A TRACT of land in Montgomery county, fortable and comfortable dwelling house 38 by 28, other tract, about half a mile from the former, on which are a good dwelling house with stone chimney, and all necessary out-houses; there is a great variety of fruit trees of all kinds on both these tracts; the soil is well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat, and tobacco, and as it is so variety of fruits; it is the present residence of the subscriber, and is generally esteemed for the convenience of its situation and fertility of soil; we ere-fore a further description is deemed unnecessary, as it is supposed those who are inclined to purchase will view the premises shortly; attendance will be given on the days appointed, and the terms of sale then fully made known, by
