3 X SAMUEL WOOD.

Prince-George's county, June 16, 1784.
TEN POUNDS REWARD,
For bringing my SADDLE-HORSE to me at Upper-Marlborough.

HE was taken away at Whiteside, by some person who I fear never means to return him. He is a dark bay, neither docked nor branded, thirteen hands three inches high, well formed, no white spot or mark of any sort on him; has a very fine long tail, and is remarkably spirited when under the saddle. There were several strolling men who passed through here about that time, some enquiring the road to Alexandria, others to Annapolis; I fear some of them have taken him. Any person bringing him to me at this place, or delivering him to Mr. Samuel Hutcheson at my plantation, shall have the above reward.

3 W. SPRIGG BQWIE.

Choptank bridge, on Choptank river, state of Maryland, April 28, 1784.

SIXTEEN hundred acres of LAND, in the Delaware state, Kent county, for sale, either in the whole or part, as may best suit the purchasers. It is about 14 miles from a landing on Delaware bay, and 8 miles from said bridge, where shallops can come to. This river empties into Chesapeake bay, and renders the lands of value, having an advantage both of Philadelphia and Baltimore markets. On the whole is a clearing of eight hundred acres, divided into three farms at present, but may be subdivided easily, as it is all in one clearing entire. It has the advantage of two branches, filled with exceeding fine ash and maple timber, one of which branches has a ditch through it, and a clearing of one hundred acres fit for the sith, and side ditched; also thirty acres more side ditched and partly cleared, and fifty acres more in woods and not side ditched; on the other branches are upwards of eighty acres, below which and above ditches are cut, which will render the draining easy.

On the three farms, as they are now laid off, are a dwelling house neatly finished, 26 by 26 feet, two stories high, covered and boarded with cedar, two rooms and flush passage at the end below, three rooms and entry above, cellar in two apartments underneath; a kitchen and pantry adjoining, 26 feet by 16, several out-houses, and a barn, floored flush, 30 by 30 feet. To this farm, which is now rented for 500 bushels of wheat per annum, 520 acres are allotted.

Two logged dwelling-houses, 18 by 20 feet each, and other out-houses. To this farm, which is now rented for 200 bushels of wheat per annum, are 580 acres, with 30 acres of ditched and partly cleared meadow, and eight acres of meadow fit for the sith. A dwelling-house, with a flush cellar, 20 by 20 feet, kitchen adjoining, in good repair; a large barn or tobacco-house 60 by 50 feet, with two 60 feet sheds 12 feet wide; a house, formerly used as a negro quarter, 30 by 24 feet, hipped roof, and other out-houses. The quantity of land to this is 500 acres, 100 of which is cleared meadow and drained, and the remainder of the above described ditched branch. It now rents for 73 pounds for three years, at the end of which, for three years more, for 100 pounds per annum. Made meadow, and is well adapted for tobacco.

The other farms have a large proportion of meadow land each, and may be advanced largely in the rents, and will be parceling off to a smaller quantity in each farm. There are on the whole six bearing apple tree orchards, of about 900 trees in the whole. The upland is fertile, for raising either flax, corn, wheat, oats, and, if properly manured, tobacco. For one third cash down, and remaining two thirds reasonable credit. Further terms will be made known by applying at Choptank bridge, and the lands will be shewn by Messieurs Aisford and Cooper, or Mr. Hugh M'Pherson, tenants on the premises.

He rode away on a bright bay mare, about thirteen hands and a half high, long black switch tail, trots and gallops, very spirited, and has no perceivable brand. As he has been a waiter to John Kidout, Esq; for several years past, and is well acquainted in Annapolis and Baltimore, it is not improbable but he may make for one of those places, and will endeavour to pass for a free man, and perhaps may have a forged pass. Whoever will secure the said slave, so that I may get him again, shall receive eight dollars reward, and two dollars for the mare, and all reasonable charges, if brought to Mr. Thomas Basford near Frederick-town, or to the subscriber in Prince-George's county.

About five hundred acres of the above land is fine bottom, and may be cultivated either in grass or grain, and in its present state produces pasturage equal to almost any place. The high land is chiefly level, and of good quality for wheat, and it is capable of being made one of the best farms in that part of the country. It is now under rent for fifteen thousand pounds of crop tobacco per annum.

Also about 260 acres of land adjoining, that has about 60 years of a lease to come, and subject only to a rent of one thousand pounds of tobacco per annum.

Tobacco, or state certificates bearing interest, will be taken for the greatest part of the purchase. If sold for specie, credit will be given for the greatest part of the sale, upon giving bond, upon interest, with approved security.
