SAVANNAH, (Georgia) April 26.
One of the five hostages given by the Creek Indians for the performance of the treaty held with this state in November last, has put an end to his existence by hanging himself; and there is the greatest reason to think we shall immediately be involved in a war with that nation.

Annapolis, Auditor's office, June 18, 1787.
THE auditor having directed a circular letter, of which the following is a copy, to the several persons who have not accounted for public monies received by each during the late war, and apprehending that some of them may be removed from the places they lived at when they received the money, &c. by which means the letters may not get to their hands; he takes this method of calling upon all persons concerned, and requests their particular attention to the subject of the said letter.

C. RICHMOND.

(CIRCULAR.)
Annapolis, Auditor's office, June 18, 1787.
SIR,
UPON the books of this office you stand charged as stated below. I was in hopes that every person who had received any sum or sums of money from this state for the purpose of recruiting the army or procuring supplies for carrying on the late war, would long before this time have rendered such accounts thereof, as would have enabled the officers here to have charged the United States with such parts of their disbursements as are properly chargeable thereto. And as the time for presenting the claims of the state against the union is limited to a very few months, I have to request that you will, without loss of time, enable me to settle your account, which may very materially benefit the community of which you are a member.

With much respect, I am, Sir,
Your obedient humble servant,

Annapolis, June 14, 1787.
