

Annapolis, Intendant's office, February 26, 1785.
To be SOLD, at Mr. M<sup>c</sup>Candle's tavern, in Baltimore-town, on Tuesday the third day of May next, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, in ten shillings.

ONE fifth of the Baltimore iron works, consisting of a furnace and two forges, with upwards of 28,000 acres of land, more than two hundred negroes, and also stock of every kind. Between 7 and 3000 of the above land, almost adjoining Baltimore-town, is now laying off in lots, and will be sold some time in the same month by the company, by which the purchasers of these two tenths will be greatly benefited. Bonds, with approved security, will be required, payable the first day of January 1790, with lawful interest to be paid annually, in current money, depreciation, or any other liquidated certificates of this state for specie. If the last bidder is not ready with his securities to enter into bond, the next bidder to him will be considered as the purchaser. Inventories will be produced on the day of sale.

DAN. OF ST. THO. JENIFER,
Intendant of the revenue.

To be SOLD at PUBLIC VENDUE, on Wednesday the 30th of March instant, if fair, if not the next fair day, at the house of John Givens, on the north side of Severn, about one mile from the ferry.

A PARCEL of valuable horses, cattle, and household furniture; also plantation utensils; among which are, a well fixed horse cart, and some good ploughs, with sundry other articles. Six months credit will be given for any sum above fifty shillings, if under that sum, the cash must be paid on delivery of the goods. Further terms will be made known on the day of sale.

February 20, 1785.

YOUNG GRANBY,

An elegant thorough bred HORSE, WILL cover this season, at the subscriber's, near the Queen-tree, in Saint Mary's county, at the low rate of eight dollars a mare, and five shillings to the groom.

Young Granby is a beautiful bay, fifteen hands and an inch high, rising nine years old, and very active. He was got by Old Granby, his dam by Old Britain, out of the noted mare Dido, imported by Mr. Delancy, of New-York. The character of Young Granby's sire and grand-dam is so well known and established, that further particulars of his pedigree must be needless.

Good pasturage will be provided at three shillings per week, and particular taken care of the mares, but I will not be answerable for escapes.

6w NAT. EWING.

Maryland, St. Mary's county, February 20, 1785.

RAN away, on the first instant, from the subscriber, living near the Queen-tree, in St. Mary's county, a dark mulatto man named NACE, who calls himself Nace Butler, about twenty-two years old, combs his hair back, which is pretty long for one of his complexion, he is about five feet eight inches high, has a large scar over his right eye; hid on when he went away, a coat of red halfstitch, negro cotton breeches, gray yarn stockings; he carried with him a silk jacket which he stole, and altogether have changed his dress, as he is an artful designing rogue; he lately petitioned the general court for his freedom, which petition still remains undetermined. His father lives with Mrs. Bradford, at Bladensburg, where he has been since he ran away; he went last October to Annapolis, where he passed for a free man, and hired himself as a cook for some time. Whoever apprehends the said fellow, and delivers him to me, shall receive three pounds current money, besides what the law allows; he has a brother in Montgomery county who belongs to a Mr. Knott, where he may be probably harboured.

3w NAT. EWING.

All persons are forbid harbouring or dealing with him at their peril.

Intendant's office, February 23, 1785.

To be contracted for,

THE carpenters work of a new roof and cover to the governor's house, and also for the necessary repairs to be made to the dome and roof of the said house, both to be executed under the direction of Mr. Joseph Clark, architect; the designs with the necessary particulars, may be seen with the said Clark, or the intendant, from the 25th of March next to the 25th of April following, on which day proposals will be received, by

DAN. OF ST. THO. JENIFER, intendant.

TAKEN up as a stray, by George Simmerman, living in Frederick county, near James Johnson's furnace, a gray MARE, about four years old, and about thirteen hands high, appears to have a brand on the near shoulder thus N. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

2

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, February 22, 1785.

THE general assembly having, at their last session, required every purchaser of confiscated British property, for which bonds have not been taken, to give bond before the first day of April next, with such security as the commissioners, under the direction of the intendant, shall require, for the payment of the money with interest agreeably to the contract, payable on the first day of January 1790, with interest annually, to commence from the first day of September last; Notice is hereby given, that constant attendance is given by the commissioners at their office in Annapolis, for the purpose of taking bonds in the manner directed; and that they will attend for the purpose aforesaid, at Mr. M<sup>c</sup>Candle's in Baltimore town, on the 22d, 23d, and 24th days of March next.

Suits are directed to be commenced against every person who shall not give bond on or before the first day of April, and payment enforced by the mode directed by the ninth clause of the act of April session 1782, entitled, An act respecting claims to confiscated British property, and to direct the commissioners in certain cases.

2 CLEMENT HOLLYDAY,
GABRIEL DUVAL.

40 DOLLARS REWARD.

Montgomery county, February 20, 1785.

RAN away from the subscriber, in January, 1784, a negro man named CÆSAR, about 45 years of age, is a stout well made, black fellow, his lips large and pouting, and talks loud and quick when out of temper; he was formerly the property of Allen Quynn, E. q; and raised by Mr. Lewis Lewis, in Anne Arundel county. I am informed he was hid at Mr. John Thomas's quarter on West river, in May last, where he passed for a free man. Ten pounds with all reasonable charges shall be paid to any person who apprehends and delivers him to the subscriber, in Montgomery county, or secures him so that I get him again.

A negro man named TOBY ran away in April, 1784, is a likely well made young fellow (swift of foot) about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, was formerly the property of Mrs. Crabb, near Queen-Anne, and is supposed to be in that neighbourhood at this time. Five pounds shall be paid to any person who will apprehend or secure him so that I get him again.

2 JEREMIAH CRABB.

February 22, 1785.

THIS is to inform the acting attorney for Mrs. Anne Pemberton, administratrix of Mr. Joseph Pemberton, deceased, that I, Nicholas Leeke, have been in the city of Annapolis for the three months last past, and shall continue there some time longer, and may be found at the house of colonel Lloyd in the aforesaid city.

It has been pretended that the money due to me was always ready for me to receive; why am I not paid? the money has been due two years and a half, and never any offered to me but once, and that by way of composition to induce me to pay the costs; yet by such pretence (I being absent in Talbot county) the arbitrators did not allow me interest on my account.

2 NICHOLAS LEEKE.

Prince-George's county, February 17, 1785.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of Jeremiah Belt, late of this county, deceased, are desired to bring them in legally proved as they may be settled, and all those indebted unto the same are earnestly requested to make immediate payment, unto

2 MARY BELT, executrix,
THOMAS BELT, executor.

Montgomery county, February 15, 1785.

WAS committed to my custody on the 15th of July last, a certain THOMAS DULANY, for dealing with a servant belonging to Mr. Robert White, of George town, but confessed himself a servant belonging to Morris Morrison, of Philadelphia; he is an Irishman born, about 5 feet 8 inches high, middling likely, says he is a stocking weaver by trade, and was free in January last. His matter, if any, is desired to pay charges and take him away.

JOHN H. NICHOLLS, sheriff.

P. S. The above mentioned person since committed says his name is Thomas Heron.

RICHARD B. HALL.

London, February 26, 1784.

Esteemed friend,

WE have procured you a horse of the first running blood, as you desired, and got by the celebrated Eclipse. Enclosed is his pedigree, attested by Mr. Tatterfall, whose veracity may be depended on, and who is allowed to have the most extensive knowledge of the turf of any man in this country.

Oxley and Hancock.

Richard B. Hall.

THIS is to certify, that the chestnut horse I sold Mr. Oxley was bred by the late Sir John Seeley, bart and was got by Eclipse, out of Phoebe, full sister to Apollo. Phoebe was got by Regulus, her dam by Cottingham, grand dam by Snake, great grand-dam by the Bald Galloway, great great-grand-dam by lord Carlisle's Turk. Cottingham was got by Mr. Hartley's blind horse. This horse was five years old last grass. Witness my hand this 16th of February 1784.

RICHARD TATTERFALL.

N. B. The horse won several plates and matches, &c. &c.
