TO BE LET,

And may be entered on immediately. A VERY valuable plantation, on West-river, in Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, 12 miles from Annapolis, containing upwards of 1000 acres, about 400 of which is wood land, and 500 of cleared upland, 20 acres of meadow fit for the sith, and 50 more may be made; a large proportion of level low ground, very rich, and suitable for either grain, clover, or other grass, and a body of salt marsh, which affords a great deal of late and early pasturage. The whole of the land is equal in quality to any in the state, and the situation preferable to most, both for health and convenience; vessels of considerable burthen come up to the land, which affords an easy and cheap conveyance of the produce to Baltimore, the Head of Elk, or any other market on Chesapeake bay. Fish, oysters, and wild fowl, are taken in great plenty and perfection, close to the land.

The premises are accommodated with a large new house, two story high, with four rooms on each floor, and an handsome passage, in a pleasant and healthy situation, and also with all other houses necessary for the use of the plantation. It will be let for a term of years, to a complete farmer, of sufficient ability to manage it to the best advantage, and no other need apply. For further particulars inquire of ANNE PEMBERTON on the premises, or CALEB CARLALT, in Philadelphia.

MICHAEL H. BONWILL.

Charles county, August 27, 1783.

BROKE gaol with the assistance of some villain or villains, on the night of the 25th instant, a mulatto fellow by the name of GUSTAVUS CROSEN; he is about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, of a simple offensive aspect, soft of speech, and wears his hair tied behind and plaited before. The cloaths he had on when he broke gaol I think it needless to describe, as in all probability he has others which I never saw; having been some years in the continental service he may probably have a suit of regimentals, by means of which he may pass for a soldier, and escape examination. I will give twenty dollars to any person who will bring the said Crofen to me, and fifty for the discovery of the person or persons who assisted him in making his escape, so that they may be convicted thereof and brought to punishment.

CHARLES MANKIN, sheriff.

WE the subscribers have appointed Mr. James Skinner, inspector, to collect all debts that may be due to our store, which was under the direction of colonel Joseph Wilkinton, at Hunting-town, in Calvert county; those debts have been due some time, and very little collection made, or even any regard paid to our advertisements to that purpose. As Joseph Dowson intends for Europe this fall, we once more request that payment will be made immediately to enable him to execute his plan of going to England, otherwise they may depend that suits will be brought without respect of persons.

DOWSON and COWMAN.
