

fers with the deliberations of the senate. Whenever exigencies shall require the people to make their own will the law, there will be no longer the constitutional legislature consisting of two distinct branches. Even the will of the people may not in truth be regarded, but under that pretext the ambition of a few individuals will be gratified. The whole fabric of the constitution will be dissolved, and we shall plunge into a state of anarchy and confusion, from which we shall be fortunate indeed, if a frame of government shall arise superior to the present.

By the PRESIDENT and DIRECTORS of the PATOW-MACK COMPANY.

NOTICE is hereby given to such of the subscribers for shares in the company, as are delinquents in making the payments heretofore called for by the board, that unless the payment first called for of five per cent. and the second of two and an half per cent. on each share, are made to the treasurer by the first of March next; the third of ten per cent. by the first of April next, and the fourth of ten per cent. by the first of May next, they will proceed to make immediate sale of the shares agreeable to law. And for the information of such persons as have not made themselves acquainted with the directions of the law in this case, the board think proper to inform them that if such sale does not produce the full sum ordered and directed to be advanced, with the incidental charges, the said president and directors, or a majority of them, in the name of the company may sue for and recover the balance by action of debt, or on the case; and the said purchaser or purchasers shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as if the said sale had been made by the original proprietor. And it is expected that those who have it in their power will make their payments as early as possible, that the board may be enabled to proceed in the work with more vigour.

By order of the board,
1 JOHN POTTS, jun. secretary.

THIS is to forewarn all persons from taking an assignment of a bond given by me to a certain Peter Young, as I am determined not to pay the same.

WILLIAM YOUNG.

Howard's-Hill, January 1, 1787.

THE partnership of RIDLEY and PRINGLE having expired, all persons indebted to them are requested to make immediate settlement of their accounts. The ardent desire they have, and the urgent necessity there is for winding up all their old affairs, compel them to call on every one without distinction. A longer indulgence than that already given, must not be expected; and therefore all those who neglect this notice, may depend on actions being brought against them to the ensuing courts.

They have on hand, a large quantity of dry goods, which they will sell for cash, tobacco, flour, depreciation or other state securities, or at a short credit. Any person desirous of purchasing, may find their advantage by an early application for the above goods.

BRILLIANT,

IS now in fine order, and for sale, his pedigree the best, his merits on the turf with that of his stock (as far as they have been tried) equal to any horses in the state of Maryland.

If Brilliant is not sold by the 15th of February next, he will cover mares the ensuing season in Queen-Anne's county, at three guineas the mare, where there will be good pasturage at the usual price; those gentlemen who favour Brilliant with their mares from the western shore shall not be chargeable with the expence of crossing and recrossing the bay, and may be assured that every care and attention to and from the other shore shall be paid to those addressed to the subscriber, in Annapolis. Apply for terms of sale to Robert Wright, Esq; of Chester-town, Kent county, or the subscriber.

THREE POUNDS REWARD.

January 16, 1787.

WENT adrift from my landing the 4th of December last, a flat bottomed clinch work BOAT, about 25 feet in length, and five or six in breadth, only a few months old, and had received a coat of tar about six weeks before I lost her; she has a remarkable wide stern for the convenience of laying a sea out, and her head is very singular, the planks over-jetting and hiding the stem, and their ends secured by a slab of iron a few inches wide, which extends from the top to bottom, and is put on cunningly; the ribs very much at the head and stern, can be rowed with six, and is uncommonly tight for her size; her trawlers are chiefly of mulberry, and her plank of oak. Whoever will inform me by letter, to be left in the post office, at Annapolis, where I may get her again, shall receive a guinea for his trouble, and if the boat is delivered at my landing upon Kent Island, about four miles above Kent-point, which may be conveniently done by any vessel passing up or down the bay, the person or persons delivering her shall receive the above reward, and any other reasonable charges, from

TAKEN up as a stray, by Henry Brookes, living in Montgomery county, a black HORSE, about thirteen hands and an half high, nine or ten years old, branded on the near buttock imperfectly, but supposed to be with the letters R W, paces, trots and gallops. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to prefer a petition to the next general assembly of the state of Maryland, to pass a law to enable her to sell and dispose of a tract of land in Worcester county, known by the name of Philip's Adventure.

HANNAH BISHOP.

Frederick county, Maryland.

TO BE SOLD,

ABOUT three thousand acres of land, situated on a Little and Middle Bennett's-Creek, on the road from Frederick-town to George-town, ten miles from the former, and thirty from the latter; the land will be laid off in lots of unequal quantities; those inclining to purchase, may be acquainted with the terms (which will be easy) on applying to Mr. Phil. Griffith, living near the place, Mr. James Ringgold, Annapolis, or Mr. John Bordley, Kent county, Maryland; the land is all well watered, has a large quantity of bottom finely adapted to meadow, and well calculated for farming and planting.

Property in or near Annapolis or Chester-town, will be taken in exchange.

Annapolis January 16, 1787.

THE subscribers most earnestly request their customers who are in arrears with them, to pay off their several accounts as soon as possible; without this is done, their friends will easily see they cannot carry on the business with that advantage to their customers and themselves, which a ready money or short credit trade is capable of; most of the articles they deal in are ready money articles, and the rest they cannot procure but upon very short credit; they therefore hope their friends will take the matter into consideration, and discharge their balances. They have very urgent demands upon them which must be discharged, on or before the first day of March next, and those of their customers who are in arrears, and do not assist them before that time, it is hoped will not consider it unreasonable to expect a payment in full at that period, which will greatly oblige their obedient servants,

MAYBURY and SMITH.

Annapolis, August 9, 1786.

WHEREAS Mr. Thomas Rutland hath thought proper to publish an advertisement forewarning all persons indebted for dealings at either of his stores in Virginia or Maryland, from paying any money to Mr. John Petty, in behalf of the firm of Yates and Petty, and has assigned for the reason of such publication, that the said Petty had broken the award determined on by gentlemen mutually chosen to adjust their differences, I think it proper to inform the public, that the prohibition of Mr. Rutland is as unjust as his allegation in this respect is without foundation. The supposed breach of the arbitration arises in his opinion, as far as I can conjecture, on the fact commenced by Yates and Petty for the recovery of a very considerable balance due to them from Mr. Rutland, but a little reflection must convince him that his conduct in disposing of a considerable part of his estate, subsequent to the award, rendered this step absolutely necessary, and that Yates and Petty are fully justified in pursuing it, by the terms of the award made by the gentlemen appointed, of which all persons may be fully satisfied by applying at the store of Mr. Petty, in Annapolis. It is with concern that the subscriber finds himself under the necessity of entering into a public altercation respecting his private affairs, but should Mr. Rutland persist in his unjustifiable accusations, a full account of his transactions with and conduct towards Yates and Petty, will enable an impartial public to judge which of the parties has the greatest reason to complain of ill treatment.

The subscriber takes this opportunity of requesting all persons indebted for dealings at the stores (viz. Mr. Rutland's) in Virginia or Maryland, to make immediate payment of their respective accounts, or he shall be under the necessity of making use of compulsory measures to recover the same, which will be very disagreeable to their

ZACHARIAH DUVALL.

Annapolis, July 21, 1786.

Lands for Sale.

THE subscriber has for sale all that tract of land called Beall's Plantation and Snowden's Reputation Supported, containing about 700 acres, situated on the Head of South river, about three miles from navigable water, and contiguous to the estate of Mr. Richard Hopkins, of Gerard.

This is a most eligible situation, being twelveabout miles from the city of Annapolis, twenty-eight from Baltimore-town, twenty-four from George-town, and seven from the inspection houses of Indian Landing and Queen-Anne, is well adapted for corn, wheat, and particularly tobacco, also well timbered and watered, a very good mill stream runs through it; there is some meadow ground, and much more may be made.

The improvements upon it are, a good dwelling house with three large rooms on each floor, kitchen, quarter, cornhouse, stables, tobacco house, a very fine apple orchard, together with a number of other valuable fruit trees.

Mr. Richard Hopkins will shew the premises above mentioned; further particulars may be had of the printers, of Messieurs William Patterfon and brothers, Baltimore, or of
