

To the PUBLIC.

THOMAS STANE takes this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he is possessed of an infallible cure for the most inveterate and obstinate cancers. Any person afflicted with that dreadful disorder, may apply to said Thomas Stane, at his dwelling house, in Walnut-street, near Fifth-street, in Philadelphia, or send a letter directed as above, and he will wait on them, at any distance, and shall not ask for any money, but for his expences of travelling, until the patients are entirely cured.
N. B. Those who are not able to pay will be attended gratis.

Cecil county, February 21, 1785.

DO hereby give notice to the creditors of William Bateman, that I will attend at the court-house in Charles-town, on the 21st day of March next, to make distribution of the money in my hands for his property sold by me.
1076 RICHARD BOND, sheriff of Cecil county.

Talbot county, March 1, 1785.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers intend to apply to the next general assembly, to sell in them a good and sufficient title in fee simple, in part of a certain tract of land in Caroline county, called Old Field's Inclosure, agreeable to a purchase hereof made by a certain John Price of Joseph Gill.

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

Montgomery county, February 20, 1785.

RAN away from the subscriber, in January, 1784, a negro man named CESAR, about 45 years of age, is a stout well made, black fellow, his lips large and pouting, and talks loud and quick when out of temper; he was formerly the property of Allen Quynn, Esq; and raised by Mr. Lewis Lewin, in Anne-Arundel county. I am informed he was hired at Mr. John Thomas's quarter on West-river, in May last, where he passed for a free man. Ten pounds with all reasonable charges shall be paid to any person who apprehends and delivers him to the subscriber, in Montgomery county, or secures him so that I get him again.

A negro man named TOBY ran away in April, 1784, is a likely well made young fellow (swift of foot) about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, was formerly the property of Mrs. Crabb, near Queen-Anne, and is supposed to be in that neighbourhood at this time. Five pounds shall be paid to any person who will apprehend or secure him so that I get him again.
3 JEREMIAH CRABB.

THERE is at the plantation of William Jenkins, on Oxen-run, about five miles from Alexandria ferry, taken up as a stray, a light bay GELDING, about fourteen hands high, has a star on his forehead, and some white spots on each side of his head, the pole of his neck, and on each side of his back, appears to be old, not docked, nor has any perceivable brand. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

Annapolis, Intendant's-office, February 26, 1785.
To be SOLD, at Mr. M'Candle's tavern, in Baltimore-town, on Tuesday the third day of May next, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, in tenths:

ONE fifth of the Baltimore iron works, consisting of a furnace and two forges, with upwards of 28,000 acres of land, more than two hundred negroes, and also stock of every kind. Between 7 and 8000 of the above land, almost adjoining Baltimore-town, is now laying off in lots, and will be sold some time in the same month by the company, by which the purchasers of these two tenths will be greatly benefited. Bonds, with approved security, will be required, payable the first day of January 1790, with lawful interest to be paid annually, in current money, depreciation, or any other liquidated certificates of this state for specie. If the last bidder is not ready with his securities to enter into bond, the next bidder to him will be considered as the purchaser. Inventories will be produced on the day of sale.
2 DAN. of ST. THO. JENIFER, Intendant of the revenue.

To be SOLD at PUBLIC VENDUE, on Wednesday the 30th of March instant, if fair, if not the next fair day, at the house of John Givers, on the north side of Severn, about one mile from the ferry.

A PARCEL of valuable horses, cattle, and household furniture; also plantation utensils; among which are, a well fixed horse cart, and some good ploughs, with sundry other articles. Six months credit will be given for any sum above fifty shillings, if under that sum, the cash must be paid on delivery of the goods. Further terms will be made known on the day of sale.

YOUNG GRANBY,

An elegant thorough bred HORSE. WILL cover this season, at the subscriber's, near the Queen-tree, in Saint Mary's county, at the low rate of eight dollars a mare, and five shillings to the groom.

Young Granby is a beautiful bay, fifteen hands and an inch high, rising nine years old, and very active. He was got by Old Granby, his dam by Old Britain, out of the noted mare Dido, imported by Mr. Deiancy, of New-York. The character of Young Granby's sire and grand-dam is so well known and established, that further particulars of his pedigree must be needless.

Good pasturage will be provided at three shillings per week, and particular taken care of the mares, but I will not be answerable for escapes.
6 w 2 NAT. EWING.

Maryland, St. Mary's county, February 20, 1785.

RAN away, on the first instant, from the subscriber, living near the Queen-tree, in St. Mary's county, a dark mulatto man named NACE, who calls himself Nace Butler, a out twenty-two years old, combs his hair back, which is pretty long for one of his complexion, he is about five feet eight inches high, has a large forehead, his right eye is hid on when he went away, a coat of red halfstitch, negro cotton breeches, gray yarn stockings; he carried with him a silk jacket which he stole, and made altogether have changed his dress, as he is an artful designing rogue; he lately petitioned the general court for his freedom, which petition still remains undetermined. His father lives with Mrs. Bradford, at Bladensburg, where he has been since he ran away; he went last October to Annapolis, where he passed for a free man, and hired himself as such for some time. Whoever apprehend he said fellow, and delivers him to me, shall receive three pounds current money, besides what the law allows; he has a brother in Montgomery county who belongs to a Mr. Knott, where he may be probably harboured.
2 NAT. EWING.

All persons are forbid harbouring or dealing with him at their peril.
