Annapolis, June 30, 1784.
WHEREAS I, the subscriber, have been falsely accused of some scandalous report made use of by me against my wife: Therefore, in vindication of her character, I hereby declare, that I believe my said wife Catherine to be an honest and virtuous woman, and that she has in no ways prejudiced or injured me on any account whatever, but that the whole difference that has happened between us, I really believe, was contrived by wicked and mischievous persons.

3X THOMAS BONNER.

June 8, 1784.
STOLEN from Mr. John Carroll's plantation, near the Head of South river, a sorrel HORSE, blaze face, about thirteen hands and a half high, about ten years old, unshod, branded on the near shoulder and buttock, but the brand forgot, trots and gallops, and is a work horse. Whoever brings him to the subscriber shall be paid five dollars.

3X THOMAS WARFIELD.

Calvert county, June 1, 1784.
THE subscriber intends to petition the general assembly, at the ensuing session, for a law to empower her to open a road from her dwelling house through a corner of the land now occupied by Dr. Barton Tabbs, until it intersects the main road leading from St. Leonard's creek-town to Prince-Frederick-town, where the court-house of the county aforesaid stands.

W A N T E D,
As an assistant in a family, where her employment will be very easy,

Prince-George's county, June 16, 1784.
TEN POUNDS REWARD,
For bringing my SADDLE-HORSE to me at Upper-Marlborough.

HE was taken away at Whitfuntide, by some person who I fear never means to return him. He is a dark bay, neither docked nor branded, thirteen hands three inches high, well formed, no white spot or mark of any sort on him; has a very fine long tail, and is remarkably spirited when under the saddle. There were several strolling men who passed through here about that time, some enquiring the road to Alexandria, others to Annapolis; I fear some of them have taken him. Any person bringing him to me at this place, or delivering him to Mr. Samuel Hutcheson at my plantation, shall have the above reward.

4 W. SPRIGG BOWIE.

In pursuance of an act of assembly passed last session, will be sold, at public vendue, on Monday the second day of August next,

A TRACT or parcel of land, lying and being in Calverton manor, in Charles county, purchased of the commissioners for the sale of confiscated British property, by Joseph Lyon, deceased. The purchaser to give bond with good security, for the payment of one half within twelve months, the other half within two years.

6 ELEANOR LYON,
HENRY LYON,
WILLIAM CANTER, jun.

TAKEN up by Basil Burgess, from the back of Elk-Ridge, Anne-Arundel county, two gray mares; one a roan, about 14 hands high, a natural pacer, 9 or 10 years old, is branded on the near shoulder, which appears to be like an S with a heart though not very perceivable; the other is a sorrel, about 13 and a half hands high, trots and gallops, neither branded nor docked, and appears to be 8 or 9 years old. The owner or owners may have them again on proving property and paying charges.

Choptank bridge, on Choptank river, state of Maryland, April 28, 1784.

SIXTEEN hundred acres of LAND, in the Delaware state, Kent county, for sale, either in the whole or part, as may best suit the purchaser. It is about 14 miles from a landing on Delaware bay, and 8 miles from said bridge, where shallops can come to. This river empties into Chesapeake bay, and renders the lands of value, having an advantage both of Philadelphia and Baltimore markets. On the whole is a clearing of eight hundred acres, divided into three farms at present, but may be subdivided easily, as it is all in one clearing entire. It has the advantage of two branches, filled with exceeding fine ash and maple timber, one of which branches has a ditch through it, and a clearing of one hundred acres fit for the sibe, and side ditched; also thirty acres more side ditched and partly cleared; and fifty acres more in woods and not side ditched; on the other branches are upwards of eighty acres, below which and above ditches are cut, which will render the draining easy.

On the three farms, as they are now laid off, are a dwelling house nearly finished, 26 by 26 feet, two stories high, covered and boarded with cedar, two rooms and flush passage at the end below, three rooms and entry above, cellar in two apartments underneath; a kitchen and pantry adjoining, 26 feet by 16, several out-houses, and a barn, floored flush, 30 by 30 feet. To this farm, which is now rented for 500 bushels of wheat per annum, 520 acres are allotted.

Two logged dwelling-houses, 18 by 20 feet each, and other out-houses. To this farm, which is now rented for 200 bushels of wheat per annum, are 580 acres, with 30 acres of ditched and partly cleared meadow, and eight acres of meadow fit for the sibe.

A dwelling-house, with a flush cellar, 20 by 20 feet, kitchen adjoining, in good repair; a large barn or tobacco-house 60 by 50 feet, with two 60 feet sheds 12 feet wide; a house, formerly used as a negro quarter, 30 by 24 feet, hipped roof, and other out-houses. The quantity of land to this is 500 acres, 100 of which is cleared meadow and drained, and the remainder of the above described ditched branch. It now rents for 73 pounds for three years, at the end of which, for three years more, for 100 pounds per annum. Made meadow, and is well adapted for tobacco.

The other farms have a large proportion of meadow land each, and may be advanced largely in the rents, and will be parceling off to a smaller quantity in each farm. There are on the whole six bearing apple tree orchards, of about 900 trees in the whole. The upland is fertile, for raising either flax, corn, wheat, oats, and, if properly manured, tobacco. For one third cash down, and remaining two thirds reasonable credit. Further terms will be made known by applying at Choptank bridge, and the lands will be shown by Messieurs Alford and Cooper, or Mr. Hugh M'Pherson, tenants on the premises.

3X BENEDICT BRICE.

Annapolis, July 1, 1784.
JUST IMPORTED,
By JOSEPH DOWSON, in the brig LUCY, Captain WILLIAM DENNIS, from London,

A LARGE and very general assortment of dry goods, suitable for the present and approaching seasons, which he will sell, on very reasonable terms, for cash, bills of exchange, or tobacco.

June 16, 1784.
RAN away from the subscriber's plantation, near Frederick-town, on the 9th instant, a mulatto man SLAVE, named PHILIP TODD, about twenty-two years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, slim made, and short hair; his cloaths are uncertain, having taken several suits with him. He rode away on a bright bay mare, about thirteen hands and a half high, long black switch tail, trots and gallops, very spirited, and has no perceivable brand. As he has been a waiter to John Ridout, Esq; for several years past, and is well acquainted in Annapolis and Baltimore, it is not improbable but he may make for one of those places, and will endeavour to pass for a free man, and perhaps may have a forged pass. Whoever will secure the said slave, so that I may get him again, shall receive eight dollars reward, and two dollars for the mare, and all reasonable charges, if brought to Mr. Thomas Basford near Frederick-town, or to the subscriber in Prince-George's county.

JOHN MACGILL.
All masters of vessels are forbid taking him on board at their peril.

June 21, 1784.

In the NANTES, from LONDON,
And to be SOLD by the subscriber, at Upper-Marlborough,

4 BENJAMIN ODEN.

May 10, 1784.
To be SOLD,

THAT valuable tract of LAND whereon Mr. Athanasius Ford lately lived, in St. Mary's county, about two or three miles from Leonardtown, on the Head of Brittas-bay, and about six miles from Patuxent river, containing upwards of thirteen hundred acres, with a commodious large brick dwelling house upon it, pleasantly situated, many convenient out-houses, a valuable grist mill, though at present in bad repair, a large apple orchard of choice fruit, a few acres of meadow in timothy, and several hundred acres more may be easily laid down either in clover or timothy, being already cleared, and a considerable quantity cultivated in Indian corn. About five hundred acres of the above land is fine bottom, and may be cultivated either in grain or grass, and in its present state produces pasture equal to almost any place. The high land is chiefly level, and of good quality for wheat, and it is capable of being made one of the best farms in that part of the country. It is now under rent for fifteen thousand pounds of crop tobacco per annum.

Also about 260 acres of land adjoining, that has about 60 years of a lease to come, and subject only to a rent of one thousand pounds of tobacco per annum.

Tobacco, or state certificates bearing interest, will be taken for the greatest part of the purchase. If sold for specie, credit will be given for the greatest part of the sale, upon giving bond, upon interest, with approved security.

10X JOSEPH SPRIGG.

St. Mary's county, May 25, 1784.
RAN away from the subscriber on the 20th inst. a bright mulatto fellow called NACE, aged twenty two years, about five feet seven or eight inches high, well made; he took with him a coarse blue cloth jacket without skirts, double breasted, with leather buttons, and lined with white flannel, a pair of old white jeans breeches, new osnabrig shirt, and old felt hat; has a scar on his forehead, and a long bushy head of hair; has got a quick way of speaking, is an artful fellow, and has been used as a waiter. It is likely he will attempt to pass as a free man, and endeavour to get on board some vessel at Baltimore or Alexandria. I will give a reward of three pounds current money to any person who will secure him, if taken within the state and brought home, or if out of the state five pounds like money. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned harbouring or carrying him off at their peril.

5 HENRY NEALE.

ALL persons, having claims against the estate of the late Mr. John Hanson, of Frederick-town, deceased, are desired to produce them to the subscriber; and all persons indebted to the deceased are requested to make a speedy settlement with

4X JANE HANSON, executrix.

Auditor's-office, Annapolis, April 7, 1784.
MANY fraudulent attempts having been made upon the public in order to obtain depreciation of pay, by men who had been soldiers in the continental army, but had forfeited their claim to it, either by desertion, or after their discharge had joined the British army and navy: To prevent such imposition, the auditor of the state of Maryland gives notice, that no certificates will be issued by him to, or on account of, any person whatever, without the original discharge is produced, or a certificate by an officer of the regiment and company to which such soldier belonged at the time of his discharge, specifying the times of enlistment and discharge, and a certificate from some person of good character, who is well known in Annapolis, shewing his good behaviour since his discharge. And as forged orders have frequently been presented, the auditor further gives notice, that he will not hereafter issue certificates to any other than the persons themselves on whose account they are issued.
