APPPLICATION will be made to the next general assembly of this state, to appoint commissioners to make a correct survey of the town of Upper Marlborough, in Prince-George's county, in order to ascertain and establish the boundaries thereof. J. A. M.

THERE is at the plantation of Thomas Willcox, near the Eastern Branch, taken up as a stray, an iron gray GELDING, not docked nor branded, about thirteen hands high, dark gray mane, tail, and legs, mane hanging on the near side, and has several black spots on different parts of his body. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges. 10/3/76

TAKEN up as a stray, by Richard Ticcings, near Mount Pleasant ferry, a small dun HORSE, about twelve hands and a half high, has no perceivable brand, between eight and ten years of age, has been lately trimmed, and has a standing mane, black head, a small star in his forehead, and is very poor. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges. 10/3/76

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Annapolis, on the 20th of June 1784, a mulatto man named PETER, forty years of age, five feet four inches high, he has a sneaking down look, is a dark skinned mulatto, has big eyes, and has lost almost all his teeth; had on when he went away, a black and white country cloth jacket, and white country cloth breeches, osabrig shirt, an under jacket without sleeves of a dark colour. Whoever takes up the said mulatto man, and secures him so that his master may get him again, shall receive if taken six miles from home eight dollars, if twenty miles five pounds, if forty miles or further ten pounds, paid by BALDWIN LUSBY.

N. B. He has been harboured in the neighbourhood all the summer, and it is supposed that he has been harboured by Mrs. Dulany's negro Jack, who probably has contrived him away from Annapolis by water. 3X

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.
Annapolis, December 23, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber, some time in the month of September last, a negro woman named LUCY, formerly the property of Benedict Calvert, Esq; of Prince-George's county; is about five feet four inches high, and has lost one eye; her wearing apparel is unknown. Whoever secures her so that her master may get her again, shall receive thirty shillings if taken up ten miles from home, if twenty miles fifty shillings and if out of the state the above reward, including what the law allows, and reasonable charges if brought home, paid by ARCHIBALD GOLDR.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of William Steuart, are requested to bring them in that they may be adjusted, and those who are indebted to the said estate are requested to make payment, to CHARLES STEUART, administrator.

March 15, 1785.
To be SOLD, for ready cash, on Monday the 4th of April next, at the house of Robert Johnson, deceased, near Thomas's-point, and about four miles from the city of Annapolis,

THE personal property of the said Robert Johnson, consisting of some valuable negroes, stock of various kinds, household furniture, and plantation tools, &c. VACHEL JOHNSON, executor.

Intendant's office, February 11, 1785.
To be SOLD at PUBLIC VENDUE, on Monday the 4th of April, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter, at Vienna, in Dorchester county, for current money, or specie certificates liquidated and issued by the treasurer, or by the commissioners appointed to settle the depreciation and pay of the Maryland line to the first of August, 1780,

ALL that tract of land in Dorchester county commonly called the Indian Lands, lying upon Nanticoke river, containing upwards of six thousand acres, laid off in convenient lots for the purchasers. Bonds to be given with security, payable the first day of January 1789, with legal interest thereon, to be paid annually.

At the same time and place will be sold some reserved lands adjoining Nanticoke manor. Also two small tracts of land, containing one hundred and forty acres, late the property of Anthony Stewart; three ditto, containing two hundred and sixty-nine acres, of Charles Blair; two ditto, James Filthwick, twenty-four acres.

And on Thursday the seventh of April will be sold at public vendue, at Salisbury, on the terms aforesaid, the real and personal confiscated property of Hugh Dean, Charles Hale, Serge, French and Co. Isaac Coffin, John H. Coffey, John Malone, Mary Caldwell, Isaac Atkinson, John Sterling, John Harris, Major White, Joshua Dickson, William Smith, Sarah Coffin, John Bonlet, Obadiah Read, Caleb Jones, William Atkinson, James Otley, Jamison Wheatly, all of Somerset and Worcester counties. Likewise will be sold, part of Wicomico and Kent manors, with some reserved lands adjoining. DAN. or Sr. THO. JENIFER, Intendant of the revenue.

George-town, Patowmack river, March 7, 1785.
Will be SOLD to the highest bidder, on the 30th day of April next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

SEVERAL valuable lots in this town, on one of which is a very commodious house, calculated for a store, and the reception of a small family. The terms of payment will be made known on the day of sale.

2 BERNARD O'NEILL, WILLIAM DEAKINS, jun.

George-town, Patowmack river, March 8, 1785.
Will be SOLD to the highest bidder, on the 20th day of April next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

A NUMBER of valuable lots in the late addition to this town, pleasantly situated, convenient to the river, and well worth the attention of new adventurers.

2 WILLIAM DEAKINS, jun.

Frederick county, March 12, 1785.
To be SOLD at PUBLIC VENDUE, on the premises, on Friday the 15th day of April next, at 12 o'clock, agreeable to contract between the subscriber and Elijah Beatty,

A VALUABLE tract of LAND, lying on Linganore creek, in the county aforesaid, about 5 miles from Frederick-town, 47 from Baltimore-town, and 40 from George-town, called the Refurvy on part of Middle Plantation, containing 800 acres; that excellent stream of water, the Linganore, runs through the land for a considerable distance, and affords an excellent mill seat or two. Some of the land is very well timbered, and plenty of excellent meadow may be made with little expense; there is a small mill erected on the land, on a part of the creek where a fall may be had sufficient for mills, and water plenty the year round for two or three water wheels; the upland is not quite so good as on Morocacy, but will produce good grain; it will be laid off in lots to suit the purchasers, from 50 to 200 acres; 200 acres will be laid off and sold with the mill; one fifth of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, the other four fifths to be paid in four yearly payments. The last payment to become due the 15th of April 1789; an indisputable title will be given for the land, by THOMAS BEATTY.

N. B. The subscriber has also for sale the following lands, which he will sell for current money, or specie certificates of this state, signed either by the state treasurer or auditor-general, viz: Eve of peace, 64 acres, on Bennet's creek; the Olive Branch, 48 acres, on the road from Frederick-town to Baltimore; and about 8 miles from the former; First and Second Neglect, 506 acres, lying near the Olive Branch. For further particulars inquire of my son Thomas Beatty, or the subscriber hereof. All those indebted to the estate of John Waters, son of John, late of Frederick county, deceased, are desired to settle the same speedily, either by cash, bond, or note, with approved security if required, or they may expect to be dealt with according to law; and those that have claims against said estate, are desired to bring them in speedily, that they may be adjusted by THOMAS BEATTY, administrator of said Waters.

Montgomery county, Maryland, March 2, 1785.
To be SOLD at PUBLIC VENDUE, at the subscriber's plantation, on the 30th instant,

A VALUABLE tract of LAND, on the head of Rock creek, within sixteen miles of George-town, containing 520 acres; about 150 of which are cleared; the improvements are, a dwelling house, negro quarter, and tobacco house, all in good repair; 40 bushels of grain are sown on the land; there is a good orchard, consisting of apple and other fruit-trees; there are about 6 or 8 acres in grass and 20 or 30 more may be made; its situation and water is equal to any in the state, and is adapted for tobacco, wheat, corn, rye, oats, &c. The terms are, one third of the purchase money to be paid in August next, and the remaining two thirds annually, with interest, and if the terms are not complied with, the purchaser shall be liable to be sued for the whole.

EDWARD O. WILLIAMS.
N. B. Another tract of land, containing 169 acres, and a valuable mill seat, will be sold on the same day, and on the above terms. E. O. W.

Montgomery, February 12, 1785.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend applying to the next general assembly, for a title to confirm my right to part of a tract of land called Beall's Good-will, containing 261 1/2 acres, the property of the late Henry Hunter, deceased, who devised it to public sale, which was completed with, but the executor's decess before the execution of a deed makes this step necessary to be taken, by THOMAS MORTON.

TAKEN up as a stray, by Lancelot Dorsey, in Anne-Arundel county, a black MARE, about seven years of age, fourteen hands high, paces, trots, and canters, her hind feet white above her footlocks, a small white spot above her nostril, a snip on her nose, has a brand, but not distinguishable. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges. 2

To be SOLD, on Tuesday the 10th day of May next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

THE houses and lot belonging to the late James Dick, in Annapolis, where James Dick and Stewart formerly kept store. The day following will be expired to sale, at Newington road walk, within one mile of Annapolis, about sixty acres of land, laid out in acre lots; likewise the houses and tenails belonging to the said rope walk. Terms will be made known on the day of sale, or by applying to the subscribers,

MARY M'CU LOCH, CHARLES S' EUART, JAMES M'CU LLOCH, executors of James Dick.

To the PUBLIC.

THOMAS STANE takes this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he is possessed of an infallible cure for the most inveterate and obstinate cancers. Any person afflicted with that dreadful disorder, may apply to said Thomas Stane, at his dwelling house, in Walnut-street, near fifth-street, in Philadelphia, or send a line directed as above, and he will wait on them, at any distance, and shall not ask for any money, but for his expenses of travelling, until the patients are entirely cured.

N. B. Those who are not able to pay will be attended gratis. 3X

WHEREAS Joshua Lee, late of Queen-Anne's county, did, in his life time, on the 27th day of December 1784, sign and seal an instrument of writing, which he published and declared to be his last will and testament; and whereas the same instrument of writing was subscribed by two witnesses on y, by reason whereof the same is by law insufficient to pass the real estate therein intended to be devised: Notice is therefore hereby given, that I intend to prefer a petition to the next general assembly of this state, praying an act to pass whereby the instrument of writing aforesaid, may be declared and confirmed to be the last will and testament of the aforesaid Joshua Lee, and good and sufficient for the purpose aforesaid. 3

RACHEL LEE.

March 9, 1785.
RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, near the Head of South river, on the 28th of February last, a short well-set negro fellow named PETER, twenty-two years old, about five feet three or four inches high, has a very flat face and nose, and remarkable short fingers; his coating is unknown. Whoever takes up the said negro and brings him to the subscriber, shall receive eight dollars, paid by EDWARD EDWARDS.

February 28, 1785.
TO BE SOLD, A NEAT CHARIOT, with harness complete for two horses. Enquire of the printers hereto. 3

ALL persons indebted to the estate of capt. in John Kilty, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are desired to make speedy payment, and those who have claims against the said estate, are desired to produce them legally proved, to JOHN KELLY, administrator.

Well-river, March 13, 1785.
