

Charles county, December 22, 1783.
To be SOLD, at the dwelling plantation of the subscriber in Charles county, on the 26th day of next month, (January) if fair, if not the next fair day, for cash or tobacco,

A PARCEL of prime slaves, consisting of men and women, and a pretty boy. Ready money will be most acceptable, but to those to whom it may be inconvenient to pay on the day of sale, a short credit will be given, or tobacco bonds with security on interest will be taken, and a credit of two years given; one half the principal with interest to be paid at the end of one year from the day of sale, and the balance at the end of the other. Among the above negroes are two good cooks, the one an elderly though very hearty woman, the other a very likely healthy young wench about 18 years of age, with a fine child about a year old, she has been brought up from her infancy in the kitchen; they are both plain cooks, and the elder is a good washer and ironer; these two will be sold for ready money only, or very short credit. The sale to begin at 12 o'clock.

10/27/83 GEORGE LEE.

4th. All baggage regularly entered with the clerk at Mr. Mann's bar the proprietors to be accountable for, unavoidable accidents excepted; and all passengers neglecting to attend the stages starting at the hour appointed, to forfeit their passage, cases of sickness only excepted.

10/15/83 CECIL COUNTY, MARYLAND, OCTOBER 15, 1783.

I HEREBY give notice, that I intend to apply to the general assembly of Maryland, at the session which shall happen after this advertisement is published two months agreeable to the resolve of the said assembly, for leave to bring in a bill to secure and establish a title in the subscriber to part or parcels of two tracts of land called Holland's and Heath's Adventure, lying and being in Cecil county, in the state of Maryland, and which said lands have been conveyed to the subscriber by John Ewing, by deed of conveyance and sale, bearing date the 27th of December, 1775.

10/15/83 JAMES GALLESPY.

THE subscriber intends petitioning the general assembly of this state at the next session, for a law to record a deed of bargain and sale made by Thomas Noel, deceased, of two tracts of land, viz. one called Edmondson's Purchase, and the other the Range, situate and lying in Caroline county, to Charles Frazier, of said county.

10/16/83 CHARLES FRAZIER.

December 25, 1783.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends preferring a petition to the next general assembly of Maryland, to pass an act enabling the executors of Levi Hopkins, deceased, to sell so much of the real property which did belong to the said Levi, as will be sufficient to discharge his debts.

10/27/83 HOPKINS, executor.

Annapolis, December 30, 1783.
THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber has received a power of attorney from Judith Doyle, the widow and administratrix of James Maw, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, to settle and adjust all her affairs relating to the late James Maw's estate; all those who have claims against the same, are desired to bring them in duly authenticated on or before the first day of May 1784, as on that day the said estate will be finally settled, and all those who are indebted to the said James Maw, or Judith Doyle, are requested to settle their accounts and make immediate payment to

JOHN CRISALL.

THERE is at the plantation of Mr. Thomas Rutland, on South river, near Annapolis, taken up as a fray, a small bay horse, about thirteen hands and a half high, no perceivable brand, has a small white spot on his withers, occasioned by the saddle, and a small spot behind his left ear, trots and gallops. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

EDMUND WAYMAN.

December 8, 1783.

THE estate of Thomas Purnell Sturgis, of Worcester county, being indebted more than the personal estate will pay; the subscribers intend petitioning the next general assembly for an act to empower them to sell the real estate of the said Thomas Purnell Sturgis, to enable them to pay off the debts.

ZADOCK SELBY, executor,
MARY HALL, executrix.

TAKEN up as frays, by Charles Griffith, living in Anne-Arundel county, on the Head of Severn, near Bryan's tavern, two horses, one a gray, about thirteen hands and a half high, paces and gallops, ten years old, no perceivable brand, his ears cropt; the other a bay, with a blaze face, three white feet, trots and gallops, about thirteen hands and a half high; no perceivable brand, has a speck in his near eye, and is about seven years old. 2 EDWARD LLOYD.

Montgomery county, November 25, 1783.

WENT away from his lodgings, on the night of the 23d instant, a certain WILLIAM SMITH, who took with him sundry bed cloaths, viz. two rugs, one green, the other white set with other colours; three blankets, one white country cloth, one a Dutch double one, the other a Dutch single one; two sheets, one coarse, the other fine; two bolsters, one drilling, the other of snabrig. Likewise a dark bay horse, about 9 years old, 13 hands high, paces well, and trots when loose; his marks are, some mixed hairs in his face, a white spot on his under lip, and a bump behind his left ear, as if he were going to have the poll-evil, white hind feet as high as the footlocks, and some saddle-spots on his back. Also two snaffle bridles. Said Smith's apparel is, a drab coloured great coat with white metal buttons; an old coat and jacket of country fustian, the jacket had a splash of tar on the breast; a pair of old overalls worn out at the knees; white stockings; a pair of shoes, and large silver buckles, which he said he bought at Bladenburg, and that they cost him five dollars and a half. Whoever apprehends him and secures him in any goal, so that he be brought to justice, shall, on conviction, receive five dollars; and for securing the horse, so that I get him again, and the bed-cloaths, five dollars more, paid by
