

lay deputies, of h in the United
ew-York, October
follows:
Rev. Samuel Par
hall, A. M.
A. M. Rev.
Benjamin Moore,
M. Rev. Leonard
Moore, Hon. James
Opp, Esquires.
John De Hart,
Samuel Spragg,
White, D. D. Rev.
Hutchins, A. M.
g, Samuel Powell,
orn, Rev. Charles
D. D.
from the state of
ion. The clergy
laws yet in force
delegates, or con-
der, government,
commend to the ommunion in the propose to those of
at as soon as they themselves in the belong, agreeably
proper, they unite
ion, on the fol-
convention of the
tes of America.
n each state, send ing of clergy and
as in two or more maintain the doc-
by the church of liturgy of the said
with the American
of the respective there shall be a
he shall be con-
on, ex officio.
affiliated in con-
dy, but the vote
of both shall be measure.
convention shall before the feat of
oped, and earnest-
arches in the re-rical and lay de-ced to proceed on osed for their de-
vention,
D. D. president.
y delegates of the
he state of Mary-uesday of Oc-
e 4th constitution
stitutions or rules,
nd government of &c. were agreed mmendation from hurch, consisting y and laity, duly
urth constitution
cognizance of a l
nd good govern-particularly for reclaiming or andalous mem-ers
sdition with responding or dis-
from the exercise
the framing, ap-
ons or laws for ations or reforms
oons of doctrine
ary or expedient
the United States
all matters that
the clergy and
; but if any vote
ed for by any two
y; that is to say,
ding to their own
e lity according te; and the con-
y to give validity
me and establish aints; and shall sisting of an equal
oding the bishop,
ated, among the mmittee shall have nd juridical
e-given them for
ing the disciplina

and government of the church, that may arise or be necessary to be proceeded upon, during the recess or adjournment of general conventions; all which rules shall be framed, and jurisdiction exercised in conformity to the constitution and laws of this state.
Signed by order of the convention,
WILLIAM SMITH, D. D. president.

To be sold by the subscriber, at the late dwelling house of Sarah Elliott, on the Head of South river, on Friday the 17th day of December, if fair, if not the next fair day after,
TRACT of land called Chance, containing 202 acres more or less. Also some horses, &c. &c. One year's credit will be given upon all sums above five pounds, on giving bond with security on interest, and for any sum under five pounds, the cash to be paid on delivery of the goods.
THOMAS ELLIOTT, executor.

To be SOLD, for cash or specie certificates,
AN excellent blacksmith with his wife and three very likely children, the woman is a good cook, washes and irons well. Three years credit will be allowed on giving bond with security and paying interest. A striker who has been two years at the business, will be given gratis for three years. Apply to Dr. Jenifer at Port-Tobacco, or the subscriber in Annapolis.
DANIEL JENIFER.

Annapolis December 8, 1784.
SOME time in September 1783, several furlows belonging to soldiers of the 5th regiment were left by an officer of said regiment with me, I hereby request such soldiers to call for the same, as no furlows will be delivered to any soldier's order, only to the soldier himself.
JAMES FOOTELL.

Port Tobacco, December 1, 1784.
THE subscriber is desirous of taking an apprentice to surgery and physic.
JAMES CRAIK, sen.

Annapolis, December 9, 1784.
I DO hereby forewarn all persons whosoever from taking an assignment from Thomas Duffey, sergeant of the Maryland line, for the pay and land due to him from the state of Maryland, or the United States, as I purchased said pay and land in Princes George's county, on the 24th day of February last.
BENJAMIN WARD.

St Mary's county, November 4, 1784.
COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro by the name of BOB, who says he belongs to one Frederick Hearn, of the state of Virginia, and lives in Norfolk; had on a pair of striped check trousers, a small round hat, coarse linen shirt, and an old spotted coat; he is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high. The owner is desired to pay charges and take him away.
SAMUEL ABELL, Sheriff.

November 8, 1784.
IN pursuance of a decree from the honourable court of chancery of Maryland, will be set up to public sale, on the 20th day of December next, at Elk-Ridge landing,
PART of a tract of land, lying in Baltimore county, called Taylor's Forell, containing 800 acres, laid off into convenient lots from one to two hundred acres; this land is rich and abounds with a variety of valuable timber, is situate about two miles and a half from Elk Ridge landing, and six from Baltimore-town, and may be seen at any time previous to the sale, on applying to Mr. Caleb Owings adjoining thereto.
Also one undivided sixth part of the following tracts or parcels of land, lying in Anne-Arundel county, to wit: Of Moore's Morning Choice, containing 100 acres, on which stands the Elk-Ridge furnace, with sundry other valuable improvements. Of the First Discovery, containing 235 acres. Of the Second Discovery, containing 110 acres. And of the Grecian Siege, containing 412 acres. These lands are advantageously situated within a few miles of Elk-Ridge landing, and enjoy a number of other advantages, which may be seen at any time before the sale, by application to the subscriber, near the premises.
EDWARD DORSEY, son of Caleb,
guardian to Edward Dorsey, son of Samuel.
N. B. At same time will be sold, on three years credit, a number of valuable negroes, by E. D.

November 15, 1784.
To be sold by the subscriber, for ready cash, at public sale, on Monday the 11th day of December next, if fair, if not the next fair day,
THE effects of John Chattam, deceased, being in Upper Cedar point, Charles county, for the purpose of discharging his debts, those who are indebted are requested to make payment, and those who have claims against the said estate, are desired to bring them in legally authenticated on that day, that they may be settled as far as the estate will admit of, by ELIZABETH CHATTAM, administratrix.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC SALE, at captain Morris's tavern, in Frederick-town, on the 30th of December instant.
ONE hundred and thirty acres of LAND, contained in Lot No. 15. of the Monocacy Manor, and joining old George Devilbiss's plantation, about five miles from Frederick-town. There are about forty acres of it cleared, on which are 100 young apple-trees; the rest is exceedingly well timbered, and the whole of the land, when sold by the state, was much noticed for its goodness. It is clear of lease or any claim whatever. One third of the money to be paid the first of March 1785, one third the first of June 1785, and the balance the first of September following.
WILLIAM D BEALL.

November 29, 1784.
To be SOLD, at PUBLIC SALE, agreeable to the last will and testament of Dennis Stevens, late deceased,
ALL his personal estate of every kind; the sale will be on Saturday the 11th day of December next, at his late dwelling, on the north side of Severn, if fair, if not the next fair day, Sunday excepted; the terms of sale will be made known between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock in the forenoon. It is requested that all persons having claims against the said estate will bring them to me legally attested, and all persons indebted to the estate are requested to make payment, or otherwise settle their balances by note or bond.
VACHEL STEVENS, administrator.
N. B. Persons indebted to the estate on the blacksmith's book, may pay their balances to Thomas Richardson, and his receipt shall be their sufficient discharge against V. S.

Annapolis, November 8, 1784.
Just imported and to be sold at the house of John Snaw, opposite the south end of the new-house,
A GREAT variety of looking-glasses, tea chests, billiard balls, pictures framed and glazed, maps of North-America, divided according to the preliminary articles, signed at Versailles the 20th day of January 1763, in which are particularly described the boundaries of the United States; general Atlas, describing the whole universe, being a complete and new collection of the most approved maps extant, engraved in the best manner on sixty-two copper plates, corrected with the greatest care, and augmented from the latest discoveries down to 1782.
SHAW and CHISHOLM.

St. Mary's county, November 22, 1784.
WHEREAS several persons have for some years past made a practice of trespassing on the subscriber's land, by hunting thereon with guns and dogs; notice is hereby given, that he is determined to prosecute any person or persons, who may in future enter into and pass through his lands either to hunt or fish, without leave first had from JOHN COODE.

Prince-George's county, November 1784.
ALL persons having claims against the estate of captain Judson Coolidge, late of this county, deceased, are desired to bring them in legally proved as they may be settled, and all those indebted unto the same, are earnestly requested to make immediate payment, unto SINGLETON WOOTTON,
RICHARD BURGESS, administrators.

November 29, 1784.
RAN away from the subscriber, living on Patuxent river, in St. Mary's county, a young negro man named CLEM, but often calls himself Clem Hill; he is a short fellow, about five feet seven inches high, remarkably bow legged, bold, impudent and insinuating in his manner, and affects to be very complaisant; it is probable he may attempt to pass for a free man; had on when he went away a blue jacket, white cloth breeches, a pair of new shoes with large plated buckles, but may have changed his apparel, as he is exceedingly artful and very sensible. Whoever takes him up so that his owner may get him again, if in this state, shall have twenty dollars, if out of the state thirty dollars, paid by GEORGE PLATER.

Mount Pleasant, November 23, 1784.
RAN away last night from the subscriber, living near Upper Marlborough, a slave called HESS, (alias Hezekiah Scott) a very fair mulatto, about 22 years old, and about 5 feet 6 inches high, well made, with a large mole on his right cheek, dark red or sandy hair, sometimes tied in a club, and sometimes queued, by trade a tailor, and a very good waiter; his dress two blue suits, one edged with red, the other lined with white, and yellow metal buttons on both, white linen overalls, white stockings, and shoes with large white metal buckles, a large fantail hat with a black riband and buckle, with many other cloaths unknown. I have great reason to think he is in Annapolis, as his mother lives with Mr. George Mann. Whoever will secure the said slave so that I get him, shall have the above reward and reasonable charges if brought home.
JOHN WARING.

November 23, 1784.
FIVE POUNDS REWARD.
RAN away last night from the subscriber, living near Upper Marlborough, a slave called HESS, (alias Hezekiah Scott) a very fair mulatto, about 22 years old, and about 5 feet 6 inches high, well made, with a large mole on his right cheek, dark red or sandy hair, sometimes tied in a club, and sometimes queued, by trade a tailor, and a very good waiter; his dress two blue suits, one edged with red, the other lined with white, and yellow metal buttons on both, white linen overalls, white stockings, and shoes with large white metal buckles, a large fantail hat with a black riband and buckle, with many other cloaths unknown. I have great reason to think he is in Annapolis, as his mother lives with Mr. George Mann. Whoever will secure the said slave so that I get him, shall have the above reward and reasonable charges if brought home.
JOHN WARING.

Annapolis, November 18, 1784.
IMPORTE D,
In the ship Iris, and brig Commerce, from London, and to be sold reasonable, by WILLIAMS and NETH,
At their store on the Dock, for cash, bills of exchange on London, goods wheat or corn delivered at Annapolis,
An assortment of good suitable to the season, amongst which are,
SUPERFINE, second, and coarse broad clothes, mill'd drab, fine beaver coating, duffels, half-thicks, fearnoughts, negro cottons, flannels, linseys, green baize, great coats, pea jackets, green, blue, and mottled rugs, rose and striped blankets, caddoes, calimancoes, curantzes, shalloons, plain and striped camblets, bombazets, crapes, silk and striped poplins, silk and fluff quilted petticoats, cotton corduroys, Siberian cords, honey combs, royal rics, velvets, plain and spotted velvets, worited denims, mens and womens silk, thread, and worited hose, childrens worited ditto, 7 8 and yard wide Irish linens, Irish and Russia sheetings, German dowlas, osnabrigs, table clothes, clouting diapers, fine Flanders bed ticks, common ditto, checks, womens stays, mens and boys shoes, womens silk, fluff, Morocco, and black leather ditto, boots, draw boot legs and vamps, ben sox's, calf skins, mens and boys hats, ladies ricing ditto, stationary, white and coloured threads, calicoes and chintzes, cambricks and lawns, black and white lace, ladies feathers, rich white satin, fashionable, figured, and plain luteerings, modes, fainets, perlians, satin florantine, rich striped failin for jackets, ribands, tiffany, gauzes, sprig lawn and gauze aprons and handkerchiefs, muslins, muslin handkerchiefs, gloves and mitts, bent scgkin and common saddles, taddery, powder and shot rainins, basket salt, ground ginger, multa d. spices, pearl barley, sago, suttetre, double and single loaf sugar, fine hyson, congo, and bohea tea, bottled porter, fig and powder blue, Poland it ren Glauber and Epl'm salts, Jesuits bark, Ande lin's pills, God-frey's corial, osam of honey, Brim oil, elegant bras pillar fire dogs, polished iron ditto, shavels and tongs, copper and new-make iron tea kettles, warming pans, chafin dishes, bell metal sauciers, mortars and pestles. An assortment of iron surgery, hardware, and cuttlery, with various other articles not enumerated.

They have also for sale, Jamaica spirit, West-India and New England rum, taffia, Weston, Philadelphia, and Muccaco stuff, chocolate, white, Havana, and muscovado sugars.

To be SOLD, for want of employ,
HEALTHY, young, NEGRO wench, who has been used to household and kitchen work from a child, and has had the small pox. Enquire of the printers.

There are at the plantation of Anne Tilly, living at South river ferry, taken up as strays, four yearlings, two of them bulls, one of them black and white, no perceivable mark, the other a brindie; the two others are heifers, one a black with a white streak on her back, the other a red and white with a piece off each ear. The owner or owners may have them again on proving property and paying charges.

To be SOLD,
TRACT of LAND, called Part of Thomas Taylor's Refurvey on Addition to Hazel Thicket, containing 85 acres; also part of a tract of land, called the Refurvey on Lime-stone Pock, containing 38 1/2 acres. These two tracts lie within five miles of Frederick-town, under the mountain; they form a compact little farm, on which there is a dwelling house an excellent orchard, and other valuable improvements, and the soil is good.
To be sold also, the certificate of a survey of 610 acres of land, lying westward of Fort Cumberland, on which the caution money has been paid within due time. The person who made the survey will give the necessary information respecting the quality of the soil and the title.
For terms apply to the subscriber at Annapolis, or to Dr. Philip Thomas, at Frederick-town.
A. C HANSON.

The subscriber having just returned to this state, after a seven years service in the American army, finds himself under the disagreeable necessity of applying to the next general assembly, for a law to enable him, in a summary way, to compel payment of the balances due him as sheriff of Cecil county, which office he held at the commencement of the late war, and by which he was prevented from making his collections.
JOHN HAMILTON.

LOST some time in August last, my discharge from the continental army, bearing date at Frederick-town, some time in May 1783, signed by captain Henry Gaither; this is therefore to forewarn all persons whatsoever from taking an assignment on the same, as I shall receive full satisfaction from the state of Maryland as if I had the said discharge in possession. I will give any person ten shillings who will deliver it to Mr. Benjamin Ward, who lives in Annapolis.
SAMUEL NEVILLE.