FOUND near Mr. Lewis Stocker's, between Rawlings's tavern and South river church, a man's SADDLE almost new. The owner may have it again by applying to the said Lewis Stocker's, on proving his property and paying charges.
1007/6

February 22, 1785.
THIS is to inform the acting attorney for Mrs. Anne Pemberton, administratrix of Mr. Joseph Pemberton, deceased, that I, Nicholas Loeke, have been in the city of Annapolis for the three months last past, and shall continue there some time longer, and may be found at the house of Colonel Lloyd in the aforesaid city.

It has been pretended that the money due to me was always ready for me to receive; why am I not paid? The money has been due two years and a half, and never any offered to me but once, and that by way of composition to induce me to pay the costs; but by such pretence (I being absent in Talbot county) the arbitrators did not allow me interest on my account.
3X NICHOLAS BEEKE.

January 28, 1785.
ECLIPSE,
 Imported last summer,

STANDS this season at Collington Meadows, in Prince-George's county, and will begin to cover on the 20th day of March next, at six guineas a year, and one dollar to the groom; his colour is a chestnut with a small blaze, and one white hind foot, full fifteen hands and a half high, great bone, and very handsome. Good pasturage for mares at 40 per week, but will not be answerable for escapes or other accidents. The money to be sent with the mare.
RICHARD B. HALL.

London, February 26, 1784.
 Esteemed friend,
 WE have procured you a horse of the first running blood, as you desired, and got by the celebrated Eclipse. Enclosed is his pedigree, attested by Mr. Tattersall, whose veracity may be depended on, and who is allowed to have the most extensive knowledge of the turf of any man in this country.
OXLEY and HANCOCK.
 Richard B. Hall.

THIS is to certify, that the chestnut horse I sold Mr. Oxley was bred by the late Sir John Shelley, and was got by Eclipse, out of Phoebe, full sister to Apollo. Phoebe was got by Regulus, her dam by Cottingham, grand-dam by Snake, great-grand-dam by the Bald Galloway, great great-grand-dam by Carlisle's Turk. Cottingham was got by Mr. Hatley's blind horse. This horse was five years old at grass. Witness my hand this 16th of February 1784.
4X RICHARD TATTERSALL.
 N. B. The horse won several plates and matches, &c. &c.

Montgomery county, February 15, 1785.
WAS committed to my custody on the 15th of July last, a certain THOMAS DULANT, for dealing with a servant belonging to Mr. Robert White, of George town, but confessed himself a servant belonging to Morris Morrison, of Philadelphia; he is an Irishman born, about 5 feet 8 inches high, middling likely, says he is a stocking weaver by trade, and was free 4th January last. His master, if any, is desired to pay charges and take him away.
JOHN H. NICHOLLS, sheriff.
 P. S. The above mentioned person since committed says his name is Thomas Heron. 3X

Intendant's office, February 11, 1785.

TO BE SOLD, on Tuesday the 10th day of May next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

THE houses and lot belonging to the late James Dick; in Annapolis, where James Dick and Stewart formerly kept store. The day following will be exposed to sale, at Newington rope walk, within one mile of Annapolis, about sixty acres of land, laid out in acre lots; likewise the houses and utensils belonging to the said rope walk. Terms will be made known on the day of sale, or by applying to the subscribers,
MARY McCULLOCH, CHARLES STEUART, JAMES McCULLOCH, executors of James Dick. 2

To the PUBLIC.

THOMAS STANE takes this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he is possessed of an infallible cure for the most inveterate and obstinate cancers. Any person afflicted with that dreadful disorder, may apply to said Thomas Stane, at his dwelling house, in Walnut-street, near Fifth-street, in Philadelphia, or send a line directed as above, and he will wait on them, at any distance, and shall not ask for any money, but for his expences of travelling, until the patients are entirely cured.
 N. B. Those who are not able to pay will be attended gratis. 2

Cecil county, February 21, 1785.
I DO hereby give notice to the creditors of William Bateman, that I will attend at the courthouse in Charles-town, on the 21st day of March next, to make distribution of the money in my hands for his property sold by me.
2X RICHARD BOND, sheriff of Cecil county.

WHEREAS Joshua Lee, late of Queen-Anne's county, did, in his late time, on the 27th day of December 1784, sign and seal an instrument of writing, which he published and declared to be his last will and testament; and whereas the same instrument of writing was subscribed by two witnesses only, by reason whereof the same is by law insufficient to pass the real estate therein intended to be devised; Notice is therefore hereby given, that I intend to prefer a petition to the next general assembly of this state, praying an act to pass, whereby the instrument of writing aforesaid, may be declared and confirmed to be the last will and testament of the aforesaid Joshua Lee, and good and sufficient for the purpose aforesaid.
2 RACHEL LEE.

March 9, 1785.
RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, near the Head of South river, on the 28th of February last, a short well-set negro fellow named PETER, twenty-two years old, about five feet three or four inches high, has a very flat face and nose, and remarkable short fingers; his clothing is unknown. Whoever takes up the said negro and brings him to the subscriber, shall receive eight dollars, paid by
2 EDWARD EDWARDS.

Maryland, St. Mary's county, February 20, 1785.
RAN away, on the first instant, from the subscriber, living near the Queen-tree, in St. Mary's county, a dark mulatto man named NACE, who calls himself Nace Butler, a stout twenty-two years old, combs his hair back, which is pretty long for one of his complexion, he is about five feet eight inches high, has a large scar over his right eye; had on when he went away, a coat of red halfstitch, negro cotton breeches, gray yarn stockings; and carried with him a silk jacket which he stole, and may altogether have changed his dress, as he is an artful designing rogue; he lately petitioned the general court for his freedom, which petition still remains undetermined. His father lives with Mrs. Bradford, at Bladensburg, where he has been since he ran away; he went last October to Annapolis, where he passed for a free man, and hired himself as such for some time. Whoever apprehends he said fellow, and delivers him to me, shall receive three pounds current money, besides what the law allows; he has a brother in Montgomery county who belongs to a Mr. Knott, where he may be probably harboured.
