

Annapolis, July 21, 1786.
Lands for Sale.

THE subscriber has for sale all that tract of land called Hall's Plantation and Snowden's Reputation Supporter, containing about 700 acres, situated on the head of South river, about three miles from navigable water, and contiguous to the estate of Mr. Richard Hopkins, of Gerard.

This is a most eligible situation, being two or about miles from the city of Annapolis, twenty-eight from Baltimore town, twenty-four from Georgetown, and seven from the inspection houses of Indian Landing and Queen Anne, is well adapted for corn, wheat, and particularly tobacco, also well timbered and watered, a very good mill stream runs through it; there is some meadow ground, and much more may be made.

The improvements upon it are, a good dwelling house with three large rooms on each floor, kitchen, quarter, cornhouse, tobacco house, a very fine apple orchard, together with a number of other valuable fruit trees.

Mr. Richard Hopkins will show the premises above mentioned; further particulars may be had of the printers, of Messieurs William Patterson and Brothers, Baltimore, or of JOHN WADDINGTON, in Philadelphia.

N. B. If a purchaser don't off reason for the above plantation it will be rented. Mr. Waddington will be at Mr. Mann's tavern the middle of March, and will treat for it.

A LIST of LETTERS remaining in the Post-Office, Annapolis, which, if not taken up before the fifth day of April next, will be sent to the General Post-Office as dead letters.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away, in the latter end of September or last, from the subscriber, living in Fairfax county, Virginia, a very fat mulatto fellow, about twenty five years of age, with a sandy hair or wool, which he generally combs back, large ears, and eyes, a grim down look, and frowns when spoken to, is a subtle artful fellow, and well acquainted both in Virginia and Maryland, having been formerly a waiting-man; he is fond of dress, and took with him a variety of cloaths; he will change his name and pass for a free man, and may have a forged pass; he will make for the eastern shore or Pennsylvania, or he will attempt to get on board some vessel, probably a bay craft, as he worked on board one by the name of Thomas Webster in his last runaway trip, when he commonly wore a short canvas shirt over his other cloaths. The above reward will be paid for delivering him to the subscriber, or for securing him in any gaol, and giving notice so that his master gets him again, if brought home all reasonable charges paid.

GEORGE MASON, jun.

N. B. All captains or skippers of vessels, and others, are hereby forewarned, at their peril, from taking him board or employing him.

3X

WE, the subscribers, justices of Charles county, not being at court when Mr. Hanton, Mr. Dent, Mr. Samuel Hanton, and Mr. Richard Barnes, signed an advertisement for the press, declaring in what manner they thought the business of the court ought to be carried on for the future, do certify, that we shall readily concur in adopting the method therein proposed, and request the printers to give this a place in the Maryland Gazette.

J. PARHAM, BENNETT DYSON, GEORGE LEE

Anne-Arundel county, January 26, 1787. To be SOLD, by the subscriber, at his dwelling house, on Saturday the 17th of March next, SUNDRY valuable negroes and stock, amount the stock is a very fine breeding mare, now with foal by Sweeper, and two colts got by high bred horses out of the above mare. The terms will be made known on the day of sale, by HENRY MAY.

Harford county, State of Maryland, February 10, 1787.

To be SOLD,

TWO blooded stallions, the property of the late Mr. John Patterson, viz. the noted horse RO-CHESTER, who, for activity, elegance, and pedigree, is exceeded by none on this continent; his performance on the turf is so well known to most of the sportsmen of this state, as to render recapitulation needless. ROMULUS, an elegant full blooded horse, (except a small mixture of the hunter) full sixteen and an half hands high, eight years old this spring, was esteemed a good runner until he met with a small lameness in training, which he has now got over; the above horses will be sold on a credit, the purchaser giving bond and approved security, if not sold by the twentieth of March next, they will be farmed for the season. There is one more for sale at the same place a handsome mare, three quarters blood, very gay, and a good hack, with an elegant figure, being two years old, got by Rochester, equal in figure and size to any thing in the state. Any person desiring to purchase or to farm either of the above stallions, will meet with a good bargain by applying to the subscriber, living four miles on the road from South town to Havre de Grace. All persons indebted to the estate of the above John Patterson, deceased, are requested to make payment, and those who have any claims against the estate are desired to bring them in, that they may be adjusted and paid by

GEORGE PATTERSON, administrator.

FOUR DOLLARS REWARD. Lyon's Creek, Calvert county, January 25, 1787.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 23d instant, a negro man named JACOB, 30 years of age, a stout thick fellow, 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, has a flat nose, and thick lips, he is tolerably handy with an ax, and is a much accustomed of going by water, and very well acquainted in the harbours of Chapeake bay; had on when he went away, an old cotton waistcoat and breeches; I think he has other cloaths with him, but cannot describe them, therefore he may probably change his name; I expect he may endeavor to get employ on board some vessel to Baltimore town, as he is well acquainted in that town. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow, so that his master may get him again, shall receive if above 10 miles from the subscriber, if out of the county three dollars, if out of the state the above reward including what the law allows, paid by WILLIAM JOHNSON.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Queen Anne, in Anne-Arundel county, on the 10th of January, 1787, a negro fellow named POMPEY, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, about 24 years of age, remarkably black, has very white teeth and eyes, a down funky look when spoke to or examined; had on and to k with him sundry wearing appare, viz. a negro cotton jacket and breeches dyed yellow, a pair of old corded ditto, and an old blue silk coat, and a pair of black latten breeches, two old ring shirts half worn; he went off in company with an Irishman by the name of STEPHEN HAMILTON POKE, who it is probable will offer the said fellow for sale. Whoever will be sure either the said POKE or the said negro in gaol, or otherwise, so that his master may get him again, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges paid, by

ROBERT SANDERS.

N. B. All masters of vessels are forewarned carrying him off at their peril.

To be SOLD, on Thursday the 27th of March, at the dwelling of the late Samuel Broden, at fair, if not the next fair day, on credit with approved security, (the terms of credit to be made known on the day)

SEVERAL very valuable negroes, men, women and children, small girls and boys; some house hold and kitchen furniture, plantation utensils, an half blooded mare by Chatham, and a horse cart. The creditors are requested to attend the fair, and to make their claims known on or before the day.

WILLIAM BROGDEN, administrator.

Annapolis, Maryland, February 15, 1787.

JOHN ANSLY, Esq; of the kingdom of Great Britain, having been specially authorized and appointed, pursuant to the directions of an act of the British parliament, to repair to the United States of America, for the purpose of inquiring and examining into such facts and circumstances, as may be material for the better ascertaining the several claims which have been presented under the authority of the act now in force, or any former act, for losses sustained during the late war in America, in consequence of attachment to the British government; and the same having been duly notified in letters from his excellency John Adams, Esq; minister plenipotentiary resident at the court of London, to the honourable the minister for foreign affairs, as aforesaid to his excellency the governor of this state

THEREFORE such inquiry and examination generally, and in conformity, in all cases, for the purpose above mentioned, is at this time intended in the state of Maryland; and of this, all persons any way concerned on behalf of themselves, or their friends, to manifest and make evident the real bona fide amount in value of the actual losses sustained in this state, are hereby particularly desired to take notice.

WHEREAS Thomas Nichols, late of this county, deceased, was appointed inspector of Choptico war hours, in the year 1782; and whereas there still remains in the said warehouse, a few hogheads of tobacco of his, the said Nichols, inspection, which lies in a very ruinous situation; and whereas the subscriber, as administratrix of the said Thomas Nichols, hath paid several hogheads of tobacco that could not be found in the said warehouse, whereby she conceives what remains is her property; these are to notify to the public, that I shall to apply to the next general assembly of Maryland, to pass a law to enable me to dispose of the tobacco now remaining in said warehouse at public vendue, and oblige the holders of the notes (if any) to receive what the same may sell for.

JEAN NICHOLS, administratrix of THOMAS NICHOLS.

February 6, 1787.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers, heretofore vestrymen of St. Paul's parish, lying partly in Queen Anne's and partly in Talbot counties, intend to petition the general assembly at their next session, on behalf of themselves and the representatives of the late Mr. Thomas Wright and Mr. Jacob Beth, to be reimbursed the monies which the subscribers, and the above named gentlemen, took up on their own credit, and expended on the new church in the said parish, generally called Chelster Church; and also to be enabled to discharge any reasonable and just claim against them on account of the said building which may still remain unsatisfied.

The accounts of particulars, shewing the applications of the tobacco levied and monies taken up, are with Mr. Richard Tighman Barie, and may be inspected by any person who desires.

RICHARD T. FARLE, CHARLES PRICE, WILLIAM H. PPER, RICHARD TIGHMAN.

THE subscriber having leased a parcel of the late William T. Farle's plantation, situate on the South river, known by the name of the Light, he is by law liable for all persons who are guilty of carrying with log or gun with them, or of committing any trespass, or from hiding the same, or of being an access, as he is determined to prosecute to make them pay for it who shall be found trespassing upon him in either way.

RALPH FORSTER.

BRILLIANT,

is now in fine order, and for sale, his pedigree is best, his merits on the turf with that of his stock (as far as they have been tried) equal to any horses in the state of Maryland.

It brilliant is not sold by the 15th of February next, he will cover mares the ensuing season in Queen Anne's county, at three guineas the mare, where there will be good pasturage at the usual price; those gentlemen who favour brilliant with their mares from the western shore shall not be chargeable with the expense of crossing, and re-crossing the bay, and may be assured that every care and attention to and from the other shore shall be paid to those addressed to the subscriber, in Annapolis. Apply for terms of sale to Robert Wright, Esq; of Chelster town, Kent county, or the subscriber.

JAMES RINGGOLD.
