Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, Jan. 23, 1783.
 Pursuant to an act of assembly passed at the last session, will be exposed to sale, by way of auction, at Baltimore-town, on the first day of April next,

SEVERAL thousand acres of land, late the property of the Principio company. The lands will be surveyed and laid off in convenient farms and seats for gentlemen; the quality of the lands and their contiguity to that flourishing town, from which they are distant but a few miles, render them extremely valuable. One or more persons will attend on the premises, where the Kingsbury furnace stands, for three days before the day of sale, to show the different lots to any person who may incline to view the same. One third of the purchase money to be paid in thirty days, another third in two years, the remainder in three years. Bond and security will be required on the day of sale.
 By order, J. DORSEY, clk.

To be RENTED for one year, or a term of years not exceeding seven,

A COMPLETE double geared merchant mill and a distillery situated on the head of a navigable creek of three miles extent, and issuing into Patuxent river, about a mile from the mouth of it, near Rousby-hall. The mill is acknowledged to be as compact and good a piece of work as any in the state, and remarkable for her produce of superfine flour. The lower story of the house is of stone, and contains the whole works, which are moved with great velocity by one wheel of sixteen feet diameter; she carries two pair of stones, one French bur, the other Cologn stones; her bolting works are complete, and distinct for superfine, common flour, and ship stuff, and she has a wire barrel screen and fan fixed for cleaning the grain as it runs to the hopper; there is a chimney and fire-place in the mill; and at about thirty yards distance, on a hill, is a commodious dwelling house for a small family. The distillery stands upon a level with the mill, at about twenty feet distance, and is conveniently supplied with water conveyed in troughs or gutters from the penstock of the mill, leading over the whole works; there are four copper stills, one of 125, and three of 60 gallons each, and a copper boiler of about 60 gallons, with mashing-tubs, &c. and a good malt-kiln in the house. Adjoining is a peach orchard well fenced in, containing 3000 bearing trees about five years old, and marshes to produce hay for 20 or 30 cattle. The tenant, if he pleases, may have land contiguous (some already cleared) to make a small farm. It is an excellent place for hogs, and there is a good breeding flock, with a cart, four working oxen, some other cattle, and three slaves, two men and one woman, who are now working at the distillery, all or any of which the tenant may have or not at his option. The man who at present manages the mill is a valuable carpenter, and the owner would incline to remove him. Some of the running gear, &c. of the mill, are now a little out of repair, but will be delivered to the tenant in complete and perfect good order. The situation of these works, so near the mouth of Patuxent river, one of the best harbours on the bay, and to which so many vessels resort and are daily passing, ensures a good market for live stock and all other kinds of provision. A lease will be given and security required for the punctual payment of the rent, and return of the works, &c. at the expiration of the term. Apply to Col. WILLIAM FITZVOUGH, near Lower Marlborough, in Calvert county.

P. S. Plater and Fitzhugh having declined the fulling business, will rent the fulling-mill, dwelling house, fuller's shop, and all the utensils thereunto belonging, with or without two slaves, a man and his wife, the man a complete fuller and dresser of cloth, and the woman can shear, comb, and press, is a cleanly servant, and can wash, cook, &c. The fulling-mill is about one hundred yards distant from the grist-mill and distillery, and will be rented separately or jointly with them. If the fulling-mill is not rented before the first day of April next, her materials will be sold, viz. five pair of fuller's shears, a press, screw and plates, cards, fulling paper, shearing boards, dye-stuffs, &c. &c. with a dying copper of about 60 gallons. Apply as above.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Jacob Lusby, deceased, are desired immediately to settle and pay the same, and all persons having just claims against the said estate, are desired to bring them in properly authenticated that they may be adjusted by
 ELIZABETH LUSBY, executrix,

Office of Finance, November 8, 1782.
NOTICE is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, that counterfeiters have appeared of the notes issued from this office, struck on copper-plate, in the following form: "At sight pay to the bearer twenty dollars, for which this shall be your sufficient warrant," which notes are signed by me, and directed to Mr. John Swanwick, Philadelphia. There were some notes of the same kind for fifty and some for eighty dollars, which may perhaps be also counterfeited, though none have been yet discovered. The counterfeiters are badly executed, and might with care be detected; but, from an apprehension that such arts would be practised, I long since desisted from issuing them, and cancelled those which were brought in for payment. There are now out only sixteen thousand six hundred and seventy dollars, and as no great inconvenience can arise from putting a stop to the circulation of so trivial a sum, the public are cautioned against receiving any notes struck on copper-plate, and signed with my name. All persons holding those which are genuine, are desired to send them to Mr. Swanwick, and receive the money.

THIS is to give notice, that a certain John B. Howard did, on the 7th of November, 1782, give a bond unto us the subscribers, to convey, by a lawful deed of conveyance, in trust, on or before the 20th day of December, 1782, all the lands devised to him by his father, Henry Howard, viz. Pheasant Ridge, Windsor, Safe-guard, and all the lands he had of Levin Lawrence, as also all the said John B. Howard's personal estate, excepting a mare and colt, free and clear from all incumbrances by debts or otherwise; he having made a reserve of 400 acres of land, purchased by him of colonel John Dorsey, for the specific purpose of paying his debts, after which the remainder to go to his said John B. Howard's own private use, as a competency; the other part of his estate to be conveyed in trust, to be for the use and benefit of his wife and children, as is mentioned in the bond. A separation between him and his wife having taken place, on the 21st instant, December, 1782, a demand was made by us to have a deed executed agreeable to the tenor of the bond, which the said John B. Howard refused executing; if the said John B. Howard shall sell to any person or persons the 400 acres of land reserved, the debts due from him are first to be paid, as no part of the estate to be conveyed in trust is to be liable, and agreeable to the tenor of the bond, he cannot sell any part of the personal estate.
