B. BURCH.

THE purchasers of lands from the commissioners appointed by the late Lord Baltimore, who have not obtained patents, are hereby informed, that in pursuance of an act of assembly, grants will issue, on the parties paying their respective balances agreeably to the terms of sale, to the treasurer of the western shore, with whom their accounts are lodged for that purpose.
Annapolis, January 17, 1785.

AS the time for which the subscribers entered into a partnership will expire next spring, they earnestly request all persons indebted to them in any manner to make speedy payment, at farthest by the first of March next, to enable them to settle the books and business of the concern; those who do not comply with this request may expect suits to be commenced against them at the ensuing court to obtain payment. And all persons having just claims against the said partnership, are desired to bring them in and have them discharged.
WILLIAMS and NETH.

AGREEABLY to a resolve of the general assembly, Messieurs Richard Tighman Earle, Richard Tighman, of Richard, William Hopper, and Charles Price intend to petition the next general assembly in behalf of themselves, and the heirs and assigns of Mr. Thomas Wright and Mr. Jacob Seth, deceased, who were formerly vestrymen in the parish of St. Paul's, lying partly in Queen Anne's, and partly in Talbot county, for redress, they having made themselves accountable for monies which they borrowed to cover in and secure the walls of a new church, which was directed to be built in said parish, where old Chester church formerly stood, and to carry on the said building, the sums levied for that purpose being insufficient, whereby they are likely to be great sufferers, of which all persons concerned are desired to take notice.

RICHARD WATKINS,
ANNE WATKINS.

THE visitors of Eden school, Somerset county, in the state of Maryland, having appointed the rev. William Smith, A. M. rector of Stepney parish, to be president of said school, hereby acquaint the public, that Mr. Smith opened the several classes for tuition of young gentlemen on the first day of January, and proposes to teach those committed to his care, the following branches of useful science, viz. Languages—Latin and Greek; occasional lessons in English prose. Writing copy and running hands—arithmetic, common, vulgar, and decimal, &c.—algebra—geometry—Euclid's elements; practical geometry, &c. geography with the use of globes—trigonometry, plane and spherical. Navigation—conic sections—astronomy—drawing—book-keeping—
N. B. If, in behalf of a competent number of students, it were required, Mr. Smith will give lectures on natural philosophy, natural history, and ethics or moral philosophy. The strictest attention will be paid to the morals of the youth under Mr. Smith's care, as principally for the benefit of such, he proposes giving stated lectures on moral and religious subjects, in a style adapted to their capacity, and with a view to lead them from admiring the beauties of classical learning, to see the superior excellence of the sacred writers; select parts of which they will read on appointed days in the Latin, Greek, and English languages, for the sake of comparing analogy of languages.
