4 X BENJAMIN REEDER.

Chester-town Races.

THE JOCKEY CLUB purse of SIXTY GUINEAS will be run for over a course near Chester-town, on Wednesday the first day of November next; and on Thursday the second, the residue of the subscriptions will be run for, the winning horse the preceding day excepted; the weights carried at both races will be agreeable to the rules laid down by the Jockey Club at Annapolis; any member of the club may start a horse, mare, or gelding belonging to any other person, provided he pays no consideration for the loan thereof, and is solely to receive the benefit of the plate if he should win.

The subscribers are requested to pay in their subscriptions to the secretary (Thomas Worrell) on or before the first day's race; the riders all to be properly dressed. The members of the club are requested to meet at the house of Edward Worrell, in Chester-town, on the day preceding the race precisely at twelve o'clock.

N. B. The first day's race will be four mile heats, and the second two mile heats.

October 17, 1786.

To be SOLD at PUBLIC VENDUE, on the 10th day of November next,

A VALUABLE tract of land, containing 530 acres, lying on Rock Creek, in Montgomery county, near colonel Magruder's; there are about 100 acres cleared, on which is a small dwelling-house, one 40 feet tobacco house, a corn house, negro quarter, a good orchard, and about 8 or 10 acres of valuable meadow in grass, and there may be made 50 acres more with a small expence; the soil is equal to any in that settlement. The terms will be made known on the day of sale.

2 X THOMAS O. WILLIAMS.

October 7, 1786.

WANTED,

A PERSON well skilled in the business of an overseer, particularly in the management of tobacco, and would undertake to overlook three contiguous plantations, with between twenty and thirty working hands, will meet with good encouragement, on application to the subscriber, in George-town. One who understands something of keeping accounts would be preferred, and must come well recommended for his capacity to manage such an estate.

2 JOHN MURDOCK.

Caroline county, August 15, 1786.

PUBLIC notice is hereby given, that a petition will be preferred to the next general assembly, praying that an act may pass for the erecting the public buildings of said county at Choptank Bridge.

Port-Tobacco, September 16, 1786.

THIS is to give notice, that a petition will be presented to the next general assembly, that part of the main road which leads from Port-Tobacco to the old court-house, may be moved up a valley through the reverend Mr. Leonard Neale's plantation.

3

October 18, 1786.

Wanted immediately, As an overseer,

A MAN that is well acquainted with the management of a number of negroes, and understands farming; none need apply that cannot be well recommended; with or without a family will be immaterial; good encouragement will be given to a man that understands his business. Inquire of the Printers.

To be RENTED,

A VERY good grist-mill with two pair of stones, bolting-clothes, and every thing convenient, with a large meadow, lying on the Head of South river. Any person inclinable to rent may, have possession in December.

2 FRANCIS RAWLINGS.

Annapolis, October 9, 1786.

FROM this day the subscriber intends to quit tavern keeping, and hopes all his old customers will call on him and pay off their respective accounts as he is in very great want of money; he would be very glad, such as cannot pay him would call and settle by note or bond.

He begs leave to inform the public, that he intends to keep a boarding-house by the year, half year, quarter, month, week, or day, as reasonable as any genteel boarding house in town. Any gentlemen or ladies that will favour him in that way with their custom, may depend on his doing every thing in his power to oblige.

3 X GILBERT MIDDLETON.

October 9, 1786.

I INTEND to petition the next general assembly for restitution of, or compensation for, that part of my confiscated property which remains unfold.

3 JOHN SHUTTLEWORTH.

THIS is to give notice, that I intend to prefer a petition to the next general assembly for an act to confirm my right to part of a tract of land, called Beall's Goodwill, the late property of Henry Hunter, deceased, which he devised to be sold.

4 THOMAS MORTON.

IN consequence of an advertisement of mine forewarning all persons, indebted at either of my stores in Virginia or Maryland, from settling any of their accounts with Mr. John Petty, that gentleman has been pleased to return for answer, that my prohibition was as unjust as my allegation was without foundation; that it was with concern he found himself under the necessity of entering into a public altercation about his private affairs, and should I persist in my unjust accusations, a full account of my transactions with, and conduct towards, Yates and Petty, would enable an impartial public to judge which of the parties had the greatest reason to complain of ill treatment. I would beg leave to inform the gentleman, that it is as disagreeable to me as it can possibly be to him to appear in the public prints, though, at the same time, very willing to appear any where to justify that conduct which I have and hope ever shall be able to reconcile to my own conscience. As he has now broached the matter, I insist on his laying before the public my conduct to Yates and Petty, and trust I shall be very easily able to confute any untruths he may expect to impose upon the public, by an open and candid definition of the same; that my prohibition is unjust, is an assertion as illiberal as 'tis ungrounded. I hope those gentlemen indebted as before mentioned, will pay no attention to Mr. Petty's request of paying their respecting accounts to him, as it will only involve them in law-suits, for I am determined to sue every person that has or shall pay any money to Mr. Petty (for dealings at either of my stores previous to the fourth of February) since the public notice I have given.

THOMAS RUTLAND.

September 23, 1786.

THIS is to give notice, that sundry of the inhabitants of Montgomery, Frederick, and Washington counties, intend to present a petition to the next general assembly, for one more inspection for tobacco, at George-town, on Patowmack river.

It is not a little wonderful that in pay- ing yourself the commission, that the doctrine of dis-

Mr. Hollyday, colonel Ramsey, and myself, transacted the business until November 1782, when a resignation by me became necessary on my acceptance of a seat in council. From that time, Mr. Hollyday and colonel Ramsey continued the business, until the resignation of the latter sometime in August or September 1784. In September, I was re-appointed, and the business of the commis- sioners was finished by Mr. Hollyday and myself, and our accounts closed, in December 1785.

If you were as indus- trious in your inquiries after truth as you have been in hunting up frivolous charges against the commis- sioners, you might satisfy yourself of the propriety of their conduct, without stuffing a news-paper with such silly and impertinent questions.
