To be LEASED, for the term of eight years, from the 30th of November next,

TWO houses, with a vacant lot of ground, situate in a very convenient part of the city, and fit for either a public or private family. Any person inclinable to lease, may apply to Mr. THOMAS WYNDHAM, constable of this city, who will treat with any person of character for the same.

Baltimore, August 3, 1786.

Was lost, or mislaid,

THE register books belonging to the vestry of St. Paul's Parish, in Baltimore county; they were carried to Annapolis to the general court, in the year 1781 or 1782, to be made use of as testimony in a trial then depending between James Morgan and Messieurs Hartley and Holtzimer, and supposed to be left in some of the offices at Annapolis, or in the possession of some of the gentlemen concerned in that suit; they are bound in parchment, about eighteen inches long, and seven or eight wide. Any person who will give the subscriber information where they may be had, will receive the thanks of the vestry, and be handsomely rewarded for any trouble they may be at in giving such information.

By order of the vestry,
JOHN E. GIST, register of St. Paul's parish.

September 7, 1786.

ALL persons indebted to Jonathan Parker, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims are desired to bring them in legally proved that they may be paid.

RACHEL PARKER.

To be sold, at public sale, on Monday the 11th instant, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for ready money, the effects of the said Jonathan Parker.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Saturday the 15th instant, a negro man named WILL, about twenty-five years old, four feet nine or ten inches high, he is well made for his height, is bow legged, and very hollow-backed, has a smiling countenance; had on when he went away, an osnabrig shirt and trousers, a blue and white mixed country cloth jacket, and a felt hat; he was taken up on Saturday last and made his escape, and was seen to pass through Bladensburg on Sunday as a free man. Whoever takes up said negro, and secures him so that the owner may get him again, shall receive six dollars reward, and if brought home eight dollars, besides what the law allows, and reasonable charges, paid by HENRY PLUMMER, near Mount-Pleasant ferry, in Anne-Arundel county.

Annapolis, August 9, 1786.

WHEREAS Mr. Thomas Rutland hath thought proper to publish an advertisement forewarning all persons indebted for dealings at either of his stores in Virginia or Maryland, from paying any money to Mr. John Petty, in behalf of the firm of Yates and Petty, and has assigned for the reason of such publication, that the said Petty had broken the award determined on by gentlemen mutually chosen to adjust their differences, I think it proper to inform the public, that the prohibition of Mr. Rutland is as unjust as his allegation in this respect is without foundation. The supposed breach of the arbitration arises in his opinion, as far as I can conjecture, on the suit commenced by Yates and Petty for the recovery of a very considerable balance due to them from Mr. Rutland, but a little reflection must convince him that his conduct in disposing of a considerable part of his estate, subsequent to the award, rendered this step absolutely necessary, and that Yates and Petty are fully justified in pursuing it, by the terms of the award made by the gentlemen appointed, of which all persons may be fully satisfied by applying at the store of Mr. Petty; in Annapolis. It is with concern that the subscriber finds himself under the necessity of entering into a public altercation respecting his private affairs, but should Mr. Rutland persist in his unjustifiable accusations, a full account of his transactions with and conduct towards Yates and Petty, will enable an impartial public to judge which of the parties has the greatest reason to complain of ill treatment.

The subscriber takes this opportunity of requesting all persons indebted for dealings at the stores (late Mr. Rutland's) in Virginia or Maryland, to make him immediate payment of their respective accounts, or he shall be under the necessity of making use of compulsory measures to recover the same, which will be very disagreeable to their

Most obedient humble servant,
JOHN PETTY.

August 17, 1786.

STRAYED or stolen from the subscriber, a bay S GELDING, about fourteen hands high, branded the near shoulder thus VI, has a dark mane and tail, carries his tail very close, and on the under part of his near hind foot is a small white spot; the said horse was taken from Prince-George's county courthouse in June last; he paces, trots, and gallops. Whoever takes up and secures him so that the owner may get him again shall receive three dollars, paid by the subscriber, living in Piscataway.

BUTLER EDELEN.

Bladensburg, Prince-George's county, August 19, 1786.

STOLEN from the subscriber the 24th of July last, a black HORSE, about 9 years old, 13 hands 2 or 3 inches high, has a star in his forehead, his mouth much cut with the plough bridle, so that when he eats corn it is apt to work out of the side of his jaws, he paces chiefly. Whoever takes up the said horse and thief, so that the thief be brought to justice, shall receive twelve dollars reward, and six dollars for the horse alone, paid by

GERARD BOARMAN.

August 15, 1786.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Benjamin Fendall, late of Charles county, deceased, are desired to make payment to the subscriber, and those who have claims against it are requested to bring them legally attested, to

MARY TRUMAN FENDALL, administratrix.

Charles county, August 13, 1786.
I HEREBY give notice to all whom it may concern, that I intend to prefer a petition to the next general assembly of the state of Maryland, praying that honourable body to pass an act to correct and alter a particular course of a tract of land, called Croftman's Entrance, lying and being in the county aforesaid, so as to include the land purchased by warrant of survey:

JACOB WARE.

August 31, 1786.

To be SOLD, on Wednesday the 30th of September, at PUBLIC SALE, if not sold before at private sale,

THAT valuable plantation called Miles's Chance, about a mile from Patuxent river, adjoining with Lyon's creek, and two and a half from Pig-point, containing three hundred and twenty-two, and a half acres, well improved, with three settlements on it, on one part a dwelling house 26 by 34 feet, two rooms on each floor, a brick chimney in the middle, with all other convenient houses, kitchen, quarter, stable, corn house, two tobacco houses 40 by 20, apple and peach orchards, and all other fruit trees; on another part a dwelling house 20 by 16, kitchen, corn house, tobacco house 40 by 20, a young apple orchard of good fruit; on the other part is a new dwelling house 18 by 16, with an outside brick chimney, a cellar the bigness of the house, kitchen, tobacco house 40 by 20, and on the said land are very valuable marshes; the hay that might be cut off yearly sufficient to support one hundred head of cattle; one hundred and fifty acres of this land is well timbered. Stock of all kinds to be sold on that day if the land is sold. A good crop now on the ground will be sold with the land, if suitable to the purchaser. Annapolis, August 16, 1786.

THE subscribers finding that no attention has hitherto been paid to their former advertisement, once more request that those indebted to them to dealings at their stores will come and settle their accounts immediately, which will prevent farther trouble. They have on hand a pretty good assortment of goods, suitable to the present and approaching seasons, which they will dispose of upon reasonable terms, by wholesale or retail, either for cash or good bills of exchange.

CHARLES and WILLIAM STEUART.

State of Maryland, August 12, 1786.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to petition the next general assembly of Maryland, praying a law may pass, authorising and empowering me to erect and rebuild my water mill, in Talbot county, and state aforesaid.

JOHN HARDCASTLE.

July 24, 1786.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a lusty, well set negro man, who says his name is WILLIS, and that he is a house carpenter, appears to be about thirty years of age, says he belongs to Jeremiah Brown, who lived in Harford county, North Carolina, but has removed into Mecklenburg county, in Virginia. His master is desired to come and take him away and pay charges.

DAVID STEUART, sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

July 26, 1786.

WHEREAS, on the 4th of February last, I assigned to Mr. John Petty, in behalf of the firm of Yates and Petty, of London, goods, debts, &c. to a very considerable amount, agreeable to an award determined on by gentlemen mutually chosen (under particular restrictions), but said Petty having broken the award, this is therefore to forewarn all persons whatsoever, indebted for dealings at either of my stores in Virginia or Maryland, from paying any money to said Petty, or his order, for goods bought previous to the 4th of February last, as his receipt shall not be a discharge for any of said debts.

The subscriber earnestly begs, that those gentlemen indebted as aforesaid, will make immediate payments to him, or to some person or persons by him legally authorized, to enable him to discharge all just claims against said stores.

THOMAS RUTLAND.

A Horse strayed or stolen.
