Annapolis, July 26, 11 erving that little attention vertilement of theirs, and be at balances are against them. ation to their cultomers for reted will be complied with respective balances completed alt of September sears - Theo subscribers with their custom, he articles they have deals and les, or cannor be procured but serefore they hope that this reionable, and that attention be enable them to complete what , discharging their balances incis in a manner more to their y to those who honour shem

MAYBURY and SMITH.

captain Hunter, from London, n the noit reasonable terms oduce, by TITY, and Co.

napolis and Port- Tobacco general affortment of DRT le for the present season! All orchefter Ale, Sherry, very old Wine, in bottles. I hey have olete iron Crane, made to pur culated for a public what or lary's county, July 2, 1787. onnexion in business has been us, the subscribers, under the company, which bufiness was coe, this is to give notice, that now difforved, and that thould ive any demands thereon, the nem known, and those who are e requested to make immedian n Brilcoe. HN BRISCOE,

RCHIBALD CAMPBELL.

OLLARS. REWARD.

July 23, 1787. the Patuxent iron, works, lat ed frith fervant man, name ikely fresh looking young selas inches high, thort light hait a and took with him a felt hat, ight over ja ket, fhort cotton rolls trouters, and coarfe thou s a very artful tellow, it is proed pals. Whoever will the up letiver nim to the tubl riber, or and give information to that he receive the above reward, paid THOMAS SNOWDEN.

NDS.REWARD.

July 23, 1787. N away from the Patuxent on-works, on the first of this a negro man named GEORGE young fellow, about five fed inches high, of a dark yellow exion; had on and took with feit hat, one ofnabrig and out ught and one cotton jacket, one and coarse shoes with strings .-Mr. James Rigby, of Hunting y, and it is probable he will en ed by the negroes of that neigh er to pais as a free man, and to Whoever will take up the about in any gaol, and give informs fo that he may be had again, above reward, paid by THOMAS SNOWDEN.

NDSREWARD. July 11, 1787. A N away from the subscribes living near Annapolis, on the instant, a negro man name , a lufty well made fellow, about teet nine or ten inches high y years old. he has a fear on his t from a burn when young; ha nd breeches, new ofnabrig thin er takes up and fecures the fal iter gets him again, thail receive in home, twenty thillings; if of hillings; and it out of this flat luding what the law a lows, page

BT. B. WORTHINGTON.

SUPPLEMENT to the MARYLAND GAZETTE. T H U R S D A Y; August 2, 1787.

Till the seth of December next, at very low prices, The merro women, a negro boy, and negro girl.—One of the women is a cook, the other unerstands washing and ironing, &c. The boy and girl are each of them old enough to be uteful-sinquire of the printers.

July 14, 1787. FIRS IS is to give notice to all whom it may or shall concern, that I was possessed of zoo acres of land, Part of Rebecca's Lot, lying in Anne-Arundel county, which faid 100 acres I fold to Benjamin Hood, on or about the saft day of October, in the year 1773, and gave bond for the conveyance of my right to the same to the said Hood, on his paying the purchase money with the accruing interest, and took the faid Hood's bond for the money; that the faid Hood afterwards fold his right to Rhefa Todd, not having paid me for the land, and fo informing the said Todd; that the said Todd atterwards sold the faid land to Peter Bond, who was at the time of his purchase informed by the taid Hood, that I had not been paid for the land, when I fold the land to Hood. I gave him possession, but I have since regained possession, and mean to keep it until I am paid what is due to me on Hood's bond. REZIN HAMMOND.

July 12, 1787. A L L persons who have been accounts with Mr. A William Molleson, for dealings at any of his flores in this country, or are otherwise indebted to him for connexions in London, are requested to make speedy payment to the subscriber, at Nottingham, where he keeps the books in order to fettle with every one, and wifhes to collect the debts, to fatisfy the claims in this country against Mr. Molleson. Those who do not speedily comply, must not blame me for consequences; the business will be put into lawyer's hands to compel payments.

I want to employ a young man, to collect debts, copy off accounts, &c. &c. Any one who comes recommended, well qualified, will meet with encouragement, by applying to THOMAS CONTRE.

Annapolis, July 10, 1787. COMMITTED to my cultody, the two following Aaves: DAVID ANDERSON, a mulatto, about 30 years of age, fays he is a carpenter and thoemaker, and that he belongs to Mrs. Hannah Hipkins, in Westmoreland county, Virginia, has on an ofnabrig fhort coat and overalls. Negro Hugh, about as years of age, fays he belongs to Mr. John Brooks, of Effex county, in Virginia; but that he was under fentence of death, and broke gaol in May last, says he is a carpenter; has on an old green thert coat, corduroy breeches, and a leather hat glazed. The owner or owners are requested to come, take them away, and pay charges. DAVID STEUART, theriff of

SIX DOLLARS REWARD.

Elk-Ridge, July 13, 1787. In A N away from the fubicriber, about the 20th of April last, a negro man named Y.ORK formerly the property of Thomas Watkins, deceased, he is about 6 feet high, of a vellow complexion, about forty-fix years of age; had on when he went away, a mean apparel, fuch as negroes commonly wear; he is supposed to be about Queen-Anne, as he always lived in that neighbourhood, till removed to the above place last spring. Whoever will take up said negro, and secure him in any gaol, or so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, including what the law allows, and reasonable charges if brought home, by NICHOLAS WATKINS.

Anne Arundel county.

Strawberry hill, near Annapolis, June 20, 1787. OST, about the a5th day of last May, between the Bodkin and the mouth of Magothy river, a fmall almost new BOAT, about ten or twelve feet keel, rows with four oars, and has the subscriber's name cut on her stern. Whoever will deliver her here. or give fuch information that the be recovered, thall be well paid for their trouble, by RICHARD SPRIGG.

To se SOED, by the subscriber, at Annapolis, on Wednesday the 8th day of August, A GRAY mare, 3 blood, got by Badger, and three fillies, mahogany tables, half a dozen mahogany chairs, and a young negro wench 19 years of age, and leveral other articles. WILLIAM BROWN.

Annapolis, Auditor's office, June 18, 1787. FIRE auditor having directed a circular letter, of which the following is a copy, to the feveral perfons who have not accounted for public monies received by each during the late war, and apprehending that some of them may be removed from the places they lived at when they received the money, &c, by which means the letters may not get to their hands ; he takes this method of calling upon all persons concerned, and requests their particular attention to the subject of the said letter. C. RICHMOND:

(CIRCULAR.)

Annapolis, Auditor's office, 4 UPON the books of this office you fland charged as stated below. I was in hopes that every person who had received any fum or jums of money from this state for the purpose of recruiting the army or procuring supplies for carrying on the late war, would long before this time have rendered fuch accounts thereof, as would have enabled the officers here to have charged the United States with such parts of their disbursements as are properly chargeable thereto. And as the time for presenting the claims of the state against the union is limited to a very tew months, I have to request that you will, without loss of time, enable me to lettle your account, which may very materially benefit the community of which you are a member.

With much respect, I am, Sir, Your obedient humble servant,

For PRIVATESALE,

O N four years credit, by paying a small part of the purchase money, 415 acres of good sertile lands lying in Prince-George's county, within nine miles of Queen-Anne, eleven of Bladensburg, twenty of Annapolis, and convenient to several good grift and sawmills; the land is about half cleared, and under good fence, well timbered and watered, with plenty of meadow ground; this plantation is well improved, with three dwelling houses, and three tobacco houses, &c. &c. and few excel it for fruit of all kinds, both in quality and quantity; there are one hundred and fifty cherry trees, and, in a plentiful year, ten thousand gallons of cider of the best quality can be made; the truit trees of all kinds are young and thriving. This land will be fold together, or divided into lots, as may best suit the purchaser or purchasers. Any person inclining to purchase, may view the land and improvements by applying to Doctor James Macgill, living near the premiles, or to the subscriber; and if it is not fold before the 2d day of August next, it will, on that day be fold at public vendue, on the premises. Bond with approved fecurity will be required, bearing interest from the day of sale, when possession shall be given, by

RICHARD HIGGINS. Timber of any dimensions, and of the best quality, to be fold by Annapolis, January 1, 1787. A L L persons indebted to the citate of colone. Wil-I liam Hyde, late of this city, deceased, are requested to make immediate payments; as there are ballances remaining in the hands of leveral of the late theriffs, in order that it may be more convenient to those on the eastern shore, the suoscriber will authorise fome person to receive the sums due from them at the general court in April next, when it is hoped they will pay; those on this side the bay are requested to make payment to the fubicriber; those who have claims against the said estate are desired to bring them in legally proved, to

/ WILLIAM GOLDSMITH, administrator of William Hyde. N. B. Colonel Hyde in his life-time lent several books and other things which have not been returned; and as some of the books were borrowed by colonel Hyde, I should be much obliged to those who have W. G. them to return them to me, of importance sfulting their principals. the general affemblies of d, the deputies acted in en their general allemme custom was used, in a in Languedec and Britconfider how far this auyour. It amounts to no eputies did not choose to constituents, before they e agreable to them. Is y, to prove the cultom in e peoples dictating laws atives ? Why, Sir, thefe m did more than confider from the court. It would reading, to discover one majority of the people at or Spain determined, that be paffed, and f. gave refentative body, that this the allembly of nobles, &c. ould you even do that, it els you could shew likewife. all the branches. en us is determinable only our compact, is a polition. always repeating. I have deliton on every ground, iew. To a flight thinker. appear not very marerial. enuoully as Publicola, that ginates from the people; ent, there is a facred comlied; and that fociety and folely for the good of the whenever the legislature ples lentiments and wishes indeed, in all cases, withto the controlly, do as the Publicola feems to admit. to dictate, except on ochere then is the mighty octrines of Publicola and eir contest about instrucontest in England ? The According to Publicola. or of the voters, shall h to subscribe instructions as done. The legislature to that direction. But he legislature are at liberefe inftructions, although contain the general fense, le fense be right. There stances to render improper are falutary to the people, individual has of the fubtoo, in many cales, for to adopt meafures, consecording to Publicola, I oft which the legislature after receiving " national adjourn, and address the o rescind those instructions. there will be little encou-

y time, to make a pretext enfe, in order to force uppon a diffenting branch, a rejected, upon the mathing had not actually te believed, that any man prefumption to call anand ignorant of the peonding, chat each branch ife its own judgment, in difinterested view, it is t the peoples having a to the legislature, and to hereon, can operate as a vance the true interests requent exercise of fuch a wer of no avail the falutary inattent was the west less action were complicating on bins. Unturion of two diffinet branches, and indeed to confer thould wore contrary who windicates thy fament the Publicola with the all power on a few men, can hardly be doubted. for borough, his vote pleased to examine strentively, he will find that, Your position is, that, if the right exists not, both branches " may surn their backs upon the complaints and grievances of the people; and, to obtain redrefs, the people mult hazard a revolution and the halter." I have before, more than once follicited your attention to the fecurities we enjoy against such deplorable corruption in our trustees. Should they really pective governments; lag supplies, as Charles defired; because they had think you be exerted, to prevent instructions, or to you, that the case of the received no orders from the towns, which fent them, defeat them, after they were given? Where are the withat if a bill thould be when Sydney speaks of deputies obliged to puritie welsons of a majority of the orders of thole, who lend them, he means the the houseof commons, deputies of the states of the United Netherlands, of the press, and of the kings of the captons in Switzerland, or of the free towns In Cermany. It is true, he lays the deputies of a your that the depoties of the Cathley in the cortex held at Madrid, in the time