Howard did, on the 7th of November, 1782, give a bond unto us the subscribers, to convey, by a lawful deed of conveyance, in fruit, on or before the 20th day of December, 1782, all the lands devised to him by his father, Henry Howard, viz. Pleasant Ridge, Whitford, Safe guard, and all the lands he had of Levin Lawrence, as also all the said John B. Howard's personal estate, excepting a mare and colt, free and clear from all incumbrances by debt or otherwise; he having made a reserve of 450 acres of land, purchased by him of Colonel John Dotsey, for the specific purpose of paying his debts, after which the remainder to go to the said John B. Howard's own private use, as a competency; the other part of his estate to be conveyed in fruit, to be for the use and benefit of his wife and children, as is mentioned in the bond; A separation between him and his wife having taken place, on the 21st instant, December, 1782, a demand was made by us to have a deed executed agreeable to the tenor of the bond, which the said John B. Howard refused executing; if the said John B. Howard had to any person or persons the 450 acres of land reserved, the debts due from him are not to be paid, as no part of the estate to be conveyed in fruit is to be liable, and agreeable to the tenor of the bond he cannot sell any part of the personal estate.
