THE SERVICE AS THE FOREST THE

THE S.D. A. Y. FULL 26, 17875.

Seontinued with very little interruption, Enewpy han nine verified accidents of the plague having treaty with the grand fignior." nce happened in the Greek village of St. Dimitri, Letters from Buchareft, in Wallachia, fay there ehend that the contagion will again spread on the place on the 16th of March last. turn of warm weather

BERLIN, April 21. By the last accounts from Vienna the empero profes returning through Upper Hungaria, and ill not, it is faid, in all, be absent above fix weeks. or far from Belgrade there will be a fmall corps of servation stationed, as war between Russa and Porte is thought to be absolutely determined oon, and will, it is reported, be publicly declared

Extrast of a letter from Algiers, March 18. tertaining to you, as it ferves to thew the disposion of the dey in its true light.—On the sock of inuary the St. Gertrude, a Spanish frigate, arrived ere, commanded by the chevalier Fonguion; a ig from Carthagena arrived immediately after on bard of which was the compte D'Espilly, accompa-

ed by the Spanish consul Herrera, the vice conful blonel Don Juan Thomas, and the chevalier de anderset, the two latter came on the business of gotiating a peace for the courts of Naples and Lifof The Spanish conful came on those on the 30th, was received with some degree of politeness. n the 2d of February was brought on f remaining part of the money promifed by the burt of Spain, as the price of peace, confitting of bur hundred and ninety thousand pieces of eight. Vith this the dey was not fatisfied, and expressed anger to the conful, asking why the king of pain had not fent the 5,000,000 pieces promile be conful answered, that the ship Minho had tought 700,000 pieces, which with the 490,000 bw brought, made the promised sum of one millireckoning 90,000 pieces of eight for every 100,

The compte was grossly abused by the dey who called sugars very cheap." this scene, adding that he would himself write of life." romifed to pay those debts, which are, in fact the powers, who are now arming for the purpose of chasof the dey's court, in order to procure etr affiltance in negotiating a peace.

count of the whole affair to the court of Spain, Russan ambassador is guarded there at sight by a commence. Some are allowed 3 days, some more,

T of from the latter end of December, till May 6. A letter from Algiers, dated February 20, the part of his fovereign, to the latt reprefentation the third instant, joined to a total full says, to The plague, which has fo long desolated made by the Porte I and in easy the pention of the plague for upwards of this place and its environs, has at last disappeared, not be conformable to the defices of his big bress, he o days, induced a hope that this city and neighe but the fmall-pox rages in its flead with almost may expect to be that up in the castle of the seven ourhood were at length freed from the contagion. equal violence, that diforder having, in the course towers, and open war will be inevitable. The peout it is now apparent that the open moult whether of a few months, carried off 35,000 persons. The ple of Constantinople breathe nothing but vengeance. hich commenced the 3d inflant, though it lasted dey has feat a dragoman to Constantinople to make A few days since they sacrificed to their fury two aly till the roth, has reproduced that malady, no lefs the usual presents to the divan, and to renew the Russian soldiers.

ry near Pera; to that there is great reason to app was a violent thock of an earthquake felt at that

A letter from Hanover tays, that as foon as t rder was iffued out by the regency, for filling up the vacancies in the feveral regiments, a number of young fellows, who were out of employment, enterd tate the fervice, and are now learning their exertie. Molt of them, the letter fays, are upwards of have lately captured in every part of the Mediterra- now stationed at the different posts in Canada. The following account cannot fail of being near, &c. by which the merchants have fullained. The regulation of the militia of Vermont has equally rapacious and unexpected, as presents to a upon a very respectable footing. very large amount have been lent from the state to the emperor of Morocco, who accepted of them, and promited that proper orders should be given to all bis cruifers to pay the necessary attention to all thips carrying the Venetian flag."

Extract of a letter from Venice, March 2.

A merchant at Pool has received a letter from St. John's, in Newfoundland, that upon the 20th of March they had a violent hurricane them which had cone confiderable damage to the stagest buildings, &c. and that the Orphee, a French man of was of 64 guns, was lost on the banks, but all the crew except two men got on thore, and procured a veilel at St. John's to carry them home, which is fear - God grant that their fears may not be supposed to be lost, as the has not been heard of. lized. Letters from Oftend mention, that three ships of large burthen are now fitting out there, by the emperor's order, for trading to different parts of boat, dated Falmouth, April 28. "We are just arrived here from the Leeward oo sequins, as agreed upon by the articles of peace. Islands, after a passage of 38 days of blowing he dey flew into a violent passor on thating this, weather as ever I met with at this time of the year, nd infilted upon the other 10,000 pieces, otherwise and many vessels have selt the bad effects of it, for would arrest the frigate, the brig, and all the off the rocks of Scilly we saw several pieces of rew. But on the conful's promiting to pay the wrecks and dead bodies floating about, and foon hole, he became more calm, and feemed con- after the hull of a large thip, foreign built, driving before the wind, which we with great difficulty kept "On the 24th the Spanish commander, accom- clear of. Every thing is in a flourishing state in our anied by the other officers and compte D'Espilly, island, and the greatest harmony exists among the ame to have their audience of leave from the dey. people; further I can affure you, that you will have im vagabond, thief, impostor, Sc. and lest any part A letter from St. Kitt's, dated March 20, says, interpreter to translate them literally to him. have full cargoes, for never had we greater plenty he dey also added, " Give back the letter which I of sugar than the last crop, and we have enough lest hom you have robbed."-and after a moment's fi- which have fuffered greatly by harricanes, and ence, cried out in a vehement tone, " Ge to bell other islands by peltilential disorders, which have va t' en au diable) and then turning to the com- carried off a number of their negroes; but, thank ered them to give to their king a faithful account contrary, enjoy health, and plenty of every necessary tell him that he must give security for the pay- this his holiness had issued orders for the equipment villains. bent of the compte D'Espilly's debts, otherwise he of some stont ships, to protect his subjects from the would have him yoked to the plough, and made to attacks of those lawless depredators; and intends lork with a chain about his feet; the conful then uniting his force to that of the other chieftain

Extract of a letter from on board the Dashwood packet

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 24. Che compte is gone to Madrid to defend himfelf, and corps of janillaries, and dares no longer quit his lear up his conduct. There is no doubt that he will palace. It is fail that at the intersellent of the other and the first of the parties of the parties of the parties of the series of forty cays has been granted to him, for which he is to give a categorical answer of

BOSTON, Tene 29:

We are informed, by a gentleman of this town, who left Lake Champlain the 18th inflant, that the British have fitted out the thip Maria, of 20 guns, in order to cruife on that Lake; that the was three miles from the line, within our territories, when he came from thence; that the had taken one vessel (faid to be on the imaggling butiness) belonging to the United States; and that the British were also fitting out a gun boat, which was to accompany the Maria, in cruiting on the Lake. This thip, it is faid, was taken from us during the late war.

The naval armament which has been for some We are also informed, by the same gentleman, Constantinople in ten days; nowithstanding this time in preparation by order of the senate, it is now that lord Dorchester, governor of Quebec, lately isempress full purposes being enowned at Cher- well known, is to join a Spanish fleet, for the boin- fued a proclamation, containing orders for putting bardment of Tetuan, in order to take some revenge the militia of that province on the best establishment for the behaviour of the Morisco cruisers against possible; and that six regiments were certainly comthe vessels belonging to this republic, which they ing from England, said to be a telief for the troops very heavy losses. This conduct of the Moors is been lately undertaken, and it is faid, will soon be

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Berksbire county, dated June 20, 1787. Depredations on the property and persons of those who unfortunately have been friends to govern. ment in these counties are nightly committed. We have frequent instances of persons being violently attacked and beaten on the roads while they are journeying in a peaceable manner; in short, we are exposed to all the evils of a depredatory civil war. The infurgents plume themselves on baves many friends in the government-and indeed those who are opposed to them think they have every thin

LANSINGBOROUGH, 7une 25.

A gentleman who passed through town last Satura day, from Egremont, informs, that on the 18th instant, a number of the infurgenter among whom were Adams and Dunham, paid a vifit to a Mr. Kellogg, of that place, who was faluted by Dunham with the breech of a gun, then tobbed of every thing valuable in his house, even to the shirt on his back. Mr. Kellogg would probably have received more abuse, had he not in the continuon of plunder ing the house, made his escape at a back door. The russians then proceeded to the house of E. Hopkins, Efg; into which they discharged five balls that pasfed through the curtains of the bed in the room where they supposed he lodged; but their ofual cowardice prevented their entering the house, as they knew Mr. Hopkins to be armed, and concluded he would oppose them.

Their next attack was upon the de enceles house this language mould be loft upon him, ordered . All the ships that have arrived here this season of the rev. Bliphalet Steele, who they robbed of about forty pounds worth of provisions and cloathing; they also took from the rev. Mr. Alexander, trusted you with to the king of Spain; deliver it to load another steet. We have received melanche- (who happened that night to be at Mr. Steele's) his the consul, whom I shall send to him; and re- ly accounts from several of the French islands, par- hat, great-coat, and watch. They then sted over hain you here till you have paid the money to those ticularly from Guadaloupe and Martinico, both the line to this state, where it is supposed they will endeavour to continue till their ill gotten gains are confumed, when, it is supposed, they will again vifit the inhabitants of Berkshire.

hander of the frigate and the Spanish conful, he or- God, we are free of those calamities, and, on the We are informed, by the same gentleman, that a number of the printipal inhabitants of Berkshire. have figued a subscription-paper, offering a reward his catholic majelty. On the 25th early in the The barbarians still continue their depredations of one hundred dollars for either Dunbam or Adams. porning, the dey fent a Chaouse Maure to the compte on the coasts of Italy: Letters from Rome affert, that double the fun for both, and half the faid fum for Espilly, to order him to leave the town di- three Algerine frigates had landed a number of men either of their accomplices in the above mentioned ectly, and repeat to him the language of the pre- on the eclefialtical territories, and after plundering robberies. ---- We prefume that a bare representation eding day. Scarcely was the compte on board, and destroying a whole village, had carried of feveral of the facts will be fufficient to induce every honest hen the day lent again a messenger to the conful of the unfortunate inhabitants. In Buscquence of man to exert himself in apprehending such nesations dated Jane 7. 1787. . I wrote a few days fince, by the way of Phila-The mails from Holland and Flanders, which ar- delphia, noting the effects likely to take place in fived yesterday, brought the following letter from consequence of a late prohibition of all communica-It is certain that the compte did not make good Banat of Temeswar, dated April 4:-- If private tion with the English Islands; it is actually the case, his large promites; and as the conful fent an letters from Constantinople may be believed, the and days are advertised in each Island when it shall

> WILMINGTON, (Delaware) July 4. Extract of a letter from a correspondent in St. Eustatias.