Maryland, Charles county, Patowmack river, opposite Hooe's-ferry, June 27, 1782.

VARIOUS misrepresentations and falsehoods having been lately circulated, with design to injure the old established ferry kept by the subscriber, she begs leave to inform those who shall hereafter favour her with their custom, that she is furnished with three good sailing boats, two of which are well calculated for carriages and horses, and the third for foot passengers; and that her boats are attended by six able and experienced hands, so that a passage may always be had with the greatest safety and expedition. The subscriber farther informs those to whom it may be necessary (notwithstanding malicious insinuations to the contrary) that she has a house as well calculated for the accommodation of travellers, and will afford them as good entertainment, as they can meet with in any ferry house on Patowmack.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in St. Mary's county, a negro fellow named JERRY, about twenty years old, country born, about five feet high, slim made, thin visage and tolerable wide mouth; had on when he left me in Anne-Arundel county the beginning of last November, a small hat, cotton shirt, gray broad-cloth coat pretty much worn, blue cloth jacket, brown breeches, yarn stockings and brass buckles in his shoes; he has been several years a waiter, and is well acquainted with Annapolis and Baltimore-town; he is an artful fellow and few more capable in deceiving a stranger so as to pass. To be rented, and entered on immediately, at Broad-creek, Prince-George's county, Maryland,

A GOOD store house, public house, with other necessary houses, garden, and an excellent lot for grain, or about 3 or 4 acres; an apple orchard, which may be made out of it this season 7 or 800 gallons of cider; a good ives-yard and skittle-alley in good order; this place answers extremely well for a store and public house, there being in the neighbourhood a set of considerable and good planters, and is within a small distance of Broad-creek warehouse, which in good times annually received 1000 hogheads of tobacco. The public main-roads from the lower counties run through this place, and close to the store and public house doors, and near to the fowling and fishing landings, and with a convenient landing near to the store for landing goods, &c.

EDWARD MAGRUDER.

St. Mary's county, July 4, 1782.

COMMITTED to my custody a negro man named BOB, who says he belongs to Charles White, who lives on Elk-Ridge, and is an inspector of tobacco; this fellow formerly belonged to John Gibbon of this county, who told him about 6 or 7 years ago to Mr. Samuel Hughes of Washington county; the fellow says he was sold by Mr. Hughes to the rev. Mr. Booth of Frederick county, and from him sold to Richard Gaither, who afterwards sold him to his present master. The above negro had with him at the time he was committed and is now in my possession, a small dark bay mare, about 13 hands high, appears to be young, branded on the near buttock with the letter D, has a blaze down her face, a very fore back occasioned by riding without a saddle; he says the mare belongs to himself, but it is very probable that he has stole her, as he had the character of being a great rogue before he was sold from this county. The owners are desired to prove property, pay charges, and take them away.

ALL sheriffs, collectors of the tax, and other persons concerned in receiving taxes, or employed in the collection of other branches of revenue, are desired, without loss of time, to settle their accounts, and pay into the respective treasuries all monies or tobaccos that they may have received. They are also desired to use their utmost exertion in the collection of the five shillings specie tax, due the first of August next, and the tax of twelve shillings and six-pence in species, due the twentieth; and, to induce them to use their utmost diligence therein, the intendant will remit a part or the whole of the 20 per cent. interest incurred by means of the non-payment of any monies they may be in arrears to the state; but should little attention be paid to this notice, he will in every instance, where there appears to him to have been neglect or non-compliance of duty, put the laws in force to their utmost rigour.
