold for any sort of money at its passing value, or for tobacco, but the land may be had cheap for ready money or tobacco, otherwise credit may be had for all. For further particulars apply to ATHANASUS FORD.

UNION,
STANDS this season at my dwelling plantation, and will cover at 2 guineas, and 2/6 red money in the groom; any of the bills of credit will be taken in payment at the exchange. Union was bred by Dr. Thomas Hamilton, he was got by the imported horse Slim, his dam by Figure, his grand-dam by Dove, his great grand-dam by col. Tasker's Othello on his imported mare Selima. Slim was got by Young Babraham, his dam by Rogers, his grand dam by Sedbury on lord Portmore's Ebony. Sedbury was got by Partner, his dam by Woodcock. Union is upwards of fifteen hands high, a fine bay, with a black mane, tail, and legs, he is one of the first running horses in the state. Good pasturage for mares at 3/9 per week, but will not be answerable for escapes or other accidents.
RICHARD B. HALL.

N. B. Tobacco or wheat will be taken in payment at a price that may be agreed on.
R. B. H.

ARABIAN,
STANDS this season at my plantation, adjoining Piscataway, in Prince-George's county, in high perfection, and covers at one thousand pounds of net crop tobacco for each mare, payable in notes, and not more than nine months date. Good pasturage for mares at 2/6 per week, and the greatest care taken of them, but will not be answerable in case of loss.
EDWARD EDELEN.

BADGER,
WILL cover the ensuing season at Bellair, in Prince-George's county, at five pounds red money a mare, and a dollarto the groom. Badger is a beautiful dapple gray, full 15 hands and an inch high, and allowed by judges to be a fine horse. His pedigree (which is unexceptionable) may be seen at Bellair. No mare will be received unless the money is sent with her. Good pasturage at a red dollar a week.
3

STOLEN out of Mr. Quynn's shop a large gunlock, the maker's name D. Moore engraven thereon, a latch behind the cock, and the make of the tumbler very remarkable. Whoever will give information to Mr. Quynn of the said lock, so as it is recovered, shall receive eight dollars specie reward.
3

TWO THOUSAND POUNDS OF TOBACCO REWARD.
Prince-William, February 27, 1782.
RAN away from the subscriber living in Prince-William county, in the state of Virginia, BOB, a negro man slave, about six feet high, well made, has a large dent in one of his cheeks, and is remarkably fond of playing on the fiddle. The subscriber heard of his being on Patuxent, in Maryland, soon after he ran away, and has good reason to believe he was taken from thence to the eastern shore of Maryland by a certain James Davis. Whoever apprehends and secures the said slave, so that the subscriber shall get him into his possession, shall receive the above-mentioned reward.
JOHN HAMMITT.

WHEREAS I am empowered by Joseph Stevens to protect his property in the house where I live, and also the garden he now tends next adjoining unto me, and as great damage has been done thereunto, and the same from time to time continuing; I do hereby forewarn all persons whatsoever from committing any mischief or ill upon, or about the same, as I am determined to punish those that offend according to law.
WILLIAM JOHNSON.

Annopolis, March 6, 1782.
THE subscriber takes the liberty to inform the public generally, and his old customers particularly, that he has again opened tavern in this city, in the house lately occupied by Mr. George Mann on the dock, and solicits their custom. He also intends to procure proper and convenient vessels for the purpose of ferrying to Kent-Island, Rock-Hall, &c.
GILBERT MIDDLETON.

FEW copies of the LAWS of MARYLAND, passed last session of assembly, may be had at the Printing-office.
