MR. PEALE, ever desirous to please and entertain the public, will make a part of his house a repository for natural curiosities. The public, he hopes, will thereby be gratified in the sight of many of the wonderful works of nature which are now collected and but seldom seen. The several articles will be classed and arranged according to their several species; and for the greater ease to the curious, on each piece will be inscribed the place from whence it came, and the name of the donor, unless torrid, with such other information as may be necessary.

Mr. PEALE will most thankfully receive the communications of friends who will favour him with their assistance in this undertaking.

Corner of Lombard and Third-streets, Philadelphia. N. B. All the portraits are now removed into the former exhibition room; and exhibitions of the moving pictures with changeable effects, will only be made for private companies, consisting of twenty or more persons, on previous notice being given.

The gentlemen or ladies of Maryland, who are willing to encourage Mr. Peale in his undertaking to collect and form a repository of natural curiosities, are informed, that Mr. Richmond, of Annapolis, will receive for, and forward to Mr. Peale, any thing which may be offered to him for that purpose.
