

British militia, and among the latter several officers and volunteers of family. Our loss is four cow-boys killed. This affair has totally put a stop to their excursive operations, from which the inhabitants have suffered hitherto. It is reduced to a certainty, that an evacuation is determined, and the period for its taking place is not far distant.

Prince-George's county, June 23, 1782.
On Monday the 15th of July next will be exposed to sale, on the premises, to the highest bidder, for cash, one half the purchase money to be paid down, and the remainder on the 15th day of December next, THAT valuable and well known farm at the mouth of the eastern branch of Patowmack river called Gunborough, late in the possession of Mr. John Hawkins, deceased, together with the slaves, stock, &c. Bond with good security will be required for the annual payment of the rent.

Also will be sold, at the same time and place, some horses, hogs, black cattle, and household furniture. The above farm will be sold with the crop now growing on it, and immediate possession given, except the dwelling house, kitchen, garden, and yard. All persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those who have claims against the said estate are requested to bring them in as soon as may be.
WILLIAM BAXLY, administrator.

To be sold by public vendue, at the town of Vienna, in Dorchester county, eastern shore of Maryland, on Saturday the 3d of August,

THAT valuable tract or parcel of land called Hard-putt, containing eight hundred and thirty-six acres more or less, situate on the east side of Transquakin river, and near the mouth, one third of which is high land, and swamp, twenty-five or thirty acres of which are cleared, with several improvements, all which are in good repair; the land is remarkably fertile, well timbered, and conveniently situated for farming, with fish, oysters, wild tows, and every other convenience that can make life agreeable; the remaining two thirds marsh, all of which may easily be converted into cultivatable land; the whole to be sold for specie, one third of which to be paid within twenty days from the sale, the remainder at two annual payments, with bond and security; an indisputable title will be granted to the purchaser, and possession granted the first day of January next. An accurate plot of the land may be seen on the day of sale.
WILLIAM WHELAND.

Annapolis, June 26, 1782.
All persons indebted to me on bond, are hereby requested to discharge the same, or pay the accrued interest thereon and renew their obligations; those indebted on open accounts are also requested to discharge the same, or give bond, if not convenient to pay now. WANTED, in the general court office, a young man who writes a good record hand, and would be diligent in business; one who has some knowledge of the mode of proceedings in a county clerk's office would be most agreeable; proper encouragement will be given.
THOMAS B. HODGKIN.

Charles county, June 17, 1782.
IHAVE in my custody, committed as a runaway, a negro man who says his name is BOATSWAIN, and that he belongs to a certain Patrick McDunnitt of Montgomery county. His master is desired to pay charges and take him away.
BENJAMIN CAWOOD, jun. Sheriff.

Greenbury's Point, June 3, 1782.
To be LEASED for a term of years, A PLANTATION opposite to the city of Annapolis, commonly called Beaman's Fort, containing 350 acres, with some negroes. There are on the premises, a good dwelling house with four rooms and a good cellar, a large dairy, corn house, quarter, tobacco house, and some other improvements; some excellent meadow ground, which may, with very little trouble, be laid down in grass next spring; the person to whom it is rented may have liberty to sow 50 bushels of wheat this fall, or that quantity will be sowed, as may be agreed upon; it is a very pleasant situation and has a great advantage in being so nigh to Annapolis market, which I reckon the best on the continent to those who have any thing to sell. For terms apply to DAVID KERR.

June 26, 1782.
To be sold at public vendue, on Thursday the 15th day of July, at the house of Catharine Lusby, in Anne-Arundel county, PART of a tract of land called Lugg-Ox, containing by estimation one hundred and forty-one acres, more or less, situated in the county aforesaid on Patuxent river; the above land lies level, and is well wooded and watered. Credit will be given for two thirds of the purchase money on giving bond and security. The sale to begin at a o'clock in the afternoon.
JOSEPH WELLS.

June 29, 1782.
TAKEN up this morning, by Samuel Moss, between Keely's and Hackett's points, a boat about twelve feet long, has a ring-bolt in her head and stern, has lately had new gunwales on her sides. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.
THOMAS REEDER, jun.

At Bladensburg, on Saturday the 3d of August next, on the same terms, the lots and houses which belonged to George and Andrew Buchanan, and to James Brown and company.

All persons claiming any right, title, or interest, to the said property, or any part thereof, or having debts against the late owners thereof, or any of them, are requested to make known the same, legally authenticated, to the commissioners, before the day of sale. If on any of the foregoing days of sale there should happen to be very bad weather, the sale will be held the next fair day.
By order, JO BAXTER, clk.

Washington county, June 13, 1782.
By authority vested in me by an act of assembly passed last session, will be exposed to public sale, on Friday the 6th day of September next,

TWO houses and lots in the town of Skipton, Washington county, belonging to the estate of John Whaley, late of said county, deceased, to enable me to discharge the claims against said estate.
MARK HARRY, administrator.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply to the next general assembly for an act to confirm the last will and testament of Nathaniel Lane, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased.
JOHNN LANE.

Maryland, Charles county, Patowmack river, opposite Hooe's ferry, May 10, 1782.

THE subscriber, having furnished himself with good sailing boats for the purpose of ferrying travellers over Patowmack river to Hooe's landing or the brick house at the mouth of Machodock creek, or any other landing in Virginia they chuse to be put to; and as travellers have for some years past complained of their suffering for want of a proper house of entertainment being kept at said ferry, he begs leave to inform the public that he has furnished himself with every necessary for that purpose; he solicits the custom of those gentlemen who travel that way, and assures them he will do all in his power to deserve the favour of the public.
THOMAS REEDER, jun.

To be SOLD,

A LOT of ground of one whole acre in the city of Annapolis, with a tan yard thereon, and several valuable improvements, lying on a good landing. This lot of ground I look on as the most valuable lot in the city to a man of real business, being so well adapted to the businesses of distilling, brewing, or sugar-making, tanning, &c. &c. the springs are numerous and the water excellent.

Likewise an elegant brick house adjoining the church circle, in a dry and healthy part of the city, this house is 100 feet front, 3 story high, has 20 fire places, the rooms are mostly large and well finished, and is one of the first houses in the state for a house of entertainment, for which purpose it was originally intended, but may very well serve for two tenements. Any person inclining to purchase one or both the aforesaid premises may know the terms of sale by applying to

THOMAS HYDE.

N. B. All persons who have formerly had dealings with me, and their accounts are not yet settled, I hope will call at my house in Annapolis and discharge the same, or close their accounts by passing notes or bonds for their balances, and those who are indebted by any written obligation, are desired to discharge the same, or pay the interest and renew their obligations to their humble servant
T. H.

Maryland, Intendant's office, March 1, 1781.
ALL persons indebted to this state for monies advanced for carrying on manufactures and not accounted for, or on any other contract, or for the collection of any branch of the revenue, are desired without loss of time to settle their accounts and discharge the balances that may be due, otherwise suits will be commenced against those who neglect to comply with this requisition.

All persons having claims against the state on certificates, unsettled accounts, or otherwise, are requested to bring them in to be adjusted. Officers who have received money from the executive for the recruiting service, and with which they are charged on the auditor's books, are desired to settle their accounts.
DANIEL OF ST. THOMAS JENIFER, Intendant.

Anne-Arundel county, May 4, 1781.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to make application to the general assembly at their next meeting, for a law empowering him to take into his possession and custody, as trustee, the estate real and personal of George Shipley, sen. of Anne-Arundel county, who hath been in a state of lunacy for nine years past, and incapable of taking care of and managing his affairs, and to dispose of such part thereof as will be sufficient to discharge the debts due and owing by the said George Shipley, jun.
GEORGE SHIPLEY, jun.

Dorchester county, May 10, 1781.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to apply to the next general assembly, for an act empowering him to clear a road from his dwelling plantation, whereon he is now erecting a windmill, to the road leading from the main road opposite to Charles Beckwith's, to capt. Edward Noels.
NATHANIEL MANNING.

CAME to the plantation of J. Hawkins, near Upper Marlborough, some time last summer, a fine black mare, about four or five years old, paces and gallops, no perceptible brand, a small star in her forehead, and a small white spot on her side, a switch mark and tail. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

Maryland, Charles county, Patowmack river, opposite Hooe's ferry, June 27, 1782.

VARIOUS misrepresentations and falsehoods having been lately circulated, with design to injure the old established ferry kept by the subscriber, the best leave to inform those who shall hereafter favour her with their custom, that she is furnished with three good sailing boats, two of which are well calculated for carriages and horses, and the third for foot passengers; and that her boats are attended by six able and experienced hands, so that a passage may always be had with the greatest safety and expedition. The subscriber further informs those to whom it may be necessary (notwithstanding malicious insinuations to the contrary) that she has a house as well calculated for the accommodations of travellers, and will afford them as good entertainment, as they can meet with in any ferry house on Patowmack.
ELIZABETH YOUNG.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to prefer a petition to the next general assembly of the State of Maryland, for a road or pass-way from his house in Snowhill town to the main street, of which all persons concerned are to take notice.
JOHNN M'MULLEN.

June 18, 1781.
WHEREAS Abigail the wife of me the subscriber, living on the Head of Severn, has eloped from my bed and board, without any just provocation, this is to forewarn all persons from harbouring her or trusting her on my account, as I am determined not to pay any debts she may contract after the date hereof, and to prosecute any person who may harbour or conceal her. She was seen on the way to Annapolis, and probably may be concealed there.
PHILIP SMITH.
