Auditor's Office, May 28, 1785.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

The printer to the state, takes notice to inform all persons who wish to have a copy of the laws of Maryland, from Bacon's abridgement up to the end of the last session of assembly, with the resolutions of the several conventions, the proceedings of the convention that framed the constitution, the declaration of rights and form of government, and the articles of confederation, that, by order of the general assembly, he shall begin that work in a few months, under the direction of Alexander C. Hanson and Samuel Chase, Esqrs; and as he intends to strike out a few copies more than what are ordered for the public use, or engaged by individuals, has sent subscription papers to the clerks of the several counties, and a number of other gentlemen in each county, for the purpose of collecting the names of those persons desirous of having a copy of this useful and necessary work, which will be printed with a new letter, on a good paper, of the same size, and nearly on the same plan, with Bacon's, to be delivered (at a particular price in each county) bound in leather, at three shillings each copy. Having requested a return of the subscriptions by the middle of August, he hopes those who intend to subscribe will do it before that time, or they will lose the opportunity of purchasing so valuable a book.

FREDERICK GREEN.

Annapolis, May, 1785.

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, May 22, 1785.

On Monday the 25th of July next, Nanticoke Manor, in Dorchester county, will be disposed of at public sale, for current money, or any specie certificates issued by this date, payable the first day of January 1790, with interest annually. Bond with two approved securities to be given.

This Manor contains several thousands of acres, and will be sold in convenient lots for farming. It includes the town of Vienna, which will be laid off anew, and sold in single lots.

CLEMENT HOLLYDAY, GABRIEL DUVALL.

WHEREAS, the said Charles Beatty and George Hawkins did, in the years 1769 and 1770, by way of lottery, dispose of 300 tickets, which is the said lottery, which tickets were drawn on or about the first day of February 1770, and the said Hawkins has since conveyed all the right and title of the said lottery to the said Beatty, and said Beatty has been and is assisted with all the laws in said addition, which did not appear to be legally conveyed; notice is hereby given to the possessors of the tickets where no legal conveyances have been given, to apply for their deeds, and pay the assessments and annual rents within six months from the date hereof, otherwise application will be made by the said Beatty to have the said lot sold at public sale, in order to pay the assessments and rents.

CHARLES BEATTY.

To be RENTED, and entered on the first day of August next,

The store rooms, cellar, and counting room, now in the possession of Colonel John H. Stone. The conveniences of the store rooms, cellar, and counting room are such, as are well known to be of particular description, being in Port Tobacco, and in a most convenient situation for any merchant who proposes to carry on the purchase of tobacco, or any other produce of this part of Maryland. For terms apply to the subscriber in Port Tobacco.

WILLIAM LAYMAN.

The subscriber being empowered to collect and receive the debts of Messieurs Gate, Fearon, and Co. of London, due them in the State of Maryland, requests all persons indebted to make immediate payment, to enable him to satisfy the claims against those gentlemen in this State. Constant attendance is given at his store, in Upper Marlborough, for that purpose.

JOHN READ MAGRUDER.

A few Copies of CHAMPION ON COMMERCE, To be sold at the Printing-Office.

Montgomery county, May 27, 1785. RAN away from the subscriber, on Wednesday the 15th instant, a negro man named CESAR, he is about well made black fellow, aged about 25 years, his lips large and pointing, talks quick and loud, and out of temper; his apparel chiefly consisted of a new country cloth when he went away; he was dressed in a len Quynn, Esq; his had several scars in the forehead of Lewin's estate; he ran away about 15 months ago, was taken up at Mr. Refin Hammond's quarters on the Head of Severn, where he had been lived a considerable time as a free man, and was brought back about 10 days since; he probably will change his name and pass for a free man again. Whoever apprehends the said negro, and secures him so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.

J. CRABBE.
