NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be preferred to the next session of assembly, for an act to record and give effect to a deed of bargain and sale from James Rayley, and Benjamin Newnam and Mary his wife, to John Moore of Queen-Anne's county.

OFFICE for CONFISCATED ESTATES, Annapolis, July 3, 1783.

PURSUANT to a late act of the general assembly, will be sold at public vendue, the following property, in order to discharge the debts due from the late proprietors thereof, viz.

At Annapolis, on Tuesday the 2d day of September next, that very valuable house and lot, late the property of Lloyd Dulany.

At Baltimore-town, on Thursday the 4th following, the house and tract of ground in the vicinity of said town, late the property and residence of Dr. Henry Stevenfon. Also at the same time and place, an undivided half of a water lot at Fell's point, late the property of Robert Christie; and a good lot and dwelling house situate in Market street, now in the tenure of Mr. Daniel Carroll, late the property of Lynch.

At Bladensburg, on Monday the 8th following, the houses and lots in said town, and a very valuable plantation about three miles distant, late the property of Daniel Stephenfon.

One year's credit will be given, the purchasers giving bond with security. All persons having just claims against any of the said estates, are requested to have them adjusted by the auditor-general and intendant, which will entitle them to their proportionate part of the bonds, or of the cash when paid.

By order,
J. DORSEY, clk.

Charles county, June 16, 1783.
WAS committed to my custody as a runaway, a mulatto man, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, has a scar above his left eye, and says he got it by a knife being thrown at him, and that his name is Jerry, and belongs to colonel Ramsey, of Virginia, but some say he belongs to William Lindsey, of Colchester. His master is desired to pay charges and take him away.
CHARLES MANKIN, sheriff.
