Annapolis, September 2, 1784.
By virtue of a decree in the high court of chancery, dated the 28th day of Janr, 1784, in favour of Nicholas Maccubbin against Henry Bennett Darnall, will be exposed to sale, at public vendue, on the premises, for ready money only, on Wednes-

ONE moiety of a tract of land called the Land of Promise, lying in Baltimore county, upon the head of Gunpowder river, and on the north side of the fourth branch of the said river, containing one thousand acres more or less, and also sundry negroes, men, women, and children; which land and negroes were mortgaged the 5th of December, 1764, as a security for money lent Mr. Darnall, and now sold to discharge the debt. The negroes are young and healthy, and the land is of the best quality, and is situated between 12 and 15 miles from Baltimore-town. A more particular description of it would be needless, as it is not probable any one will purchase, without having first viewed the premises, which may be done by applying to Mr. Darnall, who lives on the land. The sale will be under the direction of gentlemen appointed by the chancellor for the purpose, and purchasers will receive effectual deeds of transfer under and by force of the decree, from the situation of my affairs absolutely requires it; and those who have claims against said estate I hope will be speedy in bringing them in properly attested, that provision may be made for the payment of them as soon as possible.
