TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

Fell's-point, October 20, 1782.

RAN away from the subscriber, a negro man named ABRAHAM, a stout-made fellow, about forty years of age, of a yellow complexion, very complaisant to strangers, but stammers a little in his speech; had on when he went away, a blue coat, old laced waistcoat, leathern breeches, and round hat, but as he took plenty of cloaths with him, he may probably change them. As he came from the eastern shore, it is supposed he may travel that way, and being rather artful may pass himself for a free man. Whoever secures said negro, so as I may get him again, shall have the above reward, and reasonable charges paid by

ADAM LINDSAY.

THERE are at the plantation of Samuel Jacob, near the Governor's bridge, in Anne-Arundel county, four Aray cattle, one a red and white cow, marked with a crop and under slip in the right ear, and a crop in the left; two red and white heifers unmarked; one black and white small ditto, marked with a swallow fork in each ear. ALL persons having claims against the estate of Benjamin Norman, deceased, are desired to bring in their accounts properly proved, that they may be paid; and all persons indebted to said estate, are desired to make payment as soon as they conveniently can. The hides brought to the tan-yard in the deceased's live time being all finished, we hope the persons they belong to will fetch them away, and pay their respective balances. A compliance with this request will much oblige,

NICHOLAS & THOMAS NORMAN, executors.

October 3, 1782.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of col. Alexander Howard Magruder, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, either for former or any late dealings with him at his late store, or otherwise, are requested immediately to settle the same. Those indebted on bond or other obligation, who cannot make payment, must renew them, and pay up the interest due thereon; and those indebted on open account it is expected will either make payment, or give their bonds for the same without delay.

For the convenience of all concerned, attendance will be given at the deceased's late store house by Mr. Edward Lloyd Wades, who has the books and papers in his care, and has sufficient authority from us to settle and collect the balances due thereon.

All persons also who have any just claims against the said estate, are desired to bring them in properly authenticated, that they may be adjusted by

JANE MAGRUDER, administratrix,

WILLIAM MAGRUDER, administrator.

N. B. The purses will be paid in hard cash or paper at the exchange, and no person will be permitted to keep a stall on the field, unless he be a subscriber to the purse.

October 13, 1782.

Will be offered to sale, on Monday the 11th of November next, for cash or inspected tobacco, at the subscriber's plantation in Loudon county, Virginia, on the river opposite to the mouth of Monocacy creek,

SOME valuable negroes, Rock of several kinds, tobacco, a quantity of grain of different sorts, plantation utensils, &c. The subscriber pawns his honor that there shall be no by bidders to raise the price, only reserving one bid to himself.

And on Wednesday the 15th of the same month will be offered to sale, at Montgomery court-house, being in Montgomery court week, a valuable plantation, situate on Patowmack river in the said county, on the mouth of a branch called the Muddy branch, containing 243 acres, whereon is a very good seat for an over-thor mill, and a saw-mill, that has been in as great repute as any mill in the state, but something out of repair at present, but may be set to work with little expense and trouble; houses for two tenants, with other improvements too tedious to mention. Any person inclinable to purchase may view the premises before the day of sale. Any reasonable credit will be given, if required, for the late sale, on giving bond with security if required. The terms of the first sale will be made known on the day of sale by

WHEELER.

October 13, 1782.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of Mr. Truman Wight, late of Montgomery county, deceased, are desired to bring them in regularly attested as they may be settled, and all those that are indebted to the said estate are desired to discharge them as quick as possible without farther notice, to enable the executor to pay off the claims against the said estate; he may be found at home almost at any time but on Montgomery county court week where he intends to give attendance (or cause to be given) for that purpose.

C. WHEELER, executor.

Port-Tobacco, October 14, 1782.

THE subscriber has for sale a couple of very valuable young breeding mares with foal by a young horse belonging to the rev. Mr. Ignatius Matthews, at Port-Tobacco, and got by a horse called Ornello, formerly belonging to Benjamin Dulany, Esq; One of said mares is a bright sorrel half blooded, the other a bay quarter blooded. They are to be sold for either cash or tobacco ready down, or on twelve months credit, which ever may best suit those who incline to purchase.

There is at the subscriber's plantation, a red heifer, about three years old, marked with a crop and a slit or fork in each of her ears. The owner on proving property and making the proper application may at any time take her away.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Mrs. Heston's, near Annapolis, is appointed for the reception of beef on the hoof, in discharge of public dues.

RICHARD HARRISON, com. prov.

for Anne-Arundel county.

St. Mary's county, August 5, 1782.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to petition the next general assembly to pass an act to confirm my title to that part of a tract of land called St. Barbara's, in the possession of

GEORGE HICKS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be preferred to the next general assembly for an act to dispose of part of the land, late the property of Mr. Charles Greenberry Ridgely, for the payment of his debts.

TAKEN up by John Blunt, on Kent-Island, on the 23d of August, a new BOAT, about fourteen feet keel and five feet beam. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

WHEREAS Charles Carroll, Esq; lately deceased, passed his bond to a certain Bennett Wheeler, deceased, for the conveyance of a tract of land containing one hundred acres, being part of a greater tract called St. Clement's Manor; and whereas the said Mr. Carroll in his life time received the purchase money and interest, and gave up the bond passed by the said Bennett Wheeler for the purchase money; I do therefore forewarn all persons from purchasing the said land, as I make no doubt but the heir at law when he comes of age will take proper steps to compel a conveyance.
