

SIX GUINEAS REWARD.
Upper Marlborough. February 25, 1787.

WENT away from the subscriber, the 25th of January last, a negro man named JOE, forty-five years old, about five feet eight or nine inches high, has lost some of his upper fore teeth, and the sight of one of his eyes a little injured; had on a double breasted jacket of coarse blue cloth, with a slash sleeve and large black horn buttons, breeches of blue figured plush, and country made shoes and stockings, and took other cloaths with him; he passed South river ferry soon after his escape, and said he belonged to Mr. Ralph Fortier, of Hill's Delight, and was going home; he is well acquainted with the negroes of that neighbourhood, Annapolis and Baltimore, carries razors, combs and powder bag, and is fond of acting as a barber, has been used to waiting on gentlemen, and is fond of liquor. Any person securing said negro, so that I get him again, shall receive if taken twenty miles from home two guineas, if forty miles four guineas, and if out of the state six guineas, and all reasonable charges if brought home.

D. MAGRUDER.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

Upper Marlborough, Prince-George's county, September 12, 1786.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 4th of June, a negro man named CHARLES, twenty-five years of age, a short thick fellow, about five feet six inches high, has a short flat nose, a very bushy head of hair, thick lips, with a hump on the upper one, he is a lanky fellow, and works well at the wheelbarrow; had on when he went away his common working dress; I have reason to believe he has other cloaths with him, but cannot particularly describe them, therefore he probably may change his apparel. As I purchased him of N. Young, Esq; on Patowmack, I apprehend he is lurking about in that neighbourhood. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow, so that his master may get him again, shall receive above ten miles from home thirty shillings, if out of the county forty shillings, and if out of the state the above reward, including what the law allows, paid by WILLIAM BOWIE, 3d.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

April 30, 1787.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Queen-Anne's county, about the first of this instant, a negro man, about 35 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high. The said negro has a scar on one of his cheeks, a thin visage, and very black. He was seen at Annapolis about a week ago, and had on a large hat somewhat flopped, a Devonshire kersey coat, old white pith breeches, white cotton stockings, and shoes with strings in them. His real name is TOM TANK, but as he is artful and subtle, it is probable he may change it. Whoever secures the said negro, so that his master may have him again, will be paid the above reward by WILLIAM GOLDSBOROUGH.

Prince-George's county, March 30, 1787.

CINCINNATUS,

IS esteemed by judges a horse of perfect beauty, and his whole frame a display of nature's greatest maturity. He is a fine bay, delightfully dappled, has a snip, and one white foot, rising five years old, in high condition and full primed virility, and will cover mares this season for the moderate sum of eight dollars. His fire (whose lineaments he so truly bears) was the noted and much admired ARABIAN, whose get stands to general approval—His dam was got by Dr. Hamilton's imported FIGURE—His grand-dam by DOVE—His great-grand-dam by Colonel Tasker's OTHELLO, upon OLD SELIMA.—From such premises, it may be presumed, that no horse can be better calculated for the purpose of getting stock, either for the turf or saddle.—Cincinnati is the property of the subscriber, and stands in Upper Marlborough.

JOHN SMITH BROOKES.

CARELESS,

WILL cover this season at Strawberry-hill, near Annapolis, at six dollars the mare, and one dollar to the groom.

Excellent pasturage (under a good fence) for mares at three shillings and nine-pence per week, great care will be taken of them, but not answerable for escapes or other accidents.

Careless was got by Colonel Baylor's Fearnought, his dam by Dove, his grand-dam by Othello, his great-grand dam by Old Spark, his great-great-grand-dam was the high bred imported mare Queen Mab, that was the dam of Colonel Hopper's Pacolet.

Newport, Charles county, February 27, 1787.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I shall petition the next general assembly, for a law enabling me to sell as much of the property of Benjamin Burch, late of Charles county, deceased, as will satisfy a debt due from him to Thomas H. Ridgate which I have paid, the said Ridgate having obtained judgment against me for the aforesaid sum in consequence of my being surety for the said Burch, and also to satisfy a separate claim which I have against the said estate.

JOHN WINTER.

Treasury of the United States.

The commissioners of the board of treasury hereby give notice,

THAT proposals will be received at their office till the 30th day of May next inclusive, for the supply of all rations which may be required for the troops on the present establishment, from the 1st day of July 1787, to the 1st day of July 1788, (both dates inclusive) at the places, and within the districts, herein after mentioned, viz.

At any place or places betwixt York-town in the state of Pennsylvania, and Fort Pitt; and at Fort Pitt.

At any place or places betwixt Fort Pitt and Fort-Mifflin, on the river Ohio; and at Fort Mifflin.

At any place or places betwixt Fort Mifflin, and the mouth of the river Muskingum; and at the mouth of the said river Muskingum.

At any place or places betwixt the mouth of the said river Muskingum, and the mouth of Scioto river; and at the mouth of the said river Scioto.

At any place or places betwixt the mouth of the Scioto river, and the mouth of the Great Miami; at the mouth of the Great Miami. And from thence to the Rapids on the falls of the Ohio; and at the said Rapids.

At any place or places from the Mouth of the Miami river to the Miami village; and at the Miami village.

From the Miami village to Sandusky, and at Sandusky; from Sandusky to the mouth of the Cayoga river.

At any place or places betwixt Fort-Pitt and Venango; and at Venango.

At any place or places betwixt Venango and Le Beau; at Le Beau; betwixt Le Beau, and Presq' Isle, at Presq' Isle; and betwixt Presq' Isle and the mouth of Cayoga river.

At the mouth of Cayoga river, and at any place or places on the route from Fort Pitt to the mouth of Cayoga river.

Should any rations be required at any places or within other districts, and not specified in these proposals, the price of the same to be hereafter agreed on betwixt the board of treasury and the contractor.

The rations to be supplied, is to consist of the following articles, viz.

- One pound of bread or flour.
- One pound of beef, or 1/2 lb of pork.
- One gill of common rum.
- One quart of salt,
- Two quarts of vinegar,
- Two pounds of soap,
- One pound of candles,

The proposals must ascertain the prices of the component parts of the rations, and specify the longest credit, and the terms of payment, which the persons who offer are willing to engage on.

By order,
WILLIAM DUER, sec'y.
March 18, 1787.

Annapolis, January 1, 1787.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Colonel William Hyde, late of this city, deceased, are required to make immediate payments; as there are balances remaining in the hands of several of the late sheriffs, in order that it may be more convenient to those on the eastern shore, the subscriber will authorize some person to receive the sums due from them at the general court in April next, when it is hoped they will pay; those on this side the bay are requested to make payment to the subscriber; those who have claims against the said estate are desired to bring them in legally proved, to

WILLIAM GOLDSMITH, administrator of William Hyde.

N. R. Colonel Hyde in his life-time lent several books and other things which have not been returned, and as some of the books were borrowed by Colonel Hyde I should be much obliged to those who have them to return them to me,

April 16, 1787.

RAN away last night, from the subscriber, living in Charles county, a negro man named WALLEY, a tall slender made fellow, about six feet and an inch high, aged about 35 years, he is not country born, speaks bad English so that it can be hardly understood; had on when he went away a white fearnought jacket, a pair of white nap cotton breeches, and osnabrig shirt, and has taken with him many other cloaths, which I cannot describe, as he is remarkably fond of dress. Also went away at the same time, a negro woman named NELL, aged about fifty years, she is a low squat wench. Also took with them two horses, one a light sorrel, about fourteen hands and an inch high, branded on the near buttock W. the other a dark bay, about fourteen hands high, and a small crop on the end of one of his ears. Whoever takes up the said negroes and horses shall receive for each of the horses, two dollars if brought home, and eight dollars for each negro, paid by the subscriber.

WILLIAM M. WILKINSON.

May 8, 1787.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of Dr. Henry Reader, late of St. Mary's county deceased, that they are requested immediately to discharge the same; and all those having just claims against the said estate, are desired to bring them in, legally proved that they may be paid.

ELIZABETH READER, Executrix.
THOMAS A. READER, Executor.

Anne-Arundel county, May 6, 1787.

WHEREAS my wife Hero Richardson, hath eloped from my bed and board, this is therefore to forewarn all persons from trusting her on my account, for I will not pay any debts of her contracting after this date.

THOMAS RICHARDSON.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, near Chaptico, in St Mary's county, on the 31st of December, 1786, Negro STEPHEN, formerly the property of Mr. John Lucas, on Patuxent river; he is a dark mulatto, nineteen years old, five feet two or three in his height, proportionably made about the body and shoulders for height, but remarkable spare slim feet, legs and thighs; there is a scar upon the side of his right knee, occasioned by sticking an ax in it; a stout tail set of teeth, and a remarkable furly down look when accented with having done amiss; he had on and took with him, a felt hat, white linen shirt, two coats, one a brown broad cloth, the other a blue, turned up with black, and lined with white; a country spun and full purple cloth jacket, button holes bound with the same, white drilling breeches. I have heard he has changed his name, and passes as a freeman in company with Nace Butler, as a kinman; who has now a suit depending for his freedom.—They have been seen at Mr. Chase's quarter, at Annapolis, and at Baltimore, as tradesmen. Any person that will secure the above mentioned negro, so that I may get him, shall receive five pounds, and if brought home, the above reward, paid by PEREGRINE BOND.

NOTICE is hereby given, that James Semmes, Edward Semmes, and Joseph Milburn Semmes, sons of Thomas Semmes, of Charles county, intend to petition the next general assembly for an act to be passed to appoint trustees for the purpose of selling a tract of land, lying and being in said county, called Hall's Lot, containing about one hundred and thirty acres, in order to satisfy and pay a certain debt due from the father of the petitioners to a certain Joseph Semmes, formerly of Maryland, but now of Liege, in Europe.

To BE SOLD,

A healthy young Negro Wench,

With a Male Child in arms. Inquire of the Printers.

Annapolis, April 18, 1787.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has lately moved to that large and commodious house, formerly occupied by Samuel Chase, Esquire; where he purposes taking in private boarders, by the year or day; he is also provided with good stables for the reception of horses.

VACHEL STEVENS.
