Annapolis, Auditor's office, June 18, 1787. HE auditor having directed a circular letter, of which the following is a copy, to the feveral persons who have not accounted for public monies received by each during the late war, and apprehending that some of them may be removed from the places. they lived at when they received the money, &c. by which means the letters may not get to their hands he takes this method of calling upon all persons concerned, and requests their particular attention to the subject of the said letter. C. RICHMOND.

(CIRCULAR.) Annapolis, Auditor's office,

JPON the books of this office you stand charged an stated below. I was in hopes that every person who had received any tum or tums of money from this state for the purpose of recruiting the army or procuring fupplies for carrying on the late war, would long before this time have rendered such accounts thereof, as would have enabled the officers here to have charged the United States with such parts of their disbursements as are properly chargeable thereto. And as the time for presenting the claims of the state against the union is limited to a very tew months, I have to request that you will, without lois of time, enable me to settle your account, which may very materially henefit the community of which you are a member.

With much respect, I am, Sir, Your obedient humble servant.
