THE JOCKEY CLUB PURSE of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS will be run for at Annapolis, on Thursday the 14th of October next, free for any horse, mare, or gelding, belonging to a member of the club. Heats four miles each. Four years old to carry seven stone, five years old seven stone twelve pounds, six years old eight stone seven pounds, and aged nine stone.
The judges having concluded to start precisely at eleven o'clock, the gentlemen who run horses are requested to have them ready at the post by that hour, as no horse will on any account be waited for after that time.
The club will meet, agreeable to a resolution of the last meeting, at Mr. Mann's tavern, on the Wednesday preceding the race, at one o'clock, and the annual subscription of three guineas is to be paid to the secretary by the first day of October.

July 12, 1784.
To be SOLD at public vendue, in Prince-George's county, Maryland, on Tuesday the 24th day of August next,

THAT beautiful and well improved plantation where the subscriber now lives, lying within one mile of Queen-Anne parish chapel, 10 to Queen-Anne, eleven to Bladensburg, fifteen to Upper-Marlborough, twenty-two to Annapolis, and thirty to Baltimore-town. There are several good grist and saw mills within a few miles of this plantation; it contains 415 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres of good fertile land; there are about 30 acres of good meadow ground, and great part of it may, at a small expence, be put under grass; the land is about half cleared and under good fences, in complete order for cropping, is divided into four fields, with good springs and pleasant streams of water running through each; great part of the remainder is well timbered and curiously preserved, so as to be convenient to every part of the plantation; it is a healthy pleasant situation. The improvements are, a good stone dwelling-house 32 feet by 18, with a cellar under the whole, a kitchen 18 feet square with brick chimney, a negro quarter 24 feet by 16 with stone chimney, a good paled garden, three good tobacco-houses covered with shingles, and have double ground tires; one of them is shedded, which makes good stables; all three houses are in good repair; there are two other dwelling-houses detached from the former; one is 24 feet square with brick chimney, a good paled garden, and several convenient out-houses; the other dwelling-house is small. Few plantations in the state exceed this for fruit of all kinds both in quality and quantity; of a bearing year, 12,000 gallons of the best cider may be made; the fruit-trees of all sorts are young and thriving. Any person inclinable to purchase may see the plat, view the land and improvements, before the day of sale, by applying to the subscriber, and may have liberty to put in the ground a fall crop. Possession will be given the first day of November next, and the terms made known on the day of sale, by 100/17/6 RICHARD HIGGINS.

July 14, 1784.
To be SOLD by public vendue, on the 21st of August next, at South river ferry, if not disposed of at private sale, A TRACT of LAND, containing 215 acres, within two miles of London-town; there is some meadow ground on it, an orchard of good fruit-trees, a dwelling-house and kitchen, and some other improvements; a navigable water within a mile, and plenty of fish, crabs, oysters, and wild-fowl; fine spring water, and the place healthy. It is subject to a dower of one third of the interest upon the sale. Whoever inclines to purchase may know the terms, by applying to the subscriber at Annapolis.
100/7/6 STEPHEN MOORE.

Mount Industry, July 5, 1784.
On Tuesday the 27th of this instant will be offered for sale, on the premises, if fair, if not the first fair day,
THAT valuable feat of land, late the property of Mr. Henry Williamson, containing by estimation four hundred acres. This land is of the first quality, about one half of which is covered with wood, and abounds with excellent timber; the improvements are very valuable, and it has every convenience; and as it is expected the person inclined to purchase will view the land before the day of sale, it renders a full detail unnecessary. The payments will be as easy as possible, which will be made known on the day of sale. An indisputable title will be given, and possession to take place in November.
CHARLES WILLIAMSON,

June 17, 1784.
NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be preferred to the next general assembly of the state of Maryland, to raise money for the purpose

WARM SPRINGS at BATH, in Berkeley county, Virginia, June 13, 1784.

James Rumsey & Robert Throgmorton, PROPOSE opening a very commodious BOARDING HOUSE, for the residence of ladies and gentlemen, who may honour the BATH, at the sign of the LIBERTY-POLE and FLAG. Every possible attention will be paid, to render the situation of those who honour them with their commands, perfectly agreeable. / D. Ryan Newport, Charles county, July 4, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 22d of June last, a negro fellow named JACOB, the property of Miss Mary Corry; he is a cunning artful fellow, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, of a yellow complexion, his nose high, which some call roach'd, not flat and broad like most of his colour, has a scar just above his nose between his eye brows, and another on his cheek occasioned by the tooth-ach; one of his legs swells at times, which causes him to complain much, and sometimes break out into sores; there is something to be remarked in his gait; as you follow him, you may observe his knees and ankles frequently to rub, and the calves of his legs twist out; which cause them to be wide between them; had on when he went away, a short light brown coat lined or faced with red, an old o-nabrig shirt much to pieces, old cotton or linen breeches, old yarn stockings, his hat (if any) I cannot describe, as he lost his own at cards just before he went away; I am apt to believe he will change his cloths, if he can get others at any rate, even by stealth, and endeavour to pass as a free man, which he did in the late war, was taken up and put into Baltimore gaol, where Mr William Corry was obliged to prove him before he could get him; he had broke out of two gaols before that, and has made his brags that he can break out of any gaol. Whoever sees the said fellow one mile from home, from the date hereof until Christmas next, without a written pass from me, specifying the time and distance he may go, and will take him up and bring him home to me, shall receive one dollar besides what the law allows, if out of the county two dollars, if out of the state three dollars, and reasonable charges, paid by 100/15/ JOHN COOK: EY

EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.
July 8, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Bla-denburg, Prince George's county, on the road leading to George-town, on the 6th instant, a negro fellow named PHIL, about five feet eight or nine inches high, about forty years old, is a slim made fellow, thin visaged, big about the feet and ankles, and some of his fore teeth gone; had on when he went away, a striped country cloth jacket and a striped cotton waistcoat without sleeves, a cotton shirt, and a felt hat almost new. Whoever takes up the said fellow and secures him in any gaol shall receive the above reward, or if brought home to me the same reward and travelling charges, paid by 100/7/6 GARRARD BOARMAN.

Annapolis, July 7, 1784.

W A N T E D, A JOURNEYMAN GUNSMITH, to

of employment, by applying to 2 JOHN SHAW.

Charles-town, July 1, 1784.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the inhabitants of Charles-town, in Cecil county, intend to petition the general assembly, at their next session, for an act to empower the commissioners of the town to sell the vacant and forfeited lots, the marsh adjoining, and such part, or the whole, of the public lots on the water, appropriated for public uses, as they may think most conducive to the benefit of the town. Also to empower the inhabitants qualified to vote at county elections, to choose their commissioners annually or triennially. 2

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Saturday evening, the 20th day of March last, on his way home from Annapolis, NEGRO CALEB, belonging to Mary Hammond, daughter of John Hammond, Esq; deceased; he is about twenty-six years of age, well made, bow-legged, of a dingy or rather a copperish complexion, about five feet six or seven inches high, had his wool growing remarkably thick and low on his forehead; had on when he went away, a coarse hat bound round with white, a double breasted brown sailors jacket, the rest of his cloaths is uncertain; he has a remarkable dent, or rather hole, in his left cheek, opposite his jaw-bone; he is discoverable likewise, if stopped, by other singularities, his excessive talkativeness and smoothness of tongue. Whoever takes up the said negro, and secures him so that the owner may get him again, shall be entitled to the above reward, and all reasonable charges if brought home, from 6X WILLIAM HAMMOND, administrator, living on the Head of Severn.

N. B. All masters of vessels and others are hereby forewarned from carrying him away, concealing him or harbouring him one hour, at their peril.
