

Intendant's-office, September 3, 1782.
THE intendant of the revenue being directed by law to sell for specie, as much tobacco, wheat, or flour, as will produce money to pay one year's interest on certificates adjusted agreeable to the act relating to public creditors, hereby gives notice to all persons who have claims against the state on such certificates, and to all persons who have claims not yet liquidated, to transmit the same to the intendant's-office by the 10th day of November next, that he may not only make provision for the payment of the interest due, but that he may also know the amount of the debt due from the state, by which he may form a judgment what part thereof may be soon extinguished. Those who neglect to comply with this requisition must expect to be among the last creditors that are paid.
DANIEL OF ST. THOMAS JENIFER,
Intendant.

To be rented, and entered on immediately, at Broad-creek, Prince-George's county, Maryland,
A GOOD store house, public house, with other necessary houses, garden, and an excellent lot of grats, of about 3 or 4 acres; an apple orchard, which may be made out of it this season 7 or 800 gallons of cider; a good five-yard and skittle-alley in good order; this place answers extremely well for a store and public house, there being in the neighbourhood a lot of considerable and good planters, and is within a small distance of Broad creek waterhouse, which in good times annually received 1000 hogheads of tobacco. The public main roads from the lower counties run through this place, an close to the store and public house doors, and near to the fowling and fishing landings, and with a convenient landing near to the store for landing goods, &c.
EDWARD MAGRUDER.

To be SOLD for specie, at Middleton's tavern, in the city of Annapolis, on the 22d day of October next, in one, two, or three hundred acres lots, or by the whole, as may best suit the purchaser or purchasers,
A VALUABLE tract of land, containing about 1800 acres, and generally known by the name of Kent-fork manor, (the exact quantity will be specified on the day of sale) lying on the lower end of Kent-Island, about 10 miles from Annapolis, and 25 or 30 from Baltimore, the annual rent amounts to 26 950 pounds of crop tobacco; this land has many natural advantages, such as fish, oysters, and wild-fowl in abundance; the soil is very fine, and remarkably level, and the whole tract is so advantageously intersected with small creeks, that different and convenient farms or plantations may be laid off with very little fencing; there are several good dwelling houses, with brick chimneys, on the land; any person inclined to purchase will be shown the land, by applying to Dr. Roberts, on the island; five years credit will be given; bond with legal interest and approved security will be required.
WILLIAM BRENT.

N. B. The greatest part of the land is under lease, which will expire in November 1784; the plantation to be delivered up in good order, under the forfeiture of a heavy penalty. I have the greatest reason to expect to have the leases in my own hands before the day of sale.

Maryland, Intendant's office, March 1, 1782.
ALL persons indebted to this state for money advanced for carrying on manufactures and not accounted for, or on any other contract, or for the collection of any branch of the revenue, are desired without loss of time to settle their accounts and discharge the balances that may be due, otherwise suits will be commenced against those who neglect to comply with this requisition.
All persons having claims against the state on certificates, unsettled accounts, or otherwise, are requested to bring them in to be adjusted. Officers who have received money from the executive for the returning service, and with which they are charged on the auditor's books, are desired to settle their accounts.
DANIEL OF ST. THOMAS JENIFER,
Intendant.

To be SOLD,
A LOT of ground of one whole acre in the city of Annapolis, with a tan yard thereon, and several valuable improvements, lying on a good landing. This lot of ground is well situated on the most valuable lot in the city to a man of real business, being so well adapted for the business of distilling, brewing, or sugar-making, tanning, &c. &c. the springs are numerous and the water excellent.
Likewise an elegant brick house adjoining the church circle, in a dry and healthy part of the city, this house is 100 feet front, 3 story high, has 23 fire places, the rooms are most large and well finished, and is one of the best houses in the state for a house of entertainment, for which purpose it was originally intended, but may very well serve for two tenements. Any person inclining to purchase one or both the aforesaid premises may know the terms of sale by applying to
THOMAS HYDE.

N. B. All persons who have formerly had dealings with me, and their accounts are not yet settled, I hope will call at my house in Annapolis and discharge the same, or close their accounts by passing notes or bonds for their balances, and those who are indebted by any written obligation, are desired to discharge the same, or pay the interest and renew their obligations to their humble servant

Green hills, Frederick county, August 15, 1782.
On Monday the 18th of October next, will be exposed to public sale, on the premises,
THE plantation whereon the subscriber now lives, within five miles of the town of Westminster, with another adjoining it, containing in the whole about five hundred acres, of which a considerable part is cleared and under good fences; on the former of these places is a very commodious dwelling house, well finished, with other convenient building and offices, and a large barn, the whole nearly new, a large garden paved in, a small orchard of the best fruit, and a well improved meadow of near thirty acres under timothy, most of which is watered; on the other place is a commodious dwelling house, with a barn and other buildings, a young bearing orchard, and a considerable quantity of improved meadow. At same time will be sold, a number of slaves, men, women, boys, and girls, with all the stock of cattle and farming utensils belonging to said place. The terms will be made known at the time and place of sale.
CATHERINE WOOLSEY.

THE partnership of Wallace, Davidson, and Johnson having terminated some time since, it is a necessary that the transactions of that concern should be settled; the subscribers therefore earnestly call on all those who are indebted to the said company for dealings at Annapolis, Queen Anne, and Nottingham, immediately to settle their balances by bond or note. Being well acquainted with the severity of money, and other difficulties of the times, the subscribers do not press for payment, but a settlement; and to show the world that they wish to do as they would be done by, they inform their creditors that they are willing to give their bonds for any just claims against them, and to renew the same of an old date.
For the convenience of their debtors, they have empowered Mr. Edward Boteler to settle their Nottingham balances, Mr. Samuel Tyler the one of Queen Anne store, and they will give constant attendance at Annapolis for the purpose of settling the accounts of that store; they hope no person concerned will neglect to comply with this very moderate request, should there be any such, they may be assured that suits will be commenced against them the moment the courts are opened without any further notice.
