A GOOD PRESSMAN
 Wanted by the Printers hereof.

Annapolis, June 27, 1786.
THE partnership of WILLIAMS and NETH having dissolved on the 12th instant, all persons in any manner indebted thereto are desired to make payment to Joseph Williams, who is properly authorized to receive the same, and who will settle and pay all just claims against the said partnership.
 2 JOSEPH WILLIAMS,
 LEWIS NETH.

Annapolis, June 27, 1786.
I EXPECT soon to leave this state; persons having claims against me are requested to be speedy in applying for payment.
 2 LEWIS NETH.

June 20, 1786.
ON the 17th instant, was committed to my custody as a runaway, a small negro man by the name of CESAR, he says he is the property of Mr. Lloyd Dorsey, of Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, should it be the case Mr. Dorsey is desired to pay charges and take him away.
 2 NICHOLAS BLACKLOCK, sheriff of Prince-George's county.

FOUR DOLLARS REWARD.
RAN away from the subscriber, at Annapolis, an Irish indentured servant woman named ELIZABETH ROBINSON, about twenty-four years old, rather fat, fair complexion, has light brown hair, part of which she wears down over her forehead, the rest turned back, has rather a plaintive tone of voice, and is possessed of a great deal of artifice; as I have been robbed of several articles I cannot particularize what different cloaths she took with her. Whoever secures said person, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, with reasonable charges, if taken in this state, and ten dollars if taken in any other state and brought to me, with reasonable charges, paid by 2 R. HIGINBOTHOM.

MR. HIGINBOTHOM informs the inhabitants of Annapolis that he has received a number of the new prayer books from Philadelphia, to be disposed of at one dollar each.

 2 WILLIAM BROGDEN.

Talbot, June 12, 1786.
TO BE LEASED,
 For a term of years,

THAT valuable plantation commonly known by the name of Greenbury's-point, containing near five hundred acres, now in possession of major Wright, with ten working hands, stock of all kinds, plantations utensils, provisions and cloathing for one year laid in; there is a large and commodious brick dwelling house, with every other necessary building (even a chapel) on the premises; the fertility of the soil, pleasant situation, advantage of fish of all sorts, wild fowl, and oysters in great abundance in their different seasons, and its being so convenient to the city of Annapolis, where there is perhaps the best market for the seller on the continent, are things worthy of notice. Any person inclinable to lease may apply to Mr. Thomas Hyde, in Annapolis, who is empowered to treat for the same, or to the subscriber, but to save any unnecessary applications, no person need apply who cannot find undoubted security if required.
 2 DAVID KERR.

To the PRINTERS.
WHEREAS a certificate, signed by Mr. Richard Thomas, of Montgomery county, and dated March 20, 1786, was published in a late Maryland Gazette, in contradiction to a report which said Thomas was informed had been circulated in some parts of Anne-Arundel and Calvert counties, relative to the conduct of a certain metempsychical saint, commonly called Ignatius Pigman, I shall be obliged to you to publish the following certificate, which I trust will be sufficient to prove what Mr. Thomas did say concerning the above-mentioned saint, and which was repeated by the subscriber, who is, and ever has been of opinion, that of all the beasts that infect the forest wolves in sheeps cloathing are the worst.
 BENJAMIN GALLOWAY.
 Anne-Arundel county, June 21, 1786.

Kent-Island, June 3, 1786.
BEING requested by Mr. B. Galloway to recollect a piece of information relative to a certain Ignatius Pigman, which was communicated in my presence to said Galloway by Mr. Richard Thomas, of Montgomery county, I do hereby certify, that said Thomas informed said Galloway that the above named Ignatius Pigman, in running the lines of some land adjoining a tract the property of said Thomas, had taken a very erroneous sight, in order to include a small house which stood upon said tract, that some of the neighbours who were present had endeavoured to convince Mr. Pigman of his mistake, asserting the house to be the property of Mr. Thomas, but without effect, as he seemed determined to have the said house included within the lines of his land.
 2 PEREGRINE FITZHUGH.

SIXTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.
 June 9, 1786.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the fourth instant, a young negro man of a bright yellow, about twenty-three years of age, five feet six or seven inches high, has a round face, high forehead, bending nose, small eyes, a small mouth, and white teeth, on his left arm above his elbow there is a scar where he was gored by an ox when he was young, his feet turn out when he walks, he is a blacksmith by trade and his name is EVAN, but may change it, as he went away once before and went to Mrs. Ball's in Baltimore, and there passed for a free man by the name of John Rother; he is an artful villain; he took with him three coats, viz. one striped holland, one mixed with pearl buttons, one blue cloth, one spotted velvet jacket, one buff ditto, one pair of white damask breeches, one pair of black bombasin ditto, one white shirt, one osnabrig ditto, one pair of shoes and buckles, stockings, handkerchief, an old white hat with old hat put round it for a band; he is very complaisant. Any person that will secure the said negro in any gaol shall receive the above reward, paid by 5 HILLIARY WILSON.
 I do forewarn all persons from entertaining the said negro at their peril.

May 25, 1786.
STRAYED or stolen from the subscriber, on Friday night last, a bright bay MARE, near sixteen hands high, with a small snip on her nose, a hanging mane on her near side, part of which was cut some time ago and occasions its standing upright, a twitch tail, the paces, trots and gallops. Whoever brings the said mare to the subscriber shall have four dollars, if taken up at any distance from town shall have eight dollars reward, and reasonable charges, paid by 6 CHARLES STEUART.

THREE POUNDS REWARD.
 May 19, 1786.
RAN away from the subscriber, living near Piscataway, in Prince-George's county, on the fifth instant, a negro man named WILL, about five feet five or six inches high, twenty-two years of age, rather of the yellow cast, his face is pretty full of bumps, he has a small scar on his forehead; his apparel is a coarse felt hat, upper jacket made of match-coat blankets, an under ditto of white woollen, with metal buttons marked U S A, a pair of half worn osnabrig trousers, and old shoes. Whoever takes up the above negro and secures him so that his master may get him again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges if brought home, paid by 7 SAMUEL EDELEN.
 N. B. The above fellow has worked at the whip-law, and can play on the violin.

Annapolis, March 23, 1786.
IN consequence of an act passed at the last session of assembly, the commissioners appointed to build a new church in the city of Annapolis, call upon those persons who carried away the 372,400 paces, and 58,550 stock bricks, which they had in the year 1774 provided for that purpose, to render an account of the quantities they respectively took or caused to be taken away, and to pay for the same, otherwise a bill in chancery will be filed against them without delay. The commissioners request the favour of such citizens as know by whom any of the materials that were prepared for the church have been taken away, to inform them who the parties were, lest such persons should shamefully neglect to render an account.
 The commissioners will contract with any person or persons inclined to dig and remove the earth where the foundation is to be laid, and to lay the foundation of a new church this spring, the dimensions 127 feet by 63 feet, stone for the purpose being already at the place; they also wish to receive proposals from any person inclined to make and deliver the above-mentioned number of bricks in the course of the ensuing summer. Mr. Thomas Hyde, one of the commissioners, will receive any accounts that may be rendered, or any proposals that may be made in consequence of this notice.

Annapolis, March 20, 1786.
The last gentle hint.

WE have several times, by way of advertisement, called on all those indebted to us to appear and settle their accounts, and have threatened to bring actions against those who did not comply; we have hitherto held our hands, knowing the scarcity of money and the difficulty of the times, and trusting that our debtors would reflect and comply with our reasonable and very moderate requisitions; but we are now convinced that Job's stock of patience would not be sufficient to bear with the tardiness of the present day; we therefore now, for the last time, require all who owe us to come in and settle their accounts by bond or note, if they cannot make it convenient to give us cash, by or before the first day of June next. Those who do not regard this notice may be assured that suits will be commenced without ceremony.
 16 WALLACE, DAVIDSON, and JOHNSON.

Negroes for Sale.
 To be SOLD at PRIVATE SALE, and for cash only,
A NUMBER of very valuable negroes, among which are several women with one, two, and three children, several girls fit to wait on table, and one boy about sixteen years of age, together with a number of boys and girls that will soon be serviceable, and sold very reasonable for cash.
