4X JAMES MACKUBIN.

Calvert county, May 15, 1784.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sabaut Card, a languishing prisoner in said county gaol, intends preferring a petition to the next general assembly, for an act to release him from his present confinement.

July 2, 1784.
STRAYED or STOLEN, on the night of the 29th of June last, from the pasture of Judson Coolidge, near Marlborough, Prince-George's county, a likely bay horse, about 14 and a half hands high, with a star in his forehead, brand (if any) unknown, shod all round. Any person delivering said horse to me, near Bladensburg, shall receive ten dollars reward.

2 J. BEALL.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Annapolis, on the 29th day of June, 1784, a mulatto man named Peter, 39 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches high, has a sneaking down look, is a dark skin'd mulatto, has big eyes, and has lost almost all his teeth. Had on, when he went away, a black and white country cloth jacket and white country cloth breeches, of a dark colour; he has been unwell and looks poorly. Whoever takes up the said mulatto man, and secures him so that his master may get him again, shall receive, if ten miles from home four dollars, if twenty miles six dollars, if further five pounds besides what the law allows.

2 BALDWIN LUSBY.

N. B. All masters of vessels are hereby forewarned from carrying him away; it is suspected he will tell people he is free, change his name and cloaths, and pass for a free man. He is a very great rogue, and it is likely will try to get by water, or pass for a soldier who is coming to seek his pay. He may probably procure a soldier's discharge or a forged pass.

THERE will be a petition preferred to the next general assembly of the state of Maryland, for a law to establish a warehouse for the inspection of tobacco at London-town, on South river, and for the appointment of an inspector to superintend the same.

4 Calvert county, June 1, 1784.

THE subscriber intends to petition the general assembly, at the ensuing session, for a law to empower her to open a road from her dwelling house through a corner of the land now occupied by Dr. Barton Tabbs, until it intersects the main road leading from St. Leonard's-creek-town to Prince-Frederick-town, where the court-house of the county aforesaid stands.

5 MARY BOND.

Prince-George's county, June 16, 1784.

TEN POUNDS REWARD,
For bringing my SADDLE-HORSE to me at Upper-Marlborough.

HE was taken away at Whitsuntide, by some person who I fear never means to return him. He is a dark bay, neither docked nor branded, thirteen hands three inches high, well formed, no white spot or mark of any sort on him; has a very fine long tail, and is remarkably spirited when under the saddle. There were several strolling men who passed through here about that time, some enquiring the road to Alexandria, others to Annapolis; I fear some of them have taken him. Any person bringing him to me at this place, or delivering him to Mr. Samuel Hutcheson at my plantation, shall have the above reward.

5 W. SPRIGG BOWIE.

TAKEN up by Basil Burgeess, from the back of Elk-Ridge, Anne-Arundel county, two stray mares; one a roan, about 14 hands high, a natural pacer, 9 or 10 years old, is branded on the near shoulder, which appears to be like an S with a heart though not very perceivable; the other is a sorrel, about 13 and a half hands high, trots and gallops, neither branded nor docked, and appears to be 8 or 9 years old. The owner or owners may have them again on proving property and paying charges.

7 BENJAMIN ODEN.

St. Mary's county, May 25, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 20th inst. a bright mulatto fellow called NACE, aged twenty-two years, about five feet seven or eight inches high, well made; he took with him a coarse blue cloth jacket without skirts, double breasted, with leather buttons, and lined with white flannel, a pair of old white jeans breeches, new cinabrig shirt, and old felt hat; has a scar on his forehead, and a long bushy head of hair; has got a quick way of speaking, is an artful fellow, and has been used as a waiter. It is likely he will attempt to pass as a free man, and endeavour to get on board some vessel at Baltimore or Alexandria. I will give a reward of three pounds current money to any person who will secure him, if taken within the state and brought home, or if out of the state five pounds like money. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned not to harbour or carry him off at their peril.

One half of the money must be paid in a short time after the sale, the other on credit, with bond and good security.

2 WILLIAM WHITE.

Auditor's-office, Annapolis, April 7, 1784.

MANY fraudulent attempts having been made upon the public in order to obtain depreciation of pay, by men who had been soldiers in the continental army, but had forfeited their claim to it, either by desertion; or after their discharge had joined the British army and navy: To prevent such imposition, the auditor of the state of Maryland gives notice, that no certificates will be issued by him to, or on account of, any person whatever, without the original discharge is produced, or a certificate by an officer of the regiment and company to which such soldier belonged at the time of his discharge, specifying the times of enlistment and discharge, and a certificate from some person of good character, who is well known in Annapolis, shewing his good behaviour since his discharge. And as forged orders have frequently been presented, the auditor further gives notice, that he will not hereafter issue certificates to any other than the persons themselves on whose account they are issued.

2

Newport, Charles county, July 4, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 22d of June last, a negro fellow named JACOB, the property of Miss Mary Corry; he is a cunning artful fellow, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, of a yellow complexion, his nose high, which some call roach'd, not flat and broad like most of his colour, has a scar just above his nose between his eye brows, and another on his cheek occasioned by the tooth-ack; one of his legs swells at times, which causes him to complain much, and some times break out into sores; there is something to be remarked in his gait; as you follow him, you may observe his knees and ancles frequently to rub, and the calves of his legs twist out, which cause them to be wide between them; had on when he went away, a short light brown coat lined or faced with red, an old cinabrig shirt much to pieces, old cotton or linen breeches, old yarn stockings, his hat (if any) I cannot describe, as he lost his own at cards just before he went away; I am apt to believe he will change his cloaths, if he can get others at any rate, even by stealth, and endeavour to pass as a free man, which he did in the late war, was taken up and put into Baltimore gaol, where Mr. William Corry was obliged to prove him before he could get him; he had broke out of two gaols before that, and has made his brags that he can break out of any gaol. Whoever sees the said fellow one mile from home, from the date hereof until Christmas next, without a written pass from me, specifying the time and distance he may go, and will take him up and bring him home to me, shall receive one dollar besides what the law allows, if out of the county two dollars, if out of the state three dollars, and reasonable charges, paid by
