WHEREAS, on the 19th day of February 1784, in consequence of a contract with certain William Smallwood Wynn, of Prince George's county, for a parcel of land devised him by his father John Wynn, deceased, I passed a bond to the said Wynn, for the payment of such certain sum of money, on or before the 1st day of January 1786, as the land, when truly and justly laid off, would amount to agreeable to the price per acre on the day of sale thereof; having now just reason to think the land subject to encumbrances will prevent my being secured in the title thereof, I hereby caution all persons against taking any assignment of my bond aforesaid, as justice to me and family requires a good title being made up of the land, before the payment of the above bond.
