Annapolis, July 26, 1787.
COMMITTED to my custody, negro HUGH, about twenty-one years of age, says he belongs to Mr. John Brooks, of Essex county, in Virginia, that he was under sentence of death, and broke out in May last, says he is a carpenter; has on an green short coat, corduroy breeches, and a saber hat glazed. The owner is requested to come, take him away, and pay charges, by the 29th of September next, otherwise, on that day he will be sold for the purpose of discharging his prison fees.

DAVID STEUART, Sheriff of Anne Arundel county.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.
Upper Marlborough, Prince-George's county, September 20, 1786.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 4th of June, a negro man named CHARLES, twenty-five years of age, a short thick fellow, about five feet six inches high, has a short flat nose, a very bushy head of hair, thick lips, with a lump the upper one, he is a handy fellow, and works all at the whip-saw; had on when he went away his common working dress; I have reason to believe he has other cloaths with him, but cannot particularly describe them, therefore he probably may change his parel. As I purchased him of Notley Young, Esq; Patowmack, I apprehend he is lurking about in that neighbourhood. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow, so that his master may get him again, shall receive if above ten miles from home thirty shillings, if at or above the county forty shillings, and if out of the state above reward, including what the law allows, aid by

26 WILLIAM BOWIE, 3d.

TO BE SOLD,
A healthy young Negro Wench, With a Male Child in arms. Inquire of the Printers. 12

St. Mary's county, Maryland, June 30, 1787.
ALL persons indebted to the estate of Enoch Fenwick, late of St. Mary's county, state of Maryland, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment; and those having any demands, are requested to bring them in legally proved to the subscriber.

JOSEPH MILLARD, executor.

August 2, 1787.
ALL persons indebted to Thomas Hams, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims are desired to bring them in, legally proved, by the first day of November, that they may be settled, by THOMAS PYPER, administrator.

August 16, 1787.
TO BE SOLD, on Saturday the 18th day of September next, on the premises, if fair, if not the Monday following, or the next fair day, THE dwelling plantation where Thomas Elliott, deceased, formerly lived, containing one hundred acres, more or less. The above land is exposed to sale to satisfy and pay the debts of Thomas Elliott, deceased.

JAMES ELLIOTT, heir at law.

All persons indebted to the said estate by bond, note or otherwise, are desired to make immediate payment on or before the day of sale, otherwise they may depend on having suits commenced against them to November court.—And all those having claims against said estate, are requested to make them known on or before the day of sale, that they may be adjusted, by

CA THARINE ELLIOTT, administratrix.

Of Both Houses.

July 4, 1787.
THE PRESIDENT and DIRECTORS of the PA-TOWMACK COMPANY.

THE subscribers for shares in the said company are hereby informed, that the further sum of six pounds sterling on each share, is ordered by the board to be paid into the hands of the treasurer, on or before the fifteenth day of August next.

By order of the board,
JOHN POTTS, Secy.

Annapolis, August 6, 1787.
AT the particular request of many of the respectable inhabitants of this city, the subscriber purposes to open a circulating library on the first day of September next, on the following terms, viz. Each early subscriber to pay, at the time of subscribing, one guinea, half yearly subscribers three dollars, quarter y 0. twelve shillings and six pence, and monthly one dollar, a single octavo volume one shilling, and duodecimo six pence. Subscriptions for the above will be taken in at the subscriber's store in Church-street, Annapolis, where may be had all sorts of stationary, plated ware, jewellery, silver watches, pocket books, &c. &c.
STEPHEN CLANK.

By virtue of a writ of faci factis, to me directed, will be sold on the 30th day of August, at the plantation where Daniel Bridgal now lives, on the north side of Severn river,

FOUR negroes; one horse; three milch cows, and one calf; taken as the property of Daniel Bridgal, and to be sold to satisfy a debt due the state of Maryland. 3X DAVID STEUART, Sheriff, of Anne Arundel county.

August 13, 1787.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber, of Dorchester county, being unable to discharge his debts, means to apply to the justices of Dorchester county court in October next, to liberate him agreeable to the act of assembly, passed last session of assembly.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber,
to the act of assembly, passed last session of assembly.

WILLIAM PRITCHETT.

August 8, 1787.

Eighty Silver Dollars, or Ten Half Joes Reward,

FOR apprehending and bringing home, two runaway slaves, one a mulatto man named DICK, about 27 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, a well made, active, plausible fellow, has a scar by his right eye; took with him a green cloth coat, with a crimson velvet cape, a red plush do. with blue cuffs and cape, a deep blue camblet jacket, with gold lace at the sleeves, down the breast and round the collar, a pair of Russia drab overalls, a white shirt, two olnabrig do. a pair of pumps and buckles, with sundry other cloaths; it is probable he may change some of those described, if he meets with any one inclinable to barter; he has some money with him, and probably has a gun, pistol or sword.—The other is a woman, named LUCY, about 26 years of age, about five feet two inches high, a remarkable large list of wool, which she takes much pains in combing; had with her two calico gowns, one purple and white, the other red and white, a deep blue moreens petticoat, two white country cotton do. a striped do. and jacket, a black silk bonnet, a variety of handkerchiefs and ruffles, two lawn aprons, two Irish linen do. a pair of high heel shoes, a pair of kid gloves and a pair of silk mitts, a blue sarfanet handkerchief, trim'd with gauze, with white ribbon sew'd to it, several white linen shifts, olnabrigs for two do. hempen robes petticoats, with several other things that she probably will exchange for others in her power; it is likely they will pass for man and wife, and it is almost reduc'd to a certainty that they have pass'd either as slaves that have been manumitted, or the fellow as a former soldier. If he is taken, much care ought to be taken to secure him properly, as few villains excel him in address and cunning; it is probable they will endeavour to get on board some vessel and go either down the bay or to the eastern shore; if taken 10 miles or under from home, I will give three pounds for the fellow, and twenty shillings for the woman, if 20 miles six pounds and forty shillings for the woman, if 30 miles nine pounds and three for the woman, if 40 miles twelve pounds and five for the woman, if 50 miles seventeen pounds ten shillings and twenty dollars for the woman, and if 60 miles or upwards the above reward, and all reasonable travelling charges when brought home to me in the upper part of Anne-Arundel county in the state of Maryland.

CHARLES ALEXANDER WARFIELD.
P. S. All captains and masters of vessels and others, are cautioned hereby from taking on board, or employing the said slaves. 2 C. A. W.

Annapolis, August 4, 1787.

SIX DOLLARS REWARD.
STRAYED or stolen, from Annapolis, on Saturday 13th July, a bay mare, about four-ten hands high, she has a small blaze, and is remarkably hard. Whoever will secure the said mare, and restore her to the subscriber, shall receive the above reward.

SAMUEL RIDOUT.

June 5, 1787.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Charles county, near Newport on the 30th day of May last, a young negro man by the name of SAM, five feet eight or nine inches high, slender made, of a yellowish complexion, and rather a silly countenance; had on and took with him an old parsons grey country milled coat, trimmed with black, an old country wove jacket and breeches, a pair of yellow cotton overalls or trousers, two new olnabrig shirts, an old Irish linen ditto, and a flopped hat; he formerly belonged to Mr. Gilbert Hamilton Smith, of Anne Arundel county, and may have probably directed his course to that neighbourhood, or, as he has been used to going by water, may attempt to pass for a free man and get on board some vessel. Whoever will apprehend him and lodge him safe in goal shall be entitled to the above reward, and to reasonable charges if brought home. 6 JOHN PARNHAM.

Maryland, Charles county, July 23, 1787.
ON the 26th day of March last, was committed to my goal, as a runaway negro, BEN, the property of major Samuel Bradford, near Fredericksburg, Virginia, who has had early notice thereof.—I therefore give this public notice, that, if the said negro is not released by his master, on or before the 18th day of August next, he will on that day be exposed to public sale, in Port Tobacco, for the discharge of fees.

FRANCIS WARE, Sheriff.

Treasury of the United States.
MAY 24th, 1787.

THE commissioners of the board of treasury of the United States, give notice, That on the 1st day of September next, will be exposed to sale, at the place where the United States in Congress may hold their sessions.—The following townships and lots of lands in the western territory, which were surveyed last year, under the direction of the geographer general of the United States, viz.

The admirable quality of these lands, and the favourable climate in which they are situated, are too well known to need description. The conditions of sale are as follow, viz.

1st. The townships or fractional parts of townships throughout the different ranges, will be sold either entire or in lots in alternate order; that is to say, where a township or fractional part of a township is sold entire, the next will be sold in lots, agreeable to the ordinance of the 20th of May, 1785.

2d. The lands are not to be sold under a dollar per acre, payable in gold or silver, or any of the securities of the United States.

3d. The purchasers are to pay the charges of survey, which are to be estimated at thirty-six dollars in specie, or certificates as aforesaid for every township; and in the same proportion for fractional parts of townships or lots; this payment to be made at the sale, and in case of failure, the lands to be again exposed to public auction.

4th. One third of the purchase money is to be paid at the time of purchase; and the remaining two thirds in three months after the date of the sale; on which payment a certificate shall be given by the treasurer of the United States, which shall entitle the person to whom the same is given to receive from the commissioners of this board a proper title; provided, that if the second payment is not made at the time above specified, the first payment is to be forfeited, and the land on which the forfeit accrued be again set up for sale.

5th. The plots of the townships will be marked by subdivisions into lots of one mile square or 640 acres, and numbered from 1 to 36; and out of each township Lot No. 8, 21, 26, and 29, are to be reserved for future sale; Lot No 16 for the maintenance of public schools within the respective townships, and out of every fractional part of a township, as many lots of the same number as shall be found therein. There will also be reserved to the United States, one third part of all gold and silver, lead and copper mines.

Proper maps and descriptions of the lands will be exhibited at the time and place of sale, and the sales will continue from day to day until the whole are sold.

SAMUEL OSGOOD,
WALTER LIVINGSTON, } Commissioners.
ARTHUR LEE.

Montgomery county, July 26, 1787.

THE subscriber being authorized to survey and lay off all the reserve lands in Maryland, to the westward of Fort Cumberland, desires all who have obtained surveys and titles there, since 1763, to transmit him plain copies of the courses and dates of such surveys, that they may be surveyed, marked, and established.—The very great advantage of surveying and fixing, by a general plat, the vacant tracts in that back unsettled part of the State, so as never again to be in doubt of lots, will certainly be a sufficient inducement for every proprietor of lands there to enclose me their copies immediately, with every direction they can give, describing the situation, beginning, and who was present at the survey when made, or can show it.—As the work will be begun in all August, it is necessary that the copies are immediately enclosed to me, recommended to the care of Mr. George Murdock, merchant in Frederick-town, or Mr. Alexander Clagett, merchant Hagar's town, who will forward them to me at Fort Cumberland. 3 FRANCIS DEAKINS.

Charles county, June 26, 1787.

THE subscriber intends to publish this spring, A Concise System of Arithmetic, adapted to business—the utility and execution of the work, it is hoped, will merit the approbation of an indulgent public.—Gentlemen willing to encourage the undertaking may give in their names to the printers for insertion. 6 JONATHAN ANDERSON.
