

who fell asleep; that he got loose, escaped without waking the Indians, and arrived here seven days after. He says the Indian, from whom Dr. Knight escaped, came to the town he was confined in, with his head much cut; that the Delawares applied to the Muncies for Col. William Harrison (son-in-law to Col. Crawford) who, being given up, was, by the Delawares, tortured in the most cruel manner, they having bound him to a stake, and poured through every part of his skin, for upwards of an hour, after which, they cut him in quarters, and hung them on stakes. This and other similar acts of barbarity, the Indians said they did in revenge for the murders and robberies committed by our frontiersmen, on their relations, the Meravians, and that in future they would spare none of our people. On the 11th instant, about three miles from the fort, three sons of Mr. Chambers were tomahawked and scalped; and on the 13th a body of Indians came to and burnt Hamilton's town, except two houses. The inhabitants having received notice of their coming, by their attacking some reapers, who were at work near the town, fortunately (except 15 who were killed and taken) got into the fort, where they were secure."

At Benedict, in said county, on Saturday the 12th of October, the reserves on Calverton manor, and part of said manor.

In cases where the tenants and settlers on the manors and reserves aforesaid, shall not purchase upon the terms offered, the property will be exposed to public sale on the days and at the places herein before mentioned, and on the same terms as to the days of payment.

By order, JO. BAXTER, clk.

Charles county, July 11, 1782.
FOR SALE,

THE subscriber's dwelling plantation, containing 239 acres, lying about 6 miles below Pocomoke, and on the main road leading from that place to Port-Tobacco; the soil is of the first quality; the improvements are a tolerable dwelling house, two good barns, and all the necessary out-houses. This tract contains a large quantity of excellent meadow ground, a small part of which has been cleared. It will be sold for either cash or tobacco. A small part of the purchase money or tobacco may perhaps be expected down, and three years credit, without interest for the first twelve months, will be given, if required, for the balance, provided one third be punctually paid annually.

SAMUEL HANSON, of Samuel.

N. B. The water is fine, and the situation remarkably healthful.

St. Mary's county, July 4, 1782.
COMMITTED to my custody a negro man named BOB, who says he belongs to Charles White, who lives on Elk-Ridge, and is an inspector of tobacco; this fellow formerly belonged to John Giblin of this county, who sold him about 6 or 7 years ago to Mr. Samuel Hughes of Washington county; the fellow says he was sold by Mr. Hughes to the rev. Mr. Booth of Frederick county, and from him to Mr. Richard Gantner, who afterwards sold him to his present master. The above negro had with him at the time he was committed and is now in my possession, a small dark bay mare, about 13 hands high, appears to be young, branded on the near buttock with the letter D, has a blaze down her face, a very sore back occasioned by riding without a saddle; he says the mare belongs to himself, but it is very probable that he has stolen, as he had the character of being a great rogue before he was sold from this county. The owners are desired to prove property, pay charges, and take them away.

ZACHARIAH FORREST, clerk.

THE RE is at the plantation of George Shebam, near Elk-Ridge landing, taken up as a stray, a dark bay gelding, about four years old, but hind foot white, docked, not branded, and about 11 hands high. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

Port-Tobacco, July 21, 1782.
To be sold by the subscriber, on Tuesday the 27th of August next, at Elizabeth-town, commonly called Hagans town,

A VERY valuable tract of land, known by the name of Loud-bottom, lying in Washington county, containing by patent 940 acres. The dividing line betwixt this and the Pennsylvania state runs through this land, leaving about 200 acres in the latter, through which runs a never failing stream of water, proper for mill seats; this land is well wooded, watered, and timbered. Also to be sold, at Port Tobacco, on Saturday the 1st of September next, part of a tract of land called Cain's purchase, near the mouth of Port-Tobacco creek, containing 175 acres, and a joining the land of Mrs. Slye; the soil is good, the water fine, and the situation beautiful. Three years credit will be given for three fourths of the purchase money, on giving bond with approved security, and paying interest.

DANIEL JENIFER, attorney in fact for capt. John Mitchell of the Maryland line.

To be also sold, for either cash or tobacco, a likely negro boy and girl, the boy about 12 and the girl 14 years of age.

Maryland, St. Mary's county, June 25, 1782.
THE subscriber intends, if he meets with favorable encouragement, to open a SCHOOL on the 1st day of September next, at his own house, about five miles below the Cool-springs in St. Mary's county, for the instruction of gentlemen-sons in the LATIN and GREEK CLASSICS, GEOGRAPHY, with the use of the GLOBE, the elements of GEOMETRY, TRIGONOMETRY, ASTRONOMY, and ALGEBRA. He expects to receive from each scholar four English guineas per annum, to be paid quarterly. The greatest attention will be paid to the morals, as well as improvement of his pupils, by JOHN STEPHEN, A. M.

N. B. Boys may be boarded upon reasonable terms in the neighbourhood of the school.

Maryland, Charles county, Patowmack river, opposite Hooe's ferry, June 27, 1782.
VARIOUS misrepresentations and falsehoods having been lately circulated, with design to injure the old established ferry kept by the subscriber, the best leave to inform those who shall hereafter favour her with their custom, that she is furnished with three good sailing boats, two of which are well calculated for carriages and horses, and the third for foot passengers; and that her boats are attended by six able and experienced hands, so that a passage may always be had with the greatest safety and expedition. The subscriber farther informs those to whom it may be necessary (notwithstanding malicious insinuations to the contrary) that she has a house as well calculated for the accommodation of travellers, and will afford them as good entertainment, as they can meet with in any ferry house on Patowmack.

ELIZABETH YOUNG.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply to the next general assembly for an act to confirm the last will and testament of Nathaniel Lane, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased.

JOHN LANE.

A FEW copies of the LAWS of MARYLAND, passed last session of assembly, may be had at the Printing-office.

THE several inspectors of tobacco may be supplied with books and notes at the printing-office.
